The bride looked very pretty in a white Crepe Voile dress trimmed in duches lace and satin with pearl ornaments. She carried a bouquet of brides' roses. Promptly at the appointed hour she entered the parlor with her maid-of-honor, Miss Laura Jane Lambert, who was dressed in blue-flowered voile and carried pink roses. They were followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. Gordon Legg Faulkner, of Walbrook, Baltimore. While sweet music was being played by Miss Bernice Clymo, of Dover, Del., and in the presence of the immediate families they were pronounced man and wife by Dr. Louis E. Barrett. A luncheon followed and they left at two o'clock by way of Betterton for Baltimore and points south. They will be at home after July 15th at 1032 Westover Ave. Norfolk, Va. The groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Faulkner, of Walbrook, attended the wedding.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Russell Willson, and was performed by Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, of St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church. OUR DEATH RECORD.

MR. WM. T. CROW.

Mr. Wm. T. Crow, one of the town's most highly esteemed citizens and a retired farmer, died suddenly at his home on Washington avenue yesterday morning at ten o'clock, of heart failure, aged about 76 years. Mr. Crow had been in good health up to within a day before his death when he remarked that he felt a little weak. His condition became alarming at eight o'clock when Dr. Simmons was summoned and remained at his bedside until he passed away. The deceased was one of our grand old men. He had spent the most of his life in farming, but some years ago he retired, and having erected a beautiful little home on the avenue, he and his estimable family had lived happily since his retirement. Mr. Crow was a man of great reserve, but broad insight into the affairs of life. He attended strictly to his own business and left everybody else's alone. He was deeply interested in the business and political welfare of his town and county and though never prone to forcing his views upon his associates, he was quick to respond to inquiries and assert his independence. In politics he was a Democrat of decidedly progressive tendencies, and in business he was a man who knew how to take advantage of opportunities as they came. He was therefore a successful business man, a most desirable citizen, and a devoted husband, father and friend. His sudden death was a great shock to his many friends, and his family have the sympathy of the entire community. He was possessed of a fine landed estate, besides his pretty home on Washington avenue. He leaves a widow, two sons—Messrs. Walter and William C. Crow, prominent farmers of the county, two daughters, Mrs. William A. Bell and Miss Ida Crow, of Chestertown. Funeral services were held at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon from his residence, conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin. Interment was made in Shrewsbury cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Owen C. and Frank Crow, nephews; Charles Hill, E. Pennington, J. Comegys and Thomas Bramble. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Messrs. Harry Stavely and Linwood A. Sutton have two of the finest potato patches in the county. They were planted with the Aspinwall planter, sold by A. S. Turner, of Worton.

Little Miss Anne Covington Will Be Sponsor For Big Pacific Steamship.

The Marylrnd Steel Company has invited Miss Anne Covington, the 7-year-old daughter of Congressman and Mrs. J. Harry Covington, to be sponsor at the launching of the big American-Hawaiian steamship "Panaman," which will be launched at Sparrow's Point to-day, June 28th, and it is understood that the little lady has sent in her acceptance of the honor. The "Panaman" is 428 feet in length and has a beam of 53 feet 6 inches and a depth of hole of 31 feet 6 inches. She is a combination freight and passenger ship of steel construction throughout. A picture of the ship has recently been presented by the steel company to The Star-Democrat. It is interesting to note that the "Panaman" is the fifth ship to be launched of the eight ordered by the American-Hawaiian Line of the Maryland Steel Company, this being the largest single order for merchant ships ever placed in the United States. The Hawaiian Company is the largest shipping company flying the American flag, and they now have about twenty ships. When the Panama canal is opened for traffic the steamers of this line will go by this route from New York to the Hawaiian Islands.—Star-Democrat, Easton.
