LOCAL MATTERS

Cause of Bank Failure.—The 2nd National Bank of Pittsburgh, Pa., that closed its doors several days ago is likely to be a far-reaching affair. It had widely advertised for funds and paid or rather promised to pay its depositors 4 per cent. J. B. Ramsey, ex-Examiner and ex-President of the Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore, commenting on the failure in Thursday's Sun says the bank paid too high rate of interest for their money. We have not heard of any one here caught in the failure, being lured by the unsafe rate of 4 per cent.

A Fine Issue.—The last issue of the Collegian, just issued from the presses of the TRANSCRIPT, is one of the most interesting ever gotten out by the college students. There are 79 pages of valuable reading matter, consisting of addresses delivered at the recent commencement, as well as other interesting events in connection with the commencement; also a number of fine views of the college buildings, grounds, etc. The issue is a most valuable one, and every student and alumnus of the college should secure a copy.

No Poultry Exhibit.—Those interested in having an exhibit of poultry at the fair in August regret that owing to the cost in arranging an exhibit it will be best to defer the exhibition until next year. It was estimated that it will cost from $150 to $200 to arrange for a creditable exhibit, and there were but $75 available. An appeal was made to the fair management, but their outlay of money this first year of their existence has been so heavy that they could do nothing more than provide the place for the exhibit and contribute a small sum for expenses. The poultry raisers therefore decided to organize a poultry association early in September and get in readiness to hold an exhibit at the next year meeting, and the association must come to their rescue.

Race Horses Reported Sold.—Mr. John Toy, of Philadelphia, the well-known turfman, and a friend from Delaware, it is reported, has purchased from Mr. Harry Dailey, of Marydel, the fast pacer Belton K, that lowered the Radcliff Park track record on the Fourth from 2.14 to 2.12. The price paid for him is said to have been $500, with the stable and racing paraphernalia included. It is also reported that the same gentleman has purchased Pony Boy for $1,000, but there is some uncertainty about the latter sale owing to the fact that Mr. Rising stated on the Fourth to Mr. Toy that he would sell Pony Boy if he did not go on the northern circuits this race. Mr. Rising expects to leave next week for the racing circuit and he wants to take the Boy with him. These are two of the fastest horses on the Maryladd-Delaware Peninsula and the man that pays the money for them will get two bread winners. The option on Pony Boy expires to-day. Mr. Powell Peacock, the well-known Middletown trainer, will have charge of both horses.

Hard to Get Whiskey Now.

The Webb bill, which was passed by Congress whereby it makes it unlawful to ship spirituous liquors from one State into another, or from one part of a State which is wet into a county where prohibition exists, went into effect on Tuesday, July 1. This being the fact, it will be unlawful in the future for whiskey to be shipped into Kent county from Baltimore or Wilmington or any city or town. The operation of the law, however, has had no appreciable effect in diminishing the number of packages of liquor coming to Chestertown daily by express.—Enterprise. The enforcement of this law is entrusted to our officers, and they should seek diligently to enforce all laws.

¶ Mr. [illegible] Watkins, brother of Miss May Watkins, of Baltimore, who frequently visits her aunt, Mrs. Lillian Strong, here, was drowned at Eagleshere, Pa., on Thursday. The young man went swimming and was taken with the cramps. He was 18 years old.

¶ Mrs. S. E. Ford, living on the avenue, had a flock of chickens hatched in January. The pullets from the flock have been laying for two weeks, and very naturally Mrs. Ford is proud of her chickens. The layers are six months old.

¶ Mr. T. Benjamin Durding, the popular druggist of Rock Hall, has the most beautiful display of hydrangeas we have ever seen. The entire front and side yard is a mass of mammoth blue and pink blooms, and it is a sight worth going miles to see.

¶ The fine building lots offered for sale in the TRANSCRIPT by J. Walters Russell, for the Kent County Land Company, were withdrawn on Tuesday because of low bids. These very desirable lots, located in Queen Anne's, may be purchased at private sale.

¶ The heavy wind on Wednesday afternoon split the old mulberry tree in the backyard at the home of Mrs Wm. R. Aldridge, demolishing more than half of it. After the fall the family cat and her family of three kittens were discovered tucked away in the hollow of the tree.

¶ One of the places for comfort and amusement at Ocean City is the Pier—it is decorated with evergreen trees from Harrison's nurseries at Berlin. Hook and line fishing from the pier is excellent. The pier is kept clean and respectable at all times and is under good management.

¶ Alonzo Dorsey, colored, was on Tuesday sentenced to the House of Correction for six months by Judge Virgil W. Kendall, after a trial and conviction under a charge of cruelty to animals. The offense occurred July 4th, on the streets of Chestertown, and according to unimpeachable testimony, was particularly aggravated.

¶ The Bottling factory, conducted by Messrs. Blackway & Waddell, is doing a rushing business. They have been as busy as bees since they started, and are chock-a-block with orders. They make and deliver splendid soft drinks, and sent out 200 dozen bottles to two places for the Fourth. They have all the orders they can fill, but are experiencing a little difficulty in securing bottles. Go it, boys, you deserve success.

¶ Two potato buyers from New Jersey have been in the county during the week. They inspected a number of patches in Kent, and we understand they gave the palm for the best patch to Mr. John E. Morris, who undoubtedly has a beauty. The buyers say that Mr. Morris should get a yield of from 80 to 100 bushels per acre, which means from 240 to 300 bushels per acre. The buyers state that the crop will be a failure is New Jersey and Virginia, and Kent growers should be in the money.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

IN MEMORIAM.

SHROPSHIRE—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear and loving wife and daughter, Isabella Starr Shropshire, who departed this life July 12th, 1900.

Ah, our home is dark and lonely,
For its loveli ht and its blessing
Has forever passed away;
Guard, oh earth, the form we cherished,
Heaven her sainted spirit keep.
And ye night winds sigh a requiem,
Where our darling sweetly sleeps.
In that great cloister's stillness and seclusion,
By guardian angels led,
Safe from temptation, safe from sin's pollution,
She lives, whom we call dead.
—Sadly missed by her
