W. P. Stewart Hurt at Polo.—W. Plunkett Stewart, of Baltimore, brother of Redmond C. Stewart, and one of the members of the Bryn Mawr Polo Club, was painfully hurt while practicing on the Bryn Mawr field Thursday. Mr. Stewart is a member of the second team, which is in the finals for the Wootten cup. While he was practicing Thursday his pony stumbled. Mr. Stewart could not get his feet out of the stirrups and he was dragged about 50 yards. His right ear was badly torn, his check was cut and one of his eyes injured. His physicians said that it was only his superb physical condition that saved him from being seriously hurt. After being treated Mr. Stewart appeared on the field. Mr. Stewart is the fourth member of the Bryn Mawr Club to meet with an accident. Mr. Stewart is well-known in the town and county, having been here with the Green Spring Valley Hunt club on several occasions.
