IN OUR CHURCHES

By LOUISE K. HINES

The Rev. E. W. White, pastor of Providence Baptist Church will speak in Druid Hill Park at 6:30 p.m. Sunday on one of the summer park community services being held July and August under the auspices of the Council of Churches.

Open to the public, these services are held at the bandstand pavilion of each park. They are directed by a lay-ministerial committee, of which William F. Ford and J. J. Uhlfelder are co-chairmen.

Pastor Set for Radio Talks

From Monday to Friday over radio station WITH at 9:45 a.m. the Rev. John T. Colbert, pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church, will deliver the daily inspirational message.

Grace will have communion service, the reception of new members and the baptism of children at the morning worship on Sunday.

The annual Sunday School picnic will be held at Carr's Beach on Thursday.

Grace Church was represented at the Westminster Fellowship this week at Hood College by Miss Barbara Blackwell.

Grace Purchases Buildings

As another phase of its expansion program Grace has purchased and paid for two houses next to the office at the Southwest corner of Dolphin and Etting Sts. A total of $2,681.00 has been realized from the Men's and Women's Day efforts.

At 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, the Senior Choir of Memorial Baptist Church is sponsoring a bus excursion to Wilmington, Del., while the fourth Sunday will be observed as Men's Day. The Rev. C. E. Browne is pastor.

St. James Plans Anniversary

Virgil Williams has been named parochial delegate from St. James Episcopal Church, for the annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew to be held in Oxford, Ohio, August 30 to September 3.

St. James is formulating plans for the 125th anniversary of the parish.

At Emmanuel C.C. Church the men's Advisory Council is planning a moonlight cruise on August 20, while the Bible Class Family Picnic has been set for July 15 at Beechwood Park.

The Rev. Cyrus W. H. Briddell spoke on Sunday at Sharon Baptist Church during the absence of the pastor, the Rev. James E. Moore. Members reported that his sermon, "David and Goliath" and "Naaman Cured of the Leprosy Through Elisha," will be long remembered for their dramatic appeal.

Union Pastor at Shiloh

Guest speaker recently at the New Shiloh Baptist Church for the semi annual communion day was the Rev. Baxter L. Matthews. In his sermon, "Christ Our Hope in a Post-War World," he said:

"Jesus came after everything else had failed, and He is here to stay. All that science can produce in this world, save the world. The gospel of Jesus Christ is the panacea."

Revs. White and Reddie, Faithful

One of the outstanding portions of the Baptist Minister's Conference in the week's review of current events by the Rev. E. W. White, pastor of Providence Baptist Church.

He keeps the body informed not only of local and national religious matters, but civic, social and federal developments.

Equally faithful is the Rev. Ira C. Reddie, who delivers a carefully prepared Sunday School lesson, and serves as reporter for the body.

This week he told of Bezaleel, a talented craftsman whose skill was used by God in the construction of a tabernacle. He said:

"As God found and put to use Bezaleel he calls men today. There is work to be done. Oftimes the project need and the ability to respond to that need are all that God deems necessary for service on the part of those who have His interest at heart."

"The Sevenfold Descent of Christ" is the fourth in the "Seven Series" of sermons at Bethel A.M.E. Methodist Church to be preached next Sunday morning by the pastor, the Rev. E. A. Hayes.

On July 18 the subject will be, "The Seven I Am's of Jesus."

Sharp St. Bible School Helpful

Typical of the daily vacation Bible schools now being conducted in local churches is that at Sharp St. Methodist Church, directed by Miss Florence Wheeler, and in which 175 children are enrolled.

Long a part of the church's recreational program, these schools, with their programs of handicraft, religious education and supervised play, have provided not only purposeful activities for younger children, but added to the leadership development of those in their late teens and young adulthood.

The Sharp St. School, which began June 21, will observe open house on July 14, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, and hold closing exercises the next day.

Bible school pupils will join those of the Sunday school in a picnic on July 16, at Beechwood Park.

Well Rounded Program

Theme for the year, "Exploring God's Out of Doors," is being developed by study as well as field trips and excursions; and the facts garnered are correlated and evaluated by discussions.

The three-hour Bible school day, which begins at 9 a.m., is opened with a devotional period, with the group reassembling following classes for another worship period, led by one of the six classes.

Pupils contribute their pennies daily to help defray expenses, the greater part of which are borne by the United Women of Maryland. Proceeds from a rummage sale will help swell the funds this year, Miss Wheeler said.

20 Workers in School

The teaching staff includes: Mesdames M. Wycoff and Lillian Draper; Misses Delores Glascoe, Barbara Smith, Ethel Phillips, Lorraine Robinson, Dorothy Griffies, Valarie Rheubottom, Catherine Gordon, Louise Holmes, Mozelle Jackson, Irene Shannon, Cecelia McIntyre, Annie Mae Jenkins, Theodore Rhodes and Charles Jackson.

Misses Mary Lou Gordon and Eloise Larkins are intermediate group helpers.

Bus Excursion Planned

The Vashti Gospel Singers, with Mesdames Ella Rice and Mae Price, are sponsoring a bus excursion on Sunday to the Eastern Shore.

The group will visit the Mt. Zion Methodist Church in Berrisville and the Kent Narrows Community UAME Church in Queen Anne's County. Buses will leave at 9 a.m. from Myrtle Ave. and Mulberry St.

School of Music Holds Exercises

The class day exercises of the Bingham School of Music were conducted at the Union Baptist Church, last Wednesday evening, with the Rev. A. Carter pastor, speaking on "Preparing for the Future."

He warned the pupils of the many hardships that would confront them and advised them to double their efforts and to be ever determined in their efforts to attain success.

Four groups of singers heard during the program were the male Co-operative Chorus, the Virginia Secrette of Morning Star Baptist Church, the Western Jubilee Chorus and the Bingham Choral Society.

Prize Winners Named

Twenty-two pupils participated on the program. Prizes were awarded and refreshments were served by the Student Council to the student body and guests.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Mrs. Katherine Hanks, first prize for special endeavor; John McDemon, first prize for piano; Carolyn Bryant, beginner's first prize; Wesley Shelton, second prize for music; Bettie J. Rodgers, second beginner's prize; Barbara Johnson, third beginner's prize, and Mrs. Leah Lewis, third prize for piano.

21 Promoted

Pupils promoted are:

Carrie Boothe, Clifford Bristett, Carolyn Brown, Minnie Calloway, Bessie S. Clark, Sarah Cooper, Eleanor DeLeaver, Katherine Hanks, Barbara Johnson, Mae Lee, Atreda Lewis, Leah Lewis, Marlene B. Mason, John McDemon, Zilpher McCoy, Bettie Jean Rodgers, Catherine Russell, Rosie Russell, Wesley Shelton, Josephine Vaughn and Mildred Washington.

Honor pupils with averages above 95 were Carolyn Bryant, Minnie Calloway, Bessie S. Clark, Eleanor DeLeaver, Katherine Hanks, Barbara Johnson, Leah Lewis, Marlene B. Mason, John McDemon, Leon E. Moore, Zilpher McCoy, Bettie Jean Rodgers, Catherine Rucker, Josephine Vaughn and Mildred Washington. Clarence L. Bingham is director of the school.

Allen Leaguers Invite Bishop to Md. Session

Bishop L. H. Hemmingway has been invited to attend a meeting of the Allen Christian Endeavor League Workers of the Baltimore Annual AME Conference, on Sunday at 3 p.m., at Allen AME Church, Lexington and Carlton Sts.

Representatives from all Maryland counties and the District of Columbia are expected to attend. John W. Woodhous is conference superintendent.

Personnel Clerk for VA

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. DeVane home at 805 Maggie Walker Ave., sonnel placement clerk in Branch 4.

Herbert DeVane Promoted by VA

RICHMOND

Herbert M. DeVane, former North Carolina school principal and World War II veteran, who served for 18 months as personnel relations counselor at Branch 4, Veterans' Administration here, recently was promoted to the position of medical personnel placement clerk.

Mr. DeVane came to the VA July 22, 1946, shortly after his discharge from the Army.

While in the service he was instructor in the special training unit at Holabird Signal Depot, Baltimore from Dec., 1943, until Feb., 1945, then was transferred to Fort Warren, Wyo.

He holds the B.S. degree from Fayetteville State Teachers College, taught in Harnett County (N.C.) schools for 9 years, later serving as principal of Norrington Elementary School, Lillington, N.C.

Mr. DeVane is the son of the late William K. and Mrs. Margie S. DeVane of Kerr, N.C. His father, an educator in his home State for more than 50 years, died last year. His mother is an annual visitor to her son's home at 805 Maggie Walker Ave.

He is married and lives with his wife and their daughter at the

'Christian Horizons' Theme at Baptist Youths Session

"Broadening Christian Horizons" is the theme of the 22nd annual two-day session of the Baptist Sunday School and Baptist Union Convention of Maryland which opened Thursday at Grace Memorial Baptist Church, Chase and Eden Sts.

Speaking this morning (Friday) was the Rev. C. H. Pearson, pastor of Berean Baptist Church, Washington. As Sunday School Clinic followed conducted by Mrs. Enolia McMillian, director of Sunday School Activities.

Participants were Mrs. Celia Crawford, Miss Anna Young, the Rev. B. F. Jackson; and the Rev. W. W. Payne, pastor of Wayland Baptist Church, who spoke on "The Sunday School in the Total Church Program."

Officers Elected

The Rev. C. H. Pearson will serve as consultant, while the first vice-president, Miss Mabel I. Stokes, will preside.

This afternoon (Friday) there was a worship period under the direction of Shiloh Baptist Church, committee reports, election of officers, reports from congress, and an address by a representative from the Council of Christian Churches.

Participants in the Young People's Symposium included: Misses Catherine Somerville and Dorothy Jeter of Wayland and Shiloh Baptist churches; and youth members of Enon, Mt. Hebron, Whitestone, Olivet, Emmanuel, Concord, First Baptist, Baltimore; New Shiloh, Dundalk, and Wayland churches.

The summary was given by William Nesbit of Memorial Baptist Church.

Dr. Gandy to Speak

Conference president, the Rev. W. Gandy, will preside tonight (Friday) when the Rev. Samuel Proctor, director of religious activities of Virginia State College, speaks.

There will be music by the chorus groups from Morning Star Baptist, of Perkins Square; Baptist churches and the Young People's group of the host church.

Certificates will be awarded for the talent program and officers will be installed.

A review of the session will be given by the host pastor, the Rev. Eugene Grove, and the Rev. James McEwen, Women's Industrial Secretary of the Urban League; and Mrs. Rosalind Lee.

The president's annual address was made Thursday night, and greetings on behalf of the Women's Convention, Young People's Convention, Baptist Center and Old Folks' Home, were extended by Mrs. Bertha Winston, Miss Dorothy Meekings and the Revs. William Tapscott and Ward D. Yerby.

Allen Consuls White Youths

Alexander J. Allen, Urban League executive secretary, recently served as counselor for the white Methodist Youth Federation of Baltimore at its annual conference at Western Maryland College.

In attendance were some 300 white high school pupils. Mr. Allen represented the community service organizations. His discussions also touched on social work, the relation of social problems to the church, health, housing and employment.

Last year Mr. Allen served in a similar capacity at the same conference to a group of first and second-year college students.

Weak, Watery Blood Blamed for Making Men and Women Look and Feel Older
THAN THEIR YEARS
Feel do you feel at the end of a day? Is that old time pep and drive lacking? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Doctors now regard weak, watery blood as the cause and vitality through the release of vitalizing iron in every muscle, nerve and cell.
Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those worn out in your body. These blood cells must be rich in strength-giving iron, or you may suffer from weakness, no appetite, under-weight, no energy, a general run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.
To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities state that Iron Jelbon, a tasteless iron preparation that has been used for years, is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength, and in correcting nutritional anemia. This is due to the Jelbon formula, which contains special and potent activating ingredients.
Iron Jelbon Tablets are loaded with rich, red-blood, iron so that you may have the vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your cheeks, instead of a pale complexion. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. $2.00 Iron Jelbon Build Sturdy Health.

500 Scouts, Cubs to Participate in 9th Parade, Derby on Sunday

More than 500 Boy Scouts and clubs are expected to take part in the ninth annual Scout parade and Cubmobile Derby Sunday afternoon, at Druid Park.

Representatives of the three Baltimore Scout districts will parade to the park where the annual family picnic, Cub olympics and the derby will be held. The picnic will be at Grove 6 after the derby and parade.

The marchers will assemble at School 122 Preston St. near Druid Hill Ave. and Gay St. at 2:30 p.m. and move under police escort at 3 p.m. The line of march is as follows:

East on Preston to McCulloh, North on McCulloh to Whitelock then East to Eutaw, and North on Eutaw to Druid Hill Park, around the West end of the Lake to Grove 6.

Patriotic Program

At 3:45 p.m. a brief patriotic program will be held in the park with the Cub olympics beginning at 3:50 p.m. The olympics will include a swimming race, bean relay race, Indian dance and a battle royal. Candy will be given to the winners.

The Cubmobile Derby will start from Plateau on Mountain Pass Rd. east coast down the Black smith shop. Trophies will be awarded for the best-looking as well as the fastest cubmobile.

Sides will be removed at 5 p.m. at Grove No. 6. Assembly call will be sounded at 5:45 p.m. and the marchers will move to Grove No. 122 over the same route taken to the park.

Henderson Gets New Lobby Post

WASHINGTON

Beginning Aug. 1, Elmer W. Henderson will assume the position as director of the newly organized American Council on Human Rights, Mrs. Edna Over Gray, president of the board, announced last week.

The council is a co-operative venture of six national Greek letter college fraternities and sororities including: Alpha Kappa Alpha, Alpha Phi Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta, Phi Beta Sigma, Sigma Gamma Rho and Zeta Phi Beta.

It was founded primarily to seek the extension of civil rights to all Americans without regard to race, color or religion.

To Keep Office in Capital

The council also is aware of its responsibilities in regard to international problems. It will maintain an office in Washington to aid the passage of legislation supporting the aims of the organization and to oppose legislation considered detrimental to minorities.

It will disseminate information and organize an action program.

It was also announced that the AKA National Non-Partisan Council, which pioneered in the lobbying field for the Greek Letter organizations, will merge with the American Council on Human Rights.

In announcing Henderson's appointment, Mrs. Gray stated that the board had reviewed a number of highly qualified applicants and, after careful consideration, concluded that he most nearly met the requirements of the position.

Mr. Henderson is presently executive secretary of the National Council for a Permanent Fair Employment Practice Committee, and has been lobbying Congress for the passage of an FEPC bill.

Former FEPC Official

For nearly five years, Mr. Henderson served with the wartime FEPC, created by an Executive Order issued by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, as a regional director of the agency for eight States with headquarters in Chicago.

He has taught sociology at Dillard and Howard Universities. In 1946 he served as director of a legislative commission to study the conditions of the urban colored population in Illinois.

He has served also as executive secretary of the Chicago branch, NAACP. A graduate of Morgan State College, he holds a master of arts degree from the University of Chicago, and is a candidate for the Ph.D. degree at the same school, having completed his residence requirements.

Officers of the board of directors of the Council, in addition to its president, Mrs. Gray, include:

Mrs. Mae Wright Downs, former national president of Alpha Sigma Theta, vice-president; Dr. R. O. Jackson, national president of Phi Beta Sigma, recording secretary; Miss Emma V. Manning, basileus of Washington chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho, corresponding secretary.

Miss Esther Peyton, former chairman of the executive board of Zeta Phi Beta, treasurer; and Bedford V. Lawson Jr., national president of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, general counsel.

Other members of the board are: Mesdames A. Roy and Mrs. Beulah T. Whitby, Alpha Kappa Alpha; Misses Dorothy Height, national president of Delta Sigma Theta, and Mrs. Bertell Collins, Delta Sigma Theta.

Mrs. Ethel Ross Smith, national president of Sigma Gamma Rho, and Mrs. Ruth A. Wilson, of Sigma Gamma Rho; Mrs. Mae Julliette W. Harrison, national president, Zeta Phi Beta, and Dr. Nancy B. Woolridge, Zeta Phi Beta; Dr. Howard H. Long and Thomas Clark, Alpha Phi Alpha; George A. Parker and Dr. A. J. Barron, Phi Beta Sigma.
