NUPTIAL EVENTS.

Announcement has been made of the approaching wedding of Miss Dorothy Brittian Sayre, daughter of Mrs. Parker Burbank, of Baltimore, and Mr. Henry Covington Butler, son of Capt. and Mrs. Charles W. Butler, of near Bryantown, and captain of the Centreville base ball team for two years, to take place Wednesday, June 25, at 7.30 o'clock, at the Seventh Baptist Church, Baltimore. The wedding is to be followed by a reception at the Stafford.

The wedding of Miss Mary Neale Stewart daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stewart, to Dr. Henry Theodore Collenberg, son of Doctor and Mrs. J. H. Collenberg, of Baltimore, took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Walbrook Methodist Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. John R. Edwards, assisted by Rev. Dr. Charles L. Mead. Mr. John H. Hessey, of Baltimore and Kent was one of the ushers.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. JANE HOLLAND TOWNSEND QUIGG.

Mrs. Jane Holland Townsend Quigg, widow of Rev. John B. Quigg, at one time pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, died at her home in Wilmington on Monday after a lingering illness. The deceased was born in Snow Hill, Md., March 31, 1835. Her husband was for 47 years a prominent member of the Wilmington M. E. Conference. She was well-known to many of our older residents.

MRS. MARY REBECCA IRELAND.

Died at her home in Chestertown on Sunday, June 15th, of paralysis, Mrs. Mary Rebecca Ireland, in the seventy-eighth year of age. The deceased was the wife of the late John T. Ireland and daughter of the late Samuel I. Comegys, of Kent county. She is survived by five children, Mr. William Ireland, of Philadelphia; Mr. Hreman Ireland, of Baltimore; Mrs. John Comegys and the Misses May and Hallie Ireland. Mrs. Ireland's life was one full of usefulness, looking well to the ways of her household and yet finding time for church and many outside duties. Until her health failed she was always present at roll-call. Bearing all of infirmities and sorrows bravely and with unfailing cheerfulness, she endeared herself to a large host of friends. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, June 17th, at Shrewsbury Church. The pall-bearers were Messrs. William and Samuel Emory, Paul and Spencer Comegys, Edmund Hurtt, and Jesse Ireland. Untertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arragements.

PROF. CHARLES T. STRATTON.

Prof. Charles T. Stratton, a well-known citizen of the Seventh District, died at his home at the Cliffs yesterday. He leaves the following children—Mrs. Mary F. and Mrs. W. F. Stoops, Mr. J. F. Stratton and Mrs. Clark Stoops. Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at St. Paul's Church, conducted by Rev. Mr. McGinnis. The pall-bearers will be Messrs. W. Frank Stoops, W. F. Stoops, Jr., William Brown, E. A. Corey, Norman and Roland Corey. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

Church Notes.

Rev. L. R. Janney, of Wye Mills, Md., has been transferred to the Philadelphia Conference. This left open an excellent appointment at Wye Mills. Accordingly Rev. W. W. White, of Piney Neck, Kent county, has recently been transferred to supply the church at Wye Mills, made vacant by the transfer of Dr. Janney. Rev. Mr. White reports his arrival at Wye Mills and speaks in glowing terms of his warm reception by the people and is delighted with his change.

Rev. H. P. Jester attended prayer service at Christ M. P. Church last Thursday evening and gave an impressive talk on the subject of prayer.

The Babies' Contest.

The Better Babies' Contest is a popular, yet scientific movement to insure better babies and a better race. While of course some persons will say that the babies of forty years ago were the equals and perhaps the superiors of those raised now, yet the infant mortality still continues appalling. The press long ago took up the fight, and free dispensaries, milk and ice depots, etc., are the tangible results from it.

The purpose of the contest here is to draw attention to the fine grade of babies "born in Kent county and raised here too." We are very proud to exhibit our fine live stock and willing to bet on our fine horses. Why not bring your baby and swap yarns about him?

The contest consists of entering, examining and awarding prizes to children of 3 years of age or less, on exactly the same principles that are applied to live stock or poultry shows. Physical and mental development only are considered.

The Better Babies' Contest insures a better race of Americans, because it teaches parents how to improve the physical condition of children of this generation, and to protect those of future generations.
