'Superman' Serial Makes Debut at the New Albert

'I Jane Doe,' and 'Stage to Mesa City' Also Featured on Regular Week's Lineup

The New Albert Theatre this week announces the showing of a serial picture, "Superman," hero of the popular cartoon strip and radio program, on its first-run theatre in Maryland to feature a serial.

The picture has Superman, Kirk Alyn, Noel Neill, Tommy Bond and Carol Forman in key assignments.

It's the story of the mighty man of tomorrow who comes to grips with the Spider Lady and her evil henchmen as he fights to save the world from destruction by the dread reducer ray, which is in their possession.

Powerful Love Drama

The first feature, "I, Jane Doe," is a powerful drama, with an all-starred love affair which begins in the Nazi-occupied French country-side and reaches its tragic aftermath in peace-time New York City.

Ruth Hussey and John Carroll are co-stars of the dynamic love story, humanly told.

A stagecoach line that is after an important mail contract, a group of unscrupulous bandits who are set on smashing the line, and a pretty girl who fights the bandits with the aid of whip-slinging Lash La Rue are the plot ingredients which make "Stage to Mesa City" a highly successful action film.

Under direction by Ray Taylor blends these ingredients into a smooth flowing story which is a logical frame for the action and comedy personalities of "Lash" La Rue and "Fuzzy" St. John.

Sarah Vaughan Sets August Theatre Tour

DETROIT—Sarah Vaughan, following her nitery engagements during July, is scheduled for a series of theatre bookings, which will include the week of Aug. 20 at the Royal in Baltimore, Aug. 27 at the 125th St. Apollo in New York, and Sept. 3 at the Howard in Washington.

Electric Team at the Regent

Clark Gable and Lana Turner, who are the lovers in "Homecoming," current attraction at the Regent Theatre, which guarantees romantic excitement plus! Story of a doctor torn between two women—his wife and a fascinating nurse—the picture also stars Anne Baxter and John Hodiak.

Clark Gable, Lana Turner Co-Stars of Regent Film

One of the year's top casts in one of Hollywood's greatest love stories is brought to the screen in "Homecoming," starring Clark Gable, Lana Turner, Anne Baxter and John Hodiak, and currently at the Regent Theatre.

Fresh from his hit in "The Hucksters," Gable portrays a brilliant mind-Western surgeon who lacks a true understanding of people and life until he goes overseas during the war and finds romance with a girl he cannot hope to possess.

Miss Turner's role of "Snapshot" McCall follows her recent portrayals in "Cass Timberlane" and "Green Dolphin Street." The part of the valiant nurse with whom Gable falls in love is the most coveted of the year.

With Gable, with whom she scored previously in "Honky Tonk" and "Somewhere I'll Find You," the actress enacts some of the most moving love scenes ever written for the screen.

Anne Baxter was selected for the role of Gable's wife after more than a dozen well-known personalities were tested. Left behind when her husband goes to war, it becomes her problem to re-establish her marriage when he returns after having fallen in love with another woman.

Hodiak as a Doctor

The picture marks Miss Baxter's first appearance under the MGM banner. She won a 1947 Academy Award for her portrayal of Sophie in "The Razor's Edge."

John Hodiak, who in real life is Miss Baxter's husband, enacts the part of Gable's best friend, an idealistic doctor, who devotes his life to helping the underprivileged. The role follows his recent appearances in "Desert Fury" and "Love From a Stranger."

Ray Collins, Barbara Cooper, Cameron Mitchell, Marshall Thompson and Lorene Tuttle head the supporting cast.

Churchill Given Warm Reception

Carver Theatre Premiere Attracts Huge Crowd

WASHINGTON

The Four Tunes and Lena Sears sang Churchill, popular stage and recording artists, opened at Washington's most popular uptown club, the Ball, 14th and U Sts., N.W., Friday, for a one-week engagement.

A large crowd of first nighters, despite the many activities going on about town, warmly received this vocal combination in its initial appearance in Washington.

As an added attraction for his customers, Jeannie Caldwell, proprietor, was host to several local well-known radio personalities, two of whom were presented awards for 1948. The two award winners were Harold Jackson, popular disc jockey heard nightly from the "House That Jack Built" over WINX, and platter-spinner Leo Sands, WWDC.

Colorful Opening

The AFRO's first-nighter, in his tour of the entertainment spots, witnessed the very colorful opening of this city's newest picture house, the Carver Theater, 2400 Nichols Ave., S.E.

Participants on the program included the Rev. J. S. Grant, Allen Methodist Church; Ike Weiner, co-owner and general manager of the Carver; Oliver R. Hassler, theater manager; A. E. Lichtman, philanthropist; Harold Jackson, radio announcer; H. Graham Barnes Jr., Tuckman Construction Co.; Sandolphra Robinson, prominent Southeast attorney, and Lloyd Genus, AFRO-AMERICAN.

The Carver Theater, named in honor of the famous scientist, the late Dr. George Washington Carver, is modern in design and air-conditioned. On each side of the screen are two large murals of this great American at work in his laboratory. The opening screen attraction is "Panhandle."

Ventura at Bengasi

In Washington's once gay and popular Club Bengasi, only a handful of first-nighters ambled in to hear America's No. 1 saxophonist, Charlie Ventura, and his combo. All the gayety and glamor of this once desirable spot appeared faded and only a few frustrated bistro patrons seemed to hang on to those once happy yesterdays.

Ventura, known to millions of dance and music lovers, has brought his 1948 streamlined sextette to the dying Bengasi for a two-week engagement.

Opera Group Plans Stadium Festival

WASHINGTON

The National Negro Opera Company will present a mammoth music and dance festival at Griffith Stadium, Aug. 2, featuring several of the organization's soloists in the lead role of "This Is a Sin Trying World."

Soloists slated to lead this dramatization, composed of some 200 singers from NNOC Guilds in Chicago, Newark, Washington, New York and Pittsburgh, under the direction of Mary Cardwell Dawson, are Robert McFerrin, baritone; Napoleon Reed, Bertha Bragg and Omega King, soprano; Joseph Lipscomb, tenor; Ruth Morrison, and Ruth Logan.

Park and Municipal Bands List 2 Week-End Concerts

Plans Also in Making for Annual Mass Band Concert at Druid Hill Park Aug. 8

Concords and Discords

By W. LLEWELLYN WILSON

Local ministers, their congregations and their choirs have done much in the matter of community service, relative to keeping high the morale of our military men who have been stationed here and in the vicinity.

During the shooting portion of World War II, some of the churches provided a comfortable retreat where soldiers or sailors who were transiting could sleep over night and could obtain a wholesome meal.

Very often the musical organizations of the several churches here would visit the camps. It is gratifying to know that the churches are still co-operating with the nearby camps.

Music and Sermon

Very recently, Mess Sgt. Robert Poindexter and F. M. Stitch, chaplain, arranged a religious service at Fort Meade for the group of soldiers now stationed there. The Rev. A. J. Payne, pastor of Bress Baptist Church, was the speaker last Sunday afternoon, and a portion of the senior choir of the church sang the choral portion of the service.

Concert Rehearsals

Rehearsals for the massed bands and the Baltimore City Chorus concert, which will be held in Druid Hill Park on Sunday, Aug. 8, will begin at Douglass High School Auditorium, Sunday, at 2 p.m. All members are asked to attend. New members may apply for auditions at the same time.

The concert this year will as usual include in its programs selections for the two bands, with Mr. Gwynn and Mr. Dodd alternating as conductors; chorus numbers by the Baltimore City Chorus, singing some a cappella numbers and some with the 75-piece band. This year the chorus and bands will offer: The Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's "The Messiah," and The Gloria from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass."

An Innovation

An innovation this year will feature singing members of the band who will conduct the music.

Heretofore, the annual concerts have attracted record-breaking crowds to Druid Hill Park.

This year, Earl Forman, acting superintendent of the music department of the Division of Recreation and Parks, is preparing a program that is designed to be both entertaining and inspirational.

Larger crowds than usual are attending the bi-weekly concerts this year so far, which is testimony that are producing satisfying programs.

The Park Band No. 2, conducted by Charles E. Gwynn, will present a band concert this evening (Friday) at 8 o'clock at Sharp and Gwynn streets.

Mr. Gwynn has included in his program several solos by members of the band: "Fond Hearts" featuring Noah Hill; "Dreams of Love" with Harry Ford as soloist. Included are the "Washington Post March"; "The Conqueror" overture; "Shoutin' Liza Trombone"; "Dance of the Imps" and several other popular selections.

On Sunday at 3 p.m., the Municipal Band No. 2, conducted by Harlan M. Dodd, will present a concert at Harlem Square.

Included in his program Mr. Dodd will play "A Perfect Day," "Stardust," selections; "The Bluebird of Happiness," "The Rose," overture; "Chicago Tribune March"; and various popular numbers.

The program for this evening is as follows:

Baltimore, Our Baltimore ..... Hemberger
Old Regiment March ..... Atkinson
"Fond Hearts" (featuring Noah Hill) ..... King
The Conqueror (overture) ..... King

The complete program for Sun. is as follows:

Baltimore, Our Baltimore ..... Hemberger
"Ithaca March" ..... Seitz
Stars and Stripes in Triple (overture) ..... Richards
The Best Things in Life Are Free ..... De Sylva
"A Perfect Day" (saxophone) ..... Bond
Jazz Bassoon (march) ..... Jacobs Bond
The Sky Pilot (overture) ..... Laurens
"Stardust" ..... Carmichael
You Were Meant for Me ..... Brown
— INTERMISSION —
Barnum and Bailey's Favorite March ..... King
Canova Overture ..... Laurendeau
I'll Dance at Your Wedding Day ..... Oakland
The New Dawn (overture) ..... Russell
Gay ..... Berlin
Love's Wedding Day (saxophone) ..... Moses-Tobani
Big Time Boogie ..... Moffitt
"Chicago Tribune March" ..... Chambers
The Star-Spangled Banner

Plans are now under way for the annual combined band concert to be presented by the No. 2 bands, conducted by the chorus and bands and to be conducted by Mr. Dodd and Mr. Gwynn. Also featured will be the Baltimore City Chorus under the direction of W. Llewellyn Wilson, a soloist to sing with the combined bands and also composed of choirs.

This concert will take place on Aug. 8 at Grove A, Druid Hill Park, 8:30 p.m.

A good citizen registers and votes. You will want to help pick a President, Senator and Congressman in November.

The newly-appointed conductors are producing satisfying programs

You'll Be Hearing From Dotty

Dorothy Brown, who's long on talent and looks, posed prettily for an AFRO photographer on a recent visit to the Baltimore office. Dot is a dancer as well as singer. She was formerly billed under the title of Leta in some of the country's best spots where she appeared in an exotic role. She studied dancing three years with Sheldon Hoskins, a year and a half under Mary Rouse of NYC, and under Catherine Dunham. In the voice department, George Murphy, vocal teacher, of NYC, had her in charge for more than two years. She specializes in sweet numbers but can do jump tunes. The winsome one stands 5 feet 4½ inches, weighs 127, has brown eyes, black hair and gypsy-like characteristics. She's a native Baltimorean but was reared in Boston. You'll be hearing about her in the near future. Sorry, boys, no telephone number.

Jacquet in Tele Debut on Ed Sullivan Show

NEW YORK — Illinois Jacquet, the renowned "dynamo of the saxophone," who has registered triumph after triumph in the nation's concert halls and theatres, entered the new field of television, last Sunday night, in making a guest appearance with his sextette on the Ed Sullivan show.

Appearing on "Toast of the Town," variety show presided over by Sullivan, Jacquet's sensational performance was seen and heard by an estimated half-million television fans via CBS-Television, and the exciting instrumentalist definitely established himself as a "natural" for the new broadcasting medium.

Sharing the spotlight with such stars as Lena Horne, Bob Crosby, Joey Adams, Tony Canzoneri, Ashtech Henderson and Joe Howard, the youthful Jacquet and his bandsmen teed off the telecast with their exciting rendition of "Bottoms Up," which literally brought down the house, and became back to close the show with a frantic jam session on "Honeysuckle Rose" and the dynamic "King Jacquet," which left the studio audience screaming for more.

Master of ceremonies, Sullivan, who spotted the tremendous talents of the frantic tenorman some time ago, declared that he had never before witnessed such an exciting performance as that turned in by Jacque, whom he dubbed "My Boy Illinois!"

Jacquet's spectacular performance was also caught by the eyes of several leading movie and television moguls, as a result of which he has received offers from agents at the Paramount and Roxy Theatres in Gotham, a motion picture musical short, and a television show of his own.

Ravens to Study Dixie Folk Music

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Following their one-night appearance here Wednesday, the Ravens quartet will spend two weeks traveling incognito through the rural areas of the South gathering folk music material and listening to local harmony groups sing.

According to James Rickey, leader and lead of the quartet, the most important music of our time is the folk music of the South, both the work songs and the spirituals. The boys feel that in order to have a well rounded repertoire they should augment their stock of pop tunes and semi-classics with a generous sprinkling of authentic folk music.

Los Angeles Editor Heart Attack Victim

LOS ANGELES (ANP) — Leroy S. Hart, 43, managing editor of the Los Angeles Sentinel and one of the best known journalists on the West Coast, died of a heart attack July 2 at his residence.

LENA PACKS 'EM IN

NEW YORK, (ANP)—Lena Horne, singing star, of screen and stage, wound up her second Paramount appearance, a motion picture musical short, and a television show of his own.

Artists and Films Listed for Museum

Greta Sultan, pianist, will appear in recital at the Baltimore Museum of Art on Aug. 3, with Stanley Weiner, violinist, coming on the 24th.

Pictures to be seen are as follows: July 23, "Counselor-at-Law"; July 27, "The Good Fairy"; Aug 10, "Carnival in Flanders," and Aug. 17, "Becky Sharp."
