School News

Closing week at School No. 153 was a very busy one for both teachers and pupils.

The teachers were entertained on Monday at a luncheon sponsored by members of the Holabird Tenant Council in the recreation center.

Members of the Junior Red Cross of the school sponsored a motion picture show for the entire school. They also had a closing party on Wednesday.

On Wednesday morning installation exercises for Troop No. 245 of the school were held. The following boys were installed:

Robert Kirkland, patrol leader; Gerald Burkhalter, patrol leader; Harold Hollinger, assistant patrol leader; Lawrence Baldwin, assistant patrol leader; William Aikens, troop scribe;

Oliver Hill, Earl Better, Maceo Jenkins, Freddie Edwards, William Thomas, David Robinson, Leroy Robinson, William Thomas, Joseph Turner and Leonard Johnson.

Troop No. 217 of which Edward Ward is scoutmaster presented the scout oath and scout laws during the services. Yancy Whittaker, executive scoutmaster, Chesapeake Branch, presided. Earl Anderson and Joseph Jardine were invested as commitmemen. Thomas J. Wheadon is scoutmaster of Troop No. 246.

The boys and girls of the Safety Council and Safety Patrol were awarded a certificate of merit for their outstanding work done this year, presented by Mrs. Edith L. Pinkston, vice president.

The play, "The Dethroned Queen," was presented at that time. Dora McGee played the part of the queen and Muriel Lee was the princess.

On Thursday, closing exercises were held for the 8A Class. Officer Dennis Mello was principal speaker. He congratulated the graduates and stressed the advantages and the importance of honesty.

Elice Matthews gave the class prophecy. The class song was written by Miss Anita Edwards, director of the glee club.

Class officers were Jennie Jardine, president; Dorothy Stewart, secretary; America Hill, treasurer.

Other members of the 8A Class were Gerald Burkhalter, Herman Conway, Louise Lee, Barbara Miller, Bessie Sim, Robert Kirkland, Leroy Robinson, Doris Chappie and Cleo Emerson.

On Friday afternoon the teachers were the luncheon guests of Mrs. Edith L. Pinkston, vice principal.

The Roland Park School No. 158 held its closing exercises last Thursday at the school, with Miss G. Day, Enoch Pratt librarian, as guest speaker.

The intermediate department presented the play, "The Proud Princess." At the conclusion of a quiz contest, each of the 6A pupils was given a dictionary as a prize.

The program was concluded with a May Pole dance, witnessed by over 100 parents, neighbors and friends. Miss Ava R. Crowner is teacher-in-charge.

School 107 Closes

The 6A Class of School 107 held its closing exercises at 2 p.m. last Thursday in the Community Hall of the Gilmor Project, 1414 Vincent Court.

Aileen Thomas and Samuel Marshall led the class. Other students were Robert Christian, Gilbert Kish, Morris Williams, Betty Mack, William Granison and Helen Wheeler.

Other graduates were as follows:

The above named pupils will attend Public School 137 in September.

Flimflammers Gyp Couple Out of $700

A woman with gold caps on two of her front teeth, and a man described as "a real dresser" were sought this week for allegedly fleecing a Carey St. couple out of $700 through the age-old pocketbook game.

The case was reported to Central district police and detectives of the flimflam squad, Monday, by Forrest Bowser of 321 N. Carey St.

Bait 3 Big Bills

According to officers, the complainant's wife, Mrs. Virginia Bowser, was in front of a N. Eutaw St. department store, Monday, when she was approached by a strange woman who showed her a portfolio containing three $1000 bills she said she had "just found."

At that moment, a well-dressed man walked up saying he had witnessed the "find." It was at this point, police were told, that the woman offered to share her good fortune if Mrs. Bowser could produce some cash to show "that she was responsible."

Husband Also Duped

Accordingly, the trio went to the Carey St. home where Mr. Bowser turned over $700 to the couple. Then the Bowsers and the man and woman went to the lobby of an office building at Charles and Lexington Sts.

The "finder" left Bowser in the lobby while she went up "to the office of her boss in Room 1409." Returning a few minutes later, she told the Bowsers to go to that room and her "boss" would give them $2,000.

Clear Description Given

That was the last the Bowsers saw of the couple; but the following description was given police:

The woman—about 35 years of age, 5 feet 11 inches tall, weighing about 175 pounds, dark complexioned, short hair on the top of her head and long hair on the sides, and two of her front teeth capped with gold crowns.

The man—around 28 years of age, 5 feet 11 inches tall, weighing 135 pounds, slender build, medium-dark complexion and neatly dressed in a grey suit.

Speedy Action Saves Iodine-Drinking Baby

A 1-year-old baby had a narrow escape, Wednesday morning, when it accidentally swallowed iodine.

The tot was rushed to Provident Hospital by its mother, Mrs. Bertenia Lawson of 1106 N. Stricker St., treated by Dr. P. H. Pinkney and released.

Plans Formulated to Aid Juveniles

Mayor D'Alesandro's committee on juvenile delinquency met last week at City Hall to discuss plans for furthering its program.

Recently organized on a local basis under the national commitee for the prevention of juvenile delinquency, the committee includes:

Elmer Henderson, assistant superintendent of schools; Mrs. Alice Arrington, executive director, Madison Ave. YWCA; the Rev. Simon Williamson, pastor, Faith Baptist Church; the Rev. A. J. Payne, pastor, Enon Baptist Church, and James M. Robinson, civic worker.

Penknife Slayer Gets 3-Year Term

Convicted of manslaughter in the fatal stabbing of Miss Ethel Edwards during a wine drinking party at their home, John Brown, 43, was sentenced, Wednesday, to three years in the penitentiary.

The woman was stabbed in the heart with a penknife. Brown claimed she accidentally fell upon the knife when he drew it to ward off Will Beaver, 42, who was striking him across the head with a butcher knife.

Beaver, who also lived with Brown and Miss Edwards at 1335 Pennsylvania Ave., told Judge Emory Niles that he awoke to find Brown rushing at the woman with the penknife, and that he grabbed the butcher knife to halt Brown's attacks.

J. Harold Grady, assistant State's attorney, prosecuted.

Repaving of Franklin, Mulberry Sts. Begun

Repaving of Franklin and Mulberry Sts. two of the city's major one-way thorofares, was begun on Monday.

Because of the width of Franklin St., resurfacing is to be done on one side before being started on the other. Mulberry St., however, will be closed temporarily while the work is being done in sections.

Franklin St. is to be resurfaced from Smallwood St. to Fremont Ave., and from Park Ave. to Stirling St. Mulberry St. is to be resurfaced from Smallwood to Payson, from Monroe to Greene and from Paca to St. Paul.

Man, 63, Brides to Be, 16, Get Marriage Licenses This Week

A sexagenarian and two 16-year-olds marked the age extremes of couples obtaining marriage licenses here, this week.

Oldest of the group was John H. Green, 63, of Baltimore, who married 1805 Baker, who was granted a permit to marry Mrs. Eva B. Byrd, 40, also divorced.

At the other end of the scale were Misses Rose Lee Dales and Doris L. Curtis, both 16, who will become brides of James J. Foster Jr., 18, of 1102 McDonough Street, and James W. Matthews, 21, of 1304 Aisquith Street, respectively.
