July 4 Was Like This at Beachwood Park

Many residents of both Baltimore and Washington spent the July 4 holiday at Maryland resorts. These scenes show what they did at Beachwood Park. At the left, Miss Ruth Bowman, a Baltimore beautician, is relaxing as she watches activities. (Upper center) Miss Thelma Lewis and Richard Paige, both of Baltimore, are simply sunning. (Upper right) Miss Edna Jover of Baltimore and Joe Boston, a life guard, are shown in a boat. The lower picture is of the crowd patronizing Charlie Palmer's refreshment stand.

Pair in Voodoo Scheme Arrested

Playing detective, William H. Dunham, Pennsylvania Ave. furniture dealer, aided police this week in trapping two men whom he accused of attempting to fleece him out of $15.

On Wednesday, the suspects, Mumford Carter, 47, and Thad Carter, 37, both of 1303 Orleans St., were held under $500 bail by Magistrate Fitzpatrick to await grand jury action.

Mr. Dunham, moving man for more than 25 years, said the pair entered his place of business at 1922 Pennsylvania Ave., Tuesday, and attempted unsuccessfully to sell him a German Luger revolver.

Tried to Sell "Charms"

Then claiming to have voodoo powers, the strangers tried to sell the merchant a few brown tablets for $15, which they claimed would improve his business within nine days.

Mr. Dunham suspected trickery and made an engagement to meet the pair on the following day. In the meantime, he contacted police, who made the arrest Wednesday.

In addition to the larceny charge, Thad Carter was also charged with the possession of a revolver and held under $500 more bail.

Pre-Convention Hearings on Civil Rights Opened

Dr. Tobias, Walter White Among Speakers to Appear Before Democratic Platform Unit

PHILADELPHIA — Among the liberal members are Democratic Party pre-convention hearings on civil rights opened here on Thursday, with the 19-man platform committee receiving recommendations from Dr. Channing H. Tobias, director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund; Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, and representatives of the Civil Rights Congress and the CIO.

Of the 19 members of the committee, only 5 are Southerners. The majority are liberals who have declared that attempts will be made to work out a compromise plank on civil rights to placate Southern Democrats.

Integrated Army Urged

In an eloquent plea before the entire committee, Dr. Tobias urged, in effect, full citizenship for colored people and all other minority groups and singled out particularly segregation in the Armed Forces.

Mr. White urged inclusion in the platform of the full recommendations of the President's Committee on Civil Rights.

Also appearing before the group was James Carey, secretary-treasurer of the CIO.

Civil Rights Congress representatives, headed by George Marshall, chairman of the board of directors, warned that "millions of colored persons will be forced to take their lives in their hands if they dare to cast their vote for their candidate for Presidency of the United States.

They called upon the Convention to enact into their platform guarantees by the Federal Government that all citizens, colored and white, members of all political parties, will have the right to vote in the forthcoming presidential election.

They demanded specifically that the Democratic Party call upon the Administration to utilize its full police power to guarantee the right of colored persons in the South to vote for Federal offices without abridgment or interference in any manner whatsoever.

The Civil Rights Congress also demanded that the Convention refuse to seat delegates who are elected by poll-tax vote or who are members or supporters of the Ku Klux Klan.

Planks urged upon the Convention included:

Repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law, revocation of the President Truman's "loyalty" order, withdrawal of all Injunctions now pending against trade unions, immediate dissolution of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The enactment of strong anti-lynch legislation, outlawing of jim-crow and segregation, enactment of permanent FEPC, the immediate issuance of an executive order establishing FEPC in Federal employment, elimination of segregation and Jim-crow in the Armed Forces of the United States, and enactment of Federal anti-poll tax legislation.

The spokesmen called upon the rank and file delegates to the Convention to repudiate the "war, depression, and repression" policies of the Administration and to assert their independence of "the Hagues, the Pendergasts, the Crump's, and the men they represent, the men of Wall Street and NAM."

OLLIE STEWART WRITES HIS CONCLUSIONS ABOUT EUROPE
Among Other Things He Has Found That:
- While 10 per cent of American Troops in Europe are colored, only 1 per cent of the officers are colored.
- The Army still maintains segregation in Europe, but it is doing a good job in feeding, housing and educating the soldiers.
- The soldiers in Europe are making the Army a career, and because of the American expenditure of money a lot of good jobs are open for colored civilians.
- The Only U. S. agency which excludes us from employment is RFP which has six billions to spend.

ELITES OUT TO AVENGE 7-2 LOSS TO EAGLES

5,000 at Bugle Field as Elites Win First Half Title

Part of the holiday crowd of 5,000 fans who saw the Baltimore Elite Giants split with the Homestead Grays, Monday at Bugle Field to win the first half championship of the Negro National League. The Elites won, 18-6, after losing 9-4. This section is the left field unit of the field, with Jonas Gaines on the mound and R. T. Walker, Grays' pitcher, at bat. Frazier Robinson is the Elites' catcher, and the umpire is Fred McCrary.

Campy's Fly Wins for Dodgers, 4-3

Catcher Bats In Run in 10th as Braves Bow

BROOKLYN—Roy Campanella, rookie catcher, recalled by the Dodgers from their farm club, St. Paul, last week, continued to be the big gun in the Dodgers' sudden surge to the triumphant trail here Wednesday as his long fly sent the winning run across the plate as the Bums defeated the league-leading Boston Braves, 4-3, in eleven innings.

Campanella, who batted .750 in his first three games with the Dodgers after rejoining them last Friday, cooled off early this week, getting only one hit in 14 times at bat. He failed to get a safety Wednesday night in five trips plateward, but was seeking the ball for long distances.

The two teams were locked in a 3-3 deadlock in the tenth when Carl Furillo walked, George Shuba singled and Bruce Edwards was intentionally passed, filling the bases. Warren Spahn, Braves hurler, put Edwards on, apparently remembering that Campanella had failed to get a hit in four previous trips to the plate.

Campy didn't get a hit this time either, but with one down, the big catcher's long fly to Clint Conatser in left field was deep enough to bring Furillo home with the winning run.

Jackie Robinson also materially aided the Brooks' cause, banging a double in five times up and scoring one run.

Luke Easter, 225-pound outfielder of the Washington Homestead Grays, clouted three home runs and a double Monday, as the Grays split a twin bill with the Baltimore Elite Giants. Here Easter is romping home after the first homer, a 415-foot wallop over the centerfield fence at Bugle Field in Baltimore. Sam Bankhead (38) and Buck Leonard (27) offer congratulations at home plate. Easter's other two homers were 400-footers over the right field fence. The Grays won 9-4, then lost, 18-6.

Giants Play Birds, Clowns in 2 Night Contests Here

Drop Tilt to Eagles at Wilmington Park After Winning First Half Championship

After taking the first half championship of the NNL in a split of the holiday games last Monday with the Homestead Grays, Baltimore's Elite Giants got off to a bad start in the second half race by losing to the Newark Eagles, 7-2, Wednesday night, in Wilmington.

Manager Jesse Walker was undisturbed, however, and looked forward to avenge the Birds' defeat tonight (Friday) as the Elites and Eagles clash in a nocturnal game at Bugle Field.

The Eagles' game will inaugurate a two-night stand here with the famed Indianapolis Clowns, the opponents, on Saturday night. On Sunday, the Elites journey to Brooklyn for a twin bill against the Bushwicks.

In the Monday holiday twin bill the Elites won 18-6, after losing the opener, 9-4, to the Grays.

Wilmore Routed

In Wednesday night's game, Newark bunched nine hits off Wilmore and Bob Romby, coupled with three Giant errors, to gain the victory. Wilmore was nicked for two tallies in the first but had to give way to Romby in the fourth when the Birds staged a four-run rally. Romby, though giving away six hits the rest of the way, was airtight in the pinches and held the Birds to a single marker, the latter in the seventh. The early uprising, however, was too much as Bill Lansing, Eagle twirler, scattered 10 hits over the route and limited the Giants to lone tallies in the first and eighth.

Jonas Gaines, Joe Black or Bill Byrd will go against the Birds tonight, while Max Manning or Rufus Lewis looms as the Newark starter.

Clowns Strong

The Clowns, who play the first Saturday game of the season here, have a strong aggregation as well, as a great team of showmen. The comedy quartet included King Tut, Reece (Goose) Tatum, Ted Strong and Juggling Joe Taylor.

Tut is a veteran showman, and teams with Tatum, the lanky first-baseman with a 84-inch reach, in a pantomime routine. Strong, former Kansas City Monarchs star, is tops at the "pepperball" performance, while juggling Joe Taylor displays his skill with balls, bats and a variety of other articles. This is Taylor's first appearance in Baltimore.

Manager Williams may get the pitching assignment for the Clowns. Max Lanier, Cardinal star, is now on the Indianapolis round trip. Jim Jones is a likely choice for Manager Buster Haywood.
