LOCAL MATTERS

Record-Breaking Potatoes.—Mr. Hunter R. Robinson, merchant, near the Cliffs, has a fine garden, and a gentleman saw 36 potatoes from one vine large enough to eat, the largest one nearly as large as my fist. It is ahead of anything I ever saw or heard of.

Poultry Exhibit.—Those who are interested in the poultry exhibit at the fair to be held in August, are reminded of the next meeting which will be held in Mr. James G. Beck's office at 2.30 on Friday afternoon next, June 20th. Let there be a full attendance of all those interested.

Every Seat Sold.—Every seat in the hall has been sold for the Paint and Powder Club entertainment this evening, and money has been returned to those desiring seats. The management of the entertainment requests us to say that "standing room" will be sold for 75 cents, and this admission will entitle anyone to any vacant seat there may be in the hall after the first act.

Wins Honors.—Mr. Kent Roberts Greenfield, son of Dr. D. L. Greenfield, of Westminster, was among the number in the graduating department at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, last week, who received the honors, and is entitled to free tuition for one year. There are 30 schoolarships awarded to students. Mr. Greenfield has been engaged to lecture at a number of Chautauquas during the summer.

Granddaughter Contests Will.—Hope H. Barroll, of Chestertown, attorney for Mrs. Henrietta Stevens Mills, wife of Roland Y. Mills, of Baltimore, has filed in the Orphans' Court of Caroline County a caveat to the will of Mrs. Mary Virginia Stevens, late of Caroline county. Mrs. Stevens was a daughter of the late Col. Arthur John Willis, of Caroline, and the wife of B. Gootee Stevens, who died several months ago. Mrs. Mills is a granddaughter. The petition alleges want of testamentary capacity and undue influence.

Instructor Electrocuted.—A very sad accident occurred on Wednesday, June 4, at 3.00 P. M., at the Casino Technical school known as the Westinghouse School of Electricity, Wilkinsburg, Pa., of which Hope B. Hudson, one of our Chestertown boys, is a student. Mr. C. P. Edmunds, Hope's instructor in Mathematics and Trigonometry, was practically Electrocuted by 1100 volts. He was testing a locomotive or test car when the accident happened, and died about 8 P. M., just as the commencement exercises began. All social functions were called off out of respect to him.

A Busy Firm.—The well-known Lynch's firm of Stavely & Bowers, contractors and builders, are as busy as bees, running a force of 20 carpenters, with various big jobs in and out of the county. They are building a pretty home for Mr. Eugene M. Bonwell in Still Pond, putting up a 10-stall stable and big shed on the Jump farm, occupied by Mr. John Dwyer, repairing and painting the home of Mr. John Usilton on Poole's Island; building a large granary for P. A. M. Brooks on his farm tenanted by Mr. William Whiteley, for a milk station at Worton, 32x60 feet, with concrete foudation and galvanized iron sides and roofing, and numerous other jobs around the county. The firm is always busy because they do the most satisfactory kind of work, and the materials they sell from their lumber yards at Lynch are of the best and cheapest. This firm received the contract for the building of Mr. George B. Westcott's home on Front street, but they very magnanimously decided that the Chestertown field belongs to the local contractors and they asked to be released by Mr. Westcott and left the field here open to home talent.

Mr. Joseph Harbison, who is tilling the lot on Front street controlled by Mr. J. Arthur Bradley, in potatoes, showed us three potatoes on Thursday as large as a full-grown walnut with the hull on. Mr. Harbison says there were 13 potatoes on the vine from which he pulled the three samples.

Prof. S. Walter Sparks will conduct the Park School Camp for boys this summer as he did last year. The boys will camp in the Adirondacks on Lake Sharoon and have a fine time in prospect. The camp is limited to 50 boys. Irving Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks, will join the camp from Chestertown on July 1st.

Mrs. Thomas D. France, whose flower yard is always beautiful, has a real curiosity in the shape of a dragon lily in full bloom. There are two blooms, one of which measures 22 inches in length, 14 inches across, with a 12-inch stamen. It has attracted numerous visitors to the home during the week.

The Baccalaureate address to the graduates of Washington College will be delivered in William Smith Hall tomorrow (Sunday) morning by President James W. Cain. The sermon to the Y. M. C. A. will be delivered by Rev. Charles Laban Pardee, of Naugatuck, Connecticut in the evening. For other features of commencement consult another column.

Great preparations are being made for the Matinee Races at Radcliffe Park on the Fourth. The management is in communication with Mr. Powell Peacock, of Delaware, who has a string of 14 fine horses, some of them of Grand Circuit calibre, and also with Mr. Enoch Johnson, of Dover, who always has several winners in his big string. Mr. Ford, of Marydel, has written that he will be here next week with his string, and you'll see the greatest racing ever on the Fourth. The horses go at Worton to-day and the racing will be fine.

Mr. Owen C. Smith's carriage was badly damaged in a collison on Washington avenue Saturday night shortly after 10 o'clock. Four young ladies and two young gentlemen were coming down the avenue from Mr. C. S. Smith's home and when opposite the home of Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman, their team was run into by two teams driven by colored people who were racing up the avenue. Both front wheels of Mr. Smith's carriage were smashed, the shafts were broken and the dash board was bent. No one was hurt, though the ladies were shocked and frightened. The other teams which were racing never stopped.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

BROWN—FAITHFUL.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at noon on Saturday at St. Luke's P. E. Church, Church Hill, when Miss Sarah Eliza Faithful, of Church Hill, and Dr. Hampton Emory Brown, of Ardmore, Pa., were united in holy wedlock by Rev. S. S. Hepburn, of I. U. Parish, this county, assisted by Rev. Dr. T. Manley Sharpe, the rector. The wedding march was skillfully rendered by Mr. John Richards, organist of the church, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Preston Richards, on the violin.

The bride's gown was white satin with real lace and pearl trimming. The veil was tulle caught with orange blossoms, bouquet bride's roses. BASE BALL NOTES.

Mt. St. Joseph's to-day.

Rock Hill College team was taken into camp last Saturday afternoon on Washington field by Washington, score 6 to 1. Biddle pitched a masterly game and he was splendidly supported by the entire team. Is it not unfortunate that the St. John's and Western Maryland games were not won? It was a case of errors in both games and not poor pitching that lost each game. We could easily have been the intercollegiate champions of the State had it not been for loose fielding and poor coaching.

Mr. Frank Jarman, a former Washington College star pitcher, is now a regular on the Baltimore International League team. Jarman pitched a part of the afternoon game against Providence on Saturday and made a better showing than either Shawkey or one other of the regular staff. Jarman has the goods and he will likely get his regular turn in the box for Baltimore now.

He leaves six children, three sons and three daughters. Funeral services were held at his late residence Thursday at 2 P. M., interment at St. Paul's cemetery, Rev. Mr. Meginnis officiating.
