'Green Hell,' 'Sin Town' Co-Featured at New Albert

Douglas Fairbanks Jr., and Joan Bennett are said to make one of the most striking romantic couples ever seen in a motion picture. They are seen as co-stars of "Green Hell," currently at the New Albert along with "Sin Town."

In "Green Hell," Joan is inadvertently marooned in the jungle camp of six men, headed by Fairbanks, who resents her presence because of its demoralizing effect upon his men. Joan is equally spiteful toward him. So they fall in love.

However, the plot requires an attack by savages, the death of two members of the camp and strained relations among all the others to bring about this transition.

Armed with a rugged background of gushers and boom towns mushrooming in their paths, "Sin Town" is declared to have been shaped in the traditional proportions of this type of screen drama. In keeping with its imposing dramatic aspects, it has seven stars in its cast.

Colorful Assignments

Headlining are Constance Bennett and Brod Crawford, cast as a pair of clever confidence operators. Patric Knowles and Anne Gwynne are seen as a romantic duo, the former a young geologist and the latter the daughter of a militant boom town editor.

Andy Devine and Leo Carrillo are cast as a pair of conniving sharpers out to do each other no good, with up-coming Ward Bond as a frontier "big shot" who stands in Crawford's way.

"Silver River" on Screen at Royal

Man's conquest of the silver mines in Nevada, prior to the establishment of law and order, is vividly portrayed in "Silver River," co-starring Errol Flynn and Ann Sheridan, currently playing at the Royal Theatre.

"Silver River" spans the momentous period of 1865 to 1882, and takes the hero, Flynn, from the Battle of Gettysburg to Washington, D.C., down the Missouri River to St. Joseph and across the plains to the frontier mining town of Silver City, Nevada.

The couplet is "Wallflower."

Romantic Stars in Royal Film

Ann Sheridan and Errol Flynn, who are the co-stars in "Silver River" now at THE Royal. "Wallflower" is the second big attraction.

Marian Anderson Undergoes Surgery

Marian Anderson, contralto, is reported "doing nicely" at Jewish Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y., following a major operation earlier this week.

Miss Anderson, who has a home in Danbury, Conn., was admitted to the hospital about a week ago.

S. Hurok, New York booking agent of the singer, says Miss Anderson will be able to make a scheduled singing tour in September.

No Bias Promised by Theatre Bidders

WASHINGTON

The two bids received by the Government Friday for the Belasco Theatre pledged to open a legitimate theatre on a non-discriminatory basis, the AFRO learned.

The Council for Civil Rights which has spearheaded the campaign to get the Belasco released by the Government for use as a legitimate theatre expressed gratitude that the American National Theatre and Academy and Joseph H. Curtis were the only two bidding.

Organization Plan Fight

Both organizations, according to Miss Ida Fox, executive secretary of CCR, are sympathetic with the fight to get a non-discriminatory theatrical house in the District where all races can attend.

The drive to get the Belasco developed after the National Theatre refused to change its biased policy and subsequently announced that it was changing its policy below rather than admit colored patrons.

The National is being forced to either admit colored patrons, or close down as a legitimate theatre because Actors' Equity will prohibit any of its members from playing the National after Aug. 1 unless it adopts a democratic policy.

$1000 Month Rent

The Washington Art Center, which has also been in the forefront of the fight to get the Belasco released, is credited with a large measure for the American National Theatre and Academy bid of $150,000 for a 10-year lease.

ANTA promised to pay the Government rent of $1000 per month plus the difference between that and 50% net profit. The estimated net profit would be about $100,000 per year which would mean that $50,000 would go to the Government plus $12,000 already paid for rent.

Noble Sissle to Aid Opera Group

WASHINGTON

Noble Sissle, one of America's foremost band leaders and composers, flew to Washington from California Thursday and conferred for two days with Mary Cardwell Dawson and other National Opera officials on the production of the mammoth Music and Dance Festival to be presented at Griffith Stadium, Aug. 7, at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Sissle has been engaged by the opera company as a paraist for the festival. He will lend all of his wealth of experience and genius to the NNOC to make this festival one of the greatest in history.

New Operatic Idea

He is expected to introduce, for the first time, idea for a new operatic rendition portraying the life and achievements of colored America. This will consist of musical diversions from blues, spirituals, be-bop and classical, all tied into one operatic finale.

In addition to Mr. Sissle, other attractions will include a glorious chorus of over 1000 voices from various NNOC guilds and many outstanding bands.

'Duel in the Sun,' Dramatic Western Story, at Harlem

Gregory Peck plays a fast-shooting, quick-tempered Texan in "Duel in the Sun," dramatic Western love story, now playing at the Harlem Theatre for one week.

Jennifer Jones, Joseph Cotten, Lionel Barrymore, Herbert Marshall, Lillian Gish, Walter Huston, Butterfly McQueen and many other screen celebrities give full play to their acting talents in this story of the era when the railroads first pushed across the wild lands of the Texas cattle kings.

"Duel in the Sun" is spectacular in every way. It's the story of huge and tremendous human conflict. The story tells of a land baron, his devoted but unhappy wife, his two sons, one of weak character, the other of strong will and purpose — and of a half-breed girl who comes to live with them.

All the hate and love and fear of the pioneers who settled the Old West are forcefully brought out in this filmic saga, which rises to great heights dramatically.

There's the spectacular scene where the land baron's men line up to oppose the immigrant invasion of the railroad — and there is the wonderfully colorful fiesta scene at the sprawling Texas ranch house, the film's main setting, in which all the grand embellishments possible to Technicolor photography, lush sets and stunning costumes, are on view.
