Amherst Honor Grad

John G. Gloster, son of Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Gloster, 1522 McCulloh St., who was recently graduated cum laude in history from Amherst College. A 1945 graduate of Douglass High School, Gloster was a member of the Lord Jeffry Amherst Club, an undergraduate member of the track team, Sphinx Club, the honor society and president of the Christian Association. He was chairman of the 1946 Chest Drive, managing editor of The Jeff, the school's wartime publication.

Camp McCard Puts First Stress on Health

The week beginning June 27, first week at Camp Grace McCard, was observed as Health Week, with campers choosing the slogan, "Health Is Handy."

A positive approach to health through all activities was stressed, with demonstrations and discussions centered around the proper way to make a bed, first aid hints and personal hygiene.

Discussion, Skit Highlights

The climax of the observance came with the presentation of a panel discussion and a skit, entitled "Click With the Crowd." The former centered around the importance of personal hygiene and the functions of the vital organs of the body.

Participating in the discussion were Misses Beulah Myers, Irene Mitchell, Helen Sorrell, Valerie Smith, Alice Baysmore and Mercedes Monroe. Miss Hazel Bailey, camp nurse, worked with the campers on the activities.

All Campers in Skit

All campers participated in the skit. They were:

Misses Rose Hall, Danese Goodwin, Beulah Myers, Brenda Brown, Erma Anderson, Joan Brooks, Patricia Coates, Barbara A. Willis, Mary A. Dorsey, Eloise Watkins, Irene Mitchell, Jean White, Olga Thomas, Evangeline Brown, Faith Bailey, Valerie Smith, Jacqueline Hunt, Mercedes Monroe, Hilma Sorrel and Jean Alexander.

Mrs. Verta Cole, assistant program director, worked with this group. Others on the camp staff are Mrs. Dorothy C. Tucker, director; Miss Nellie F. Brown, program director; Miss Mary E. Goins, waterfront and recreation instructor; Misses Camille Jordan, arts and crafts; Virginia Fassitt, music; and Josephine Lewis, dietician.

1734 at Atlanta Univ. Summer School, 410 Vets

ATLANTA — There are 1734 men and women enrolled in the summer session at Atlanta University, Director John P. Whittaker made known this week. Of this number, 900 are graduate and professional students, and 814 are undergraduates. Of the undergraduates, 273 are former service men, while 137 graduates are listed as veterans.

Baltimore Boys' Choir Group Hailed on 10-Day Concert Tour

Forty of the most talented members of the 100-voice Baltimore Boys' Choir returned triumphant Sunday, from a 10-day concert tour which took them to three States.

Acclaimed by music lovers and critics in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, the choir, conducted by W. Meredith H. Birche Jr., a public school music instructor, was cited in the press for "exhibiting choral techniques which are not often displayed in more advanced adult groups."

They appeared at Allen AME Church in Jamaica, L.I.; Macedonia AME in Flushing, N.Y.; People's Church of Christ, in the Bronx; the Red Shield Club, in Harlem; and St. Luke AME, in Manhattan. The concerts were sponsored by the Rev. William McK. Dawkins of Allen Church.

Mingled With Celebrities

In New York, the youngsters were greeted by Joe Louis, Herbert Mills of the Mills Brothers and Geri Bryan, actress. They were theatre guests at the showing of the fight pictures and visited a weekly newspaper where they were greeted by the Rev. Mr. Harrington and Mrs. Nora Holt, music critic.

Throughout the tour, they were supervised by Mrs. K. Estellena Showes, Mrs. India T. Silvers and Mrs. Clementine R. Canaan, Baltimore teachers, and were assisted by Mrs. Estelle Prilleman of New York.

Feted in Philadelphia

In Philadelphia, they were guests of the young people's choir of Mt. Olivet Tabernacle Baptist Church at a musical soiree.

Hostesses were Mrs. Marshall Shepard, wife of the church's pastor, and Miss Mary Devoe, director of the host choir. They will return in the fall for a concert to be sponsored by this group.

In Atlantic City, their concert was at Asbury Methodist Church, under sponsorship of the trustee board. Arrangements committee members were Mrs. Ariel Williams, Mrs. Edith Marshall, Filbert Rowley Sr. and Dr. W. J. Heim, pastor.

Featured Songs Listed

Highlighted on their programs were excerpts from the "Messiah," by Handel; "I Can't Stay Here," by Hall Johnson; "Ol' Man River," by Kern; and "Dry Bones," by Waring.

Featured soloists included William Lee Holloman, Arnold Williams, Charles and Robert Diggs, Joseph Johnson, Clarence Clark, Edward Grant, Benjamin Kearse and Emmanuel Franklin. Luther H. Johnson was percussionist.

Group Members Named

The boys who represented the choir on its second Eastern tour were:

Charles and Robert Diggs, Augustus Adams, Luther H. Johnson, Richard G. Richardson, William Lee Holloman, James Arnold Williams, Benjamin Kearse, Edward Grant, Ralph Hudson, Astor Moore, Emmanuel Franklin, Herbert Baker, Maurice Staples, Rudolph Langley, Lionel Taylor, Raymond Bivens.

South Baltimore Notes

The violent rainstorm that swept through Baltimore Tuesday, played havoc on the Southside, where trees were uprooted and chimneys felled. One parked automobile was demolished, when a tree fell on it.

The Brown Bomber Pleasure Club spent the holiday week end at Atlantic City, N.J.

The Trustee Aid Club of the Star of Bethlehem AME Church also spent the week end at the New Jersey resort. It was their second annual outing. William Polk, president of the church group, supervised the affair.

Mrs. Trilby Wicks of 2613 Puget St., entertained officers and members of the Trustee Aid at a crab feast on July 5.

Jerseyites Visit Here

Mrs. Ethel Perkins and family entertained relatives—Mrs. Mabel Williams and Miss Lena Williams of Red Bank, N.J.—last week end.

Mrs. Ruth Thorton, Miss Dorothy Thornton and Miss Gloria Stubbs of New York City were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Spriggs.

On Sunday, the New Yorkers were honored with a party at which guests included Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Levi Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Cornish, Mrs. Lillian Brown and Miss Blanche Tally.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chambers motored to Washington and Mt. Fredericksburg, Va., on the holidays to visit Mr. and Mrs. William L. Gray. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Cooper and son and Melvin Fleet.

22nd Ward GOP Club Formed

The Active Republican Club of the 22nd Ward was formed on June 14 with Jerry Brown, field organizer, and Samuel Sherrill, president. This organization consists of newly-registered voters and holds its meetings at the Elk's home, 612 S. Sharp St., at 8 p.m., each Thursday.

Other officers are Mrs. Lillian Smith, vice president; and Mrs. Theresa Brightful, secretary.

The Spirit of Chesapeake Temple Daughters are sponsoring an outing at their lodge, 910 S. Sharp St., on July 18. Religious services will be held at Bethel AME Zion Church.

Southside Personality

Miss Laura McKnight, charming 18-year-old Douglass High School senior, is this week's personality choice. A member of Ebenezer AME Church and of the high school Charm Club, Miss McKnight plans to enter college and study advertising.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McKnight of 1304 Huster Ct., Fairfield, Md.

She likes baseball, football and all types of outdoor sports and is scorekeeper for the Fairfield baseball team.

Miss McKnight has one sister, Lurena, 17; and three brothers, Preston, James Jr. and George.

Wife Wants Mate Declared Dead

Mrs. Evelyn West, 1816 Eighth St., N.W., this week asked District Court to declare dead William J. West, from whom she says she has not heard since he deserted her on May 3, 1941.

During the past seven years, Mrs. West declares, she has made inquiries at various hospitals and searched health office records in an effort to locate her husband, who was 30 years of age when he disappeared.

West is said to have no known relatives in Washington; and there is no record of his being in the Armed Forces. No motive for the wife's request was indicated.

Dr. Bond Heads UNESCO Social Unit of Seminar

CHESTER, Pa.—Word has been receiver here of the appointment of Dr. Horace Mann Bond, president of Lincoln University, as chairman of the Committee on Social Understanding of the UNESCO Seminar to be held in London, England during July and August. Dr. Bond left NYC for London on July 6 via British Overseas Airways.

The Seminar will include delegates from educational institutions and teachers associations from the member nations of the United Nations. The Seminar will discuss and perfect plans for the co-operation of world-wide educational agencies in meeting the problems of the world through educational methods.

Forfeits Posted Bond

Charged with illegally discharging fireworks in the city, Charles Keyes, 26, of 812 Greenmount Ave., failed to appear for trial at Northwestern police court Sunday and forfeited the $6.40 he had posted as collateral.

Keyes was one of two persons charged with illegal possessions of pyrotechnics in the Northeastern distaet during the holiday season.

Jealous Wife Cut; Man Gets 30 Days

Thirty days in jail was the penalty meted out to Robert Moore, 40, of 1120 Brewer St., Tuesday, on a charge of slashing his wife several times in a fight that police said resulted from an argument sparked by jealousy.

The wife, Mrs. Mozella Moore, said the defendant assaulted her when she caught him in the home of another woman. Ten stitches were used to close her wounds, an officer testified.

Moore claimed that his wife was cut in a general melee when she became engaged in a quarrel with the women. He denied the charge that he had beaten but was sent to jail, nevertheless.
