LOCAL MATTERS

Attention! Fairlee Grangers!—There will be a special meeting at the hall on July 16th, at 6 P. M. Business of importance. All members are urged to attend. One of the features of the program will be a debate on the great suffrage question. Sandwiches and light luncheon served instead of supper.

Buys Farm.—Mr. Lance Irvine, of Wilmington, Del., has purchased the C. J. Hatcherson farm near Rock Hall for $5,500. The TRANSCRIPT does not know whether Mr. Irvine contemplates moving to Kent, but we give him a cordial invitation to come to the Garden of Eden, and offer him a hearty welcome to our midst.

Kent Boy Making Good.—Resident Engineer C. S. Gale, of the State Road Commission, has opened an office in the Masonic Temple, Easton. Mr. Gale has charge of the construction and maintenance of all State road work in Talbot, Caroline, and Dorchester, with a large number of men under his direction. Good boy, Clarence, your friends in Kent are glad to hear of your success.

Pastor Stricken.—Rev. I. G. Fosnocht, pastor of the M. E. Church at Millington is critically ill at his home, in that town, having been stricken with paralysis a few days ago. Mr. Fosnocht, who is about 65 years of age, was in excellent health until he was stricken. He was originally a member of the Philadelphia Conference, but came to the Wilmington Conference at the time of the division in 1868.

Acknowledgment.—The editors of this paper acknowledge with thanks receipt from Mr. W. O. Harrison, president, of a season ticket to the Ocean City Pier. One of the places for comfort and amusement at Ocean City is the Pier—it is decorated with evergreen trees from Harrison's Nurseries at Berlin. Hook and line fishing from the pier is excellent. The pier is kept clean and respectable at all times and is under good management.

Delay in Starting Road Work.—Mr. J. R. Baden, resident State road engineer here, showed us a letter this week from Mr. Jones, of Wicomico county, who has been asked to build the road from Betterton to Still Pond Station, saying that owing to the serious illness of his mother he is unable to accept the offer of the commissioners to build the new road. Mr. Baden was in consultation with the County Commissioners on Tuesday, and the commissioners asked him to await developments in the case of Mr. Jones' mother, as they desire to secure his services if possible, especially since he has been recommended so highly by Mr. W. B. Miller of the State Road Commission.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Other personals on page 2.

Mr. Merritt Beck and daughter, of St. Louis, is the guest of relatives and friends here.

Notwithstanding the excessive heat of the week, when on Tuesday and Wednesday the thermometer reached 99 degrees in the shade, there were no prostrations from the heat.

Col. John H. Evans, of Rolph's wharf, father of Mrs. Sidney P. Townshend, has been quite sick during the past week.

Miss Adele France, who was a member of the St. Mary's Seminary faculty last year, is at home for the summer. She is entertaining Miss Avery, a school friend of Pennsylvania, who has delighted friends here with the richness and volume of her splendid suprano voice.

Mr. George Beck, one of the most prominent men of the Seventh District, has been quite poorly at his home in Broad Neck during the week.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Dr. H. C. Hughes' dental parlors will be closed from July 3rd to July 10th.

Miss Jeanette F. Smith has resigned as teacher of the public school in Broad Neck.

Gov. Goldsborough has declared today, July 5th, a legal holiday in response to public demand.

Miss Louise Carroll, of the Baltimore County Teaching Corps, is at home for the summer.

Mr. Walter T. Morris received this week a new Ford touring car from the agent, Mr. J. F. Thompson.

Mr. James Brice dug the first new potatoes from his garden this week, and they are as fine as we have ever seen at this season of the year.

It is reported that Mr. Andrew Tolson has rented the Thomas farm, near Fairlee, now tenanted by Mr. August Money. Mr. Money will move up the county next year.

Mrs. John B. Parrott, of Still Pond, has sold her Maxwell touring car to Mr. Wm. A. Pote, of Kennedyville. This car was advertised in the TRANSCRIPT only twice by Mrs. Parrott.

Fishing has been fairly good off the Rocks, near Rolph's wharf, of late. Mr. Edward Wilkins and one of Mr. Tom Davis' boys caught a number of fair size rock and perch one day last week.

Some one has advanced the theory that the cause of the death of so many of the town's shade trees may be the scale. Would it not be a good idea for the Town Commissioners to investigate the matter?

The desirable residences advertised at public sale in the TRANSCRIPT last Saturday by Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard were withdrawn for want of a sufficient bid. These homes may be purchased at private sale from Mr. Hubbard.

Judge John P. Nicholson's potato patch is an attraction to every one who travels that way. It will soon be time to begin digging the crop, and we shall see who gets the biggest yield. The prospect is good for a fine crop.

An Improved Order of Red Men is being organized in Chestertown by Mr. Olin C. Stafford, one of our hustling young business men. Mr. Stafford already has 13 signers. This is a most beneficial order and it is hoped that it may be firmly established here.

Mr. John Bell will please accept the thanks of the editors for two heads of the finest cabbage we have seen this season. Mr. Bell is one of the most successful growers of this vegetable in the county, and he keeps the local markets, and the editors, supplied with the finest.

The barn on the farm where Mr. James Lee now lives near Barclay, was struck by lightning and destroyed on Saturday night week. Mr. Lee up to three weeks ago owned the farm which Mr. James Newnam purchased, known as the Burchinal farm, whose outbuildings was burned last Sunday night week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis have moved into one of Col. Vannort's brick houses on High street. Mr. and Mrs. J. Tucker have taken the house on Queen street vacated by Mrs. J. Harry Anthony, and Mr. A. S. Crawford has followed the Tuckers in the Rollison house, up town.

Mr. Walter Francis, living near St. Paul's mill, had a valuable horse killed by lightning during the storm on Wednesday evening. Four fine Hereford cows were killed on the Jarrell home farm near Galena, and the residence was somewhat damaged by lightning. Mr. Francis' horse was insured with J. G. Beck's agencies.

We stated last week that Mr. Azariah M. Kendall had the contract for building Mr. Krusen's home at Still Pond Creek. This is a mistake. Mr. Henry Wyble is doing the work. Mr. Kendall, we understand, will erect Mr. George Rouse's new home, near Chester Cemetery. Mr. Charles P. Hodgkin has just finished a fine stable for Mr. Rouse.

Mr. P. M. Brooks, proprietor of Radcliffe Mills, has recently had all the flour machinery in his mill overhauled by milling experts, and he is better prepared than ever before to turn out the highest grade of flour. Farmers can save a dollar or more per barrel on flour for their own consumption by having their wheat ground at Radcliffe Mills instead of selling their wheat and buying flour from dealers.

Capt. Taylor, one of Rock Hall's most experienced fishermen, caught with hook and line on Wednesday morning on Swan Point Bar, a sugar barrel of fine rock. The catch was made from early morning until boat time, and a gentleman from Chestertown, who was standing on the wharf at Rock Hall when Capt. Taylor came ashore, says it was a beautiful sight.

The heavy wind and rain storm of Wednesday evening brought great relief from the excessive heat, but did some damage to shade trees and wheat shocks. The temperature on Tuesday and Wednesday reached 99 degrees in the shade, the hottest of the year. There were 3 deaths and 100 prostrations from the heat at the reunion of old soldiers at Gettysburg, as well as numerous prostrations in other parts of the country.

Your attention is called to the public sale that will take place on the Faithful or Everett farm now tenanted by L. Porter on the State stone road 1½ miles from Chestertown, between Chestertown and Church Hill, on Tuesday, July 8, at 11 o'clock. This farm has been divided in tracts ranging from 5 to 30 acres. The lots are going to be sold. A plot of same will show how the tract is divided. The land is rich and very productive. Will give handsome returns on the money invested. It will pay you to drive over and look at this land and attend the sale.

Electric "buzz" fans for cooling, and exhaust fans for ventilating purposes, will be installed in the new Lyceum Theatre, which will add greatly to the attractiveness and comfort of this popular place of amusement. Orders for these fans have already been given and it is hoped to have them in operation by the latter part of this week or early in the week following. It is the purpose of the management to keep the Lyceum open all summer if the attendance will justify, and everything possible will be done for the pleasure, convenience and comfort of the patrons.

NOMINATION SONG.

TUNE, CASEY JONES.

Come all ye organization if you want to hear
Straight goods about the nomination which is drawing near.
What the Antis will do 'twill be a shame.
No doubt Mr. Bowers will be to blame.
Mr. Vickers says he is going to sue
Mr. Bowers and Mr. Collins too.
And not to let anything be undone.
Will sue the whole company for quite a large sum.

CHORUS.

Then Mr. Barroll sat in his little office,
Mr. Barroll with the case in his hand.
Mr. Barroll sat in his little office,
And says don't worry boys, for we'll protect an honest man.

Now, listen to this, it may sound a little queer,
We are going to legislature send Harris and Kibler.
I could make some easy money, but I am afraid to bet,
'Cause State's Attorney Vickers might pinch me yet.
Our next County Treasurer is S. G. Caldwell—
I presume you've all heard of him—very well.
Now, he is going to win against two in the field,
'Cause all the people know where they'll get an honest deal.

CHORUS.

Now something very important are the county affairs.
So be very careful what you're doing or you'll get in the snares.
In my estimation you couldn't pick a better two
Than little Johnnie Wood and T. Benj. Crew.
For sheriff of this county we have in mind
A man more capable is hard to find.
The initials of his name are Robert J. Mc.
'Cause he loves old Democracy and is in good whack.

CHORUS.

For State Central Committee what better three
Than Noland, Crouch and ex-sheriff McKee?
For State Convention Johnson, Vickers and Myers,
Now I'll tell ye Organization we have got some flyers.
I used to be with you once myself,
But since I found out better I laid it on the shelf.
So come on, go along with us, or else you'll lose,
'Cause they're all good people that we have chosed.

ZELINO.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

DEMPSEY—CALDWELL.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday, June 26, at 1 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell near Galena, when their daughter, Miss Edith, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. C. Dempsey, of Wilmington. Rev. Olie H. Connelly of Christiana, Del., performed the ceremony. Rev. C. W. Moore, of Galena, assisted. Martha Caldwell and Emily Caldwell, sister and niece of the bride were flower girls. Miss Carrie Dempsey was maid of honor. Miss Willie King played the wedding march from Lohengrin. Messrs. James and Herbert Caldwell were the two ushers. About 50 guests were present, mostly relatives. After refreshments Mr. Samuel Caldwell and wife took the bride and groom to Middletown in their auto where they boarded a train for the north. The auto surely was decorated, but most of the shoes, etc., were lost on the way. They will reside in Wilmington for a while at least. Handsome presents were received by the popular couple.
