COOL FOOTWEAR

Most any one will tell you that the Russet Shoe is the most comfortable shoe you can wear, as they are cooler than other leathers and do not draw the feet.

We still have a fair assortment.

LOCAL MATTERS

Ben Egan Likes Jarman.—The Sun on Tuesday says: "Young Jarman, the former Washington College pitcher, has a great admirer in Ben Egan. The Oriole captain has served notice on Dunn that the youngster is capable of making a start, so it would not be surprising if Jarman got a chance in the near future."

Farmers Win Big Fight.—Chairman Philip D. Laird, of the Public Service Commission, on Thursday handed down an opinion in the long fought demurrage case, ordering that free time for loading and unloading cars in the counties be extended to 60 hours. The present free time is 48 hours. This is a distinct victory for the farmers and will greatly enhance shipping facilities.

Contractor Willis Wins Case.—After being on trial four days and two nights, the jury, in the case of Contractor T. Jackson Willis against the Board of County Commissioners of Cecil county for building a bridge over Big Elk Creek, near Elkton, returned a verdict on Thursday evening for Mr. Willis in the sum of $8,215.45. The amount sued for was $8,000. This case attracted wide attention on account of its importance, many witnesses for both sides being in attendance.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. MARTHA CLAYTON GRIFFITH.

After a long illness, Mrs. Martha Clayton, wife of Mr. Harry Griffith, died this morning at 5.15 o'clock at her home at Sassafras, Md., aged 49 years. Mrs. Griffith has been confined to her bed since Christmas with a complication of diseases, and was a great sufferer. Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Misses Mary and Laura, to mourn her death. The funeral services will be held at her late residence this Saturday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock; interment at St. Anne's cemetery, Middletown.

MR. EDWARD C. LOCKWOOD.

Telegrams were received in Middletown last week announcing the death of Mr. Edward C. Lockwood at his home in Vancouver, British Columbia. The deceased was born in Fredericktown, Cecil county, and when quite young he went to California where he was associated in business with his brother, Mr. Richard E. Lockwood. He was interested in real estate in Vancouver.

MR. JOHN C. BELL.

Mr. John C. Bell of the packing firm of Bell & Baxter, of Still Pond, died Thursday evening of last week in a Baltimore hospital from blood poisoning produced by a carbuncle which developed on his neck a week ago. Deceased was 44 years of age and leaves a family.

MRS. SARAH J. BOND.

Mrs. Sarah J. Bond died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel L. Brinton, in Baltimore, on Thursday of last week, of the infirmities of age, aged 82 years. The deceased was a relative of Mrs. Benana Russell's family in this town.

MISS ELIZABETH McFEELY.

Stricken suddenly ill last week, Miss Elizabeth McFeely, daughter of the late Wm. T. and Mollie McFeely, died at the home of Mrs. Henry Hurtt, 1304 Linden avenue, Baltimore, of a complication of diseases. The deceased was born in Centreville, where the remains were shipped for interment.

¶It is reported that one of our prominent citizens, through a profitable investment made so long ago that he had forgotten all about it, has been notified that his profits are worth $60,000. We sincerely hope the rumor is correct.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

¶Mr. Charles P. Hodgkin and force are making repairs to Sacred Heart Church.

¶Some one stole eleven fine chickens from Mrs. George B. McWhorter on the avenue last Saturday night.

¶Tuesday was St. Swithen's day. It did not rain. That means that there will be no rain for 40 days, according to the old adage.

¶Local buyers were paying 86½ cents for No. 2 wheat yesterday, and Eastern Shore potatoes were quoted at $1.75 to $2 per barrel.

¶Mr. Frank Lambert is the agent for a keyless lock. It works like a safe combination, and is a valuable thing. See him about it.

¶An open air suffrage meeting will be held in Still Pond, July 21, at 8 P. M. Misses M. Louise Frazier and Lola C. Trax will be the speakers.

¶Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., has removed his law office from the office of Wm. M. Slay, Esq., to that of R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., next door.

¶Mr. Henry Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Gill, has accepted a position as apprentice in the TRANSCRIPT office.

¶Wm. M. Slay, Esq., has resigned as court examiner, and the court yesterday morning appointed S. Scott Beck, Esq., as his successor.

¶Big matinee to-day at Worton track. An effort will be made to break the track record of 2.14 now held by Pony Boy. Horses called to wire at 1.30 P.M.

¶The new home of R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., is well under way on his lot on Front street. Duyer Bros. are the contractors and builders and Mr. Samuel Sparks is doing the masonry work.

¶The late Wm. T. Crow died intestate, and by mutual agreement his four children—Messrs. Wm. R., Walter C. Crow, Miss Ida V. Crow and Mrs. Louise C. Bell—will administer on the estate.

¶Mr. Daniel R. Woodall, Jr., and family have moved in the Rollison house opposite Sacred Heart Church. Mr. John E. Barnes and wife will move into the Sappington house recently vacated by Mr. Nathan Crossley.

¶Mr. Walter C. Crow will retire from active farming at the end of the year and will remove to his mother's home on the avenue. Mr. Michael Everett will oversee the farm where Mr. Crow now resides near town.

¶Prof. T. B. Symons, State Entomologist, made an investigation into the cause of the death of so many of our shade trees on Tuesday. The TRANSCRIPT will publish a report of Prof. Symons' investigation very shortly. It is not the scale.

¶The Skinner farm in Morgnec advertised at public sale in the TRANSCRIPT, was offered in front of the Court House door on Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Skinner, the owners. The farm was withdrawn on a bid of $13,050, and may be purchased at private sale.

¶Mr. George Peacock, superintendent of the Peerless Fertilizer Company's big plant on Chester river and one of our most expert gardeners, is the "early bird" with lima beans. He had the first from his garden on the 12, and on Wednesday gathered a supply for Mr. W. W. Hubbard.

¶The officers of the State Horticultural Department have designated Mr. Walter B. Harris, of near Betterton, a county representative for the department in the county should report to Mr. Harris, who will give necessary information regarding inspection, spraying, etc.

¶Mr. J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, has sold for Mr. R. C. Morgan his 45-acre farm near Betterton to Mr. B. Y. Harman, of Harman, West Virginia. Welcome to Kent, Mr. Harman. Mr. Russell has also sold for Mr. J. C. Haggerty his 25-acre property near Locust Grove to Prof. Maddox, cashier of the Galena Bank.

¶Mr. A. S. Turner has resigned as station master at Worton, and will devote his entire time to the grain buying and farm implement business which has grown to such proportions as to demand Mr. Turner's entire attention. He will be succeeded as station master by Mr. Markland, a fine young gentleman who was formerly at the Chestertown depot.

¶Mr. P. Medford Brooks has been the proprietor of Radcliffe Mills one year last Tuesday. 'Tis needless to say that Mr. Brooks has made a great success of the business. He is a hustler and possesses all the qualities of a successful business man. The TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations to Mr. Brooks and wishes him even greater success in the future.

¶Mr. William S. Collins has sold his Barkman farm in Morgnec on Chester river, to Mr. A. J. Bolin, of near Queenstown, Queen Anne's county, for $7000. Mr. Collins retains the landlord's share of all crops. Possession is to be given January 1, 1914. The TRANSCRIPT welcomes Mr. Bolin to Kent and wishes him success in his farming operations here.

¶The Chestertown Produce Exchange, in charge of Mr. Mingle, is doing a fine business. They are prepared to buy potatoes, tomatoes, cabbage, poultry and eggs, for which they pay the highest market prices. The exchange is just the thing the farmers have been needing for years, and it is up to them to patronize it, and make it the success it should be in this productive section.

¶The yield of wheat will be considerably below the average in Kent this year. Wheat that was cut early is badly damaged, while other is full of darnel and smut. Some of the wheat is in fine condition and this of course will command top market prices. But if it does not pay to grow wheat for less than $1 a bushel, the crop will be a financial failure this year.

Progressives Re-organize.

Gen. J. Stuart MacDonald is now the titular head of the governing body of the Bull Moose party in Maryland. He was elected last Friday to succeed Col. E. C. Carrington, Jr., by the board of control previously named to effect a reorganization and which board was invested with all the powers of the State Central Committee.

The question of nominating candidates for State offices was answered by Mr. Bonaparte in a resolution for the appointment of a committee of nine, with General McDonald as chairman, to suggest suitable candidate. This was adopted, those named being Colonel Pearre, General Bonaparte, A. A. Moreland, George R. Gaither, Stevenson A. Williams, N. Winslow Williams, R. Lee Hall, W. W. Doub, Robert D. Grier and Walter M. Ruth.

A board of legal advisers consisting of George R. Gaither, N. Williams, Charles J. Bonaparte, George A. Pearre and Sidney P. Townshend, was next appointed. The Progressives will put a ticket in the field in every county in the State as well as Baltimore City in the election.

WE ACCEPT INVITATION.

The Urie organ last Saturday invited the tax-payers to read the Road Engineer's report and see the "lot of cold facts" it contains. We accept the invitation and note the "cold facts." In the First District ISAAC GIBBS, SR., father of the Engineer, had the second BIGGEST BILL of any road worker in the district, getting $1 for bridge work and $376 for work on the roads. John Blanchfield, another Organization road worker, got $415.85 for his year's work. WILLIAM H. STRADLEY, one of the Organization candidates for State Central Committee, got $16 for bridge work and $129.05 for work on roads, while S. M. Ford, an Anti-Organization man, employed presumably because they couldn't find an Organization man, got $8.70 only.

In the same district—the First—MR. JOHN P. AHERN, the Organization candidate for County Treasurer—which pays $1,500 per year, besides being school commissioner at a salary of $100 per year, got $587.36 for supplies for bridges, while in the Second Distrirt Mr. Ahern got $234.90, making a total to Mr. Ahern's credit of $822.26 for the year. In the Third District, MR. HOWARD TURNER (Turner & Son), Mr. John D. Urie's candidate on the Organization ticket, got $326.13 for supplies for bridges during the year, while J. W. IVENS, one of the Organization leaders in the Third District, got $107 for supplies for bridges. In the same district Mr. Harry Redding got $486.15 for his year's work; Mr. John Myers got $711, and Mr. Aaron W. Taylor got $447.95. The firm of Graham & Clements, of Chestertown, got $38.10 in the First District; $625.62 in the Second, $330.04 in the Third; $117.35 in the Fourth; $188.30 in the 5th; $882.19 in the Sixth, and $263.92 in the Seventh—a grand total of $2,245.43 in the entire county for the year. These are some of the "cold facts" as set forth in the Roard Engineer's report.

SOCIAL WORLD.

Vansant & Newsome have a unique advertisement in this issue. It is something different from the stereotyped form of advertisement. Read it, and see how these progressive merchants do business.

B. S. Sutton, the hustling Black's merchant, is telling you something worth knowing in his space in another column. Mr. Sutton has one of the best stores in the upper section of the county. It is stocked with a full and complete assortment of seasonable goods which are yours at reasonable prices. Compare his prices with others and see where you get off.

Dear Reader:

Confidence is the keystone of satisfactory dealing today between storekeeper and customer. Thousands of the brightest minds in the Commercial world have adopted "Truth" in advertising as a part of every sale made—no misleading statements. It takes time for a dealer to win and hold the Confidence of his customers, but once that Confidence is won that dealer is successful.

THE OLD WAY AND THE NEW

Once it took months to cross the Atlantic, now it takes days.

Once you could die and your friends know nothing about it for an indefinite period of time; nowadays the telegraph gets your obituary out in good season.

Once you had to propose by letter and have the "old man" intercept it, or by person and be embarrassed; to-day you can put the question over the 'phone and take no chances—other than that of being accepted.

Once you had to pay the same price for Low Shoes in July that you did in May; to-day you can step into Vansant & Newsome's and get your $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 Low Shoes at $1.98.

Progress, which is largely a matter of keeping your stock clean and up-to-date has eliminated the carrying of Low Shoes over from one season to another.

A man can come into Vansant & Newsome's and get two pairs of these Low Shoes for less money than it took him in one pair ten days ago.

He can have 80 pairs to select from and he can be fitted to perfection, and not have to lay awake nights figuring his chances of a perfect fit and nursing corns.

A "lot" of Low Shoes, containing about 80 or 100 pairs, ordered—out.

All the shoes of this "lot," consisting of Tan Calf, Gun Metal and Pat. Colt, go out at $1.98.

No pair in the "lot" worth over $4 and none worth less than 3.00. All go at $1.98. Nothing charged.
