Aim for the Chin, Chappie

That's what Larry Amadee, veteran Chicago trainer, appears to be saying while tutoring Smugsy Hursey, local middleweight fighter, for a 10-round rematch fight with Tommy Bell, Monday night, in Griffith Stadium. Although Hursey will likely come on the short end of 8-5 odds, Amadee predicted a win for his protege.

Charles, Bivins Due in Friday

WASHINGTON

Ezzard Charles and Jimmy Bivins, who are slated to launch the elimination series among heavyweights for a successor to Joe Louis's crown, are expected to arrive in the District today (Friday), to open training for their Aug. 2 bout in Griffith Stadium.

Charles, touted Cincinnati (Ohio) fighter, is breaking camp in Pittsburgh while Bivins will come here from Greenwood, N.J., where he has been training under Ray Arcel.

The bout is being sponsored by the Variety Club as a charity show, and is predicted to draw close to $100,000, declared Charlie Walker, general chairman.

Charles, who has the best record of any other contender for the champion's crown, has won 26 of 27 fights since being disqualified from the Army.

The contest will mark the first appearance for the former Wilberforce University student, who is labeled as the No. 1 contender for the crown despite the presence of Light-heavyweight Champion Gus Lesnevich and Jersey Joe Walcott.

Eastern Net Title Games Will Have National Color

SCOTCH PLAINS — This year the Eastern Sectional tennis championships will be largely on a national scale by virtue of entries of national champions and Harold Mitchell of Oakland, Calif., starting Wednesday on the Shady Rest Country Club courts.

Play will continue through Aug 1, when the final will be held.

The committee in charge of the Eastern on Monday announced the entries of both George Stewart and Althea Gibson of New York, national men's and women's single champions.

Chandler on Bill

In addition to kilcneit, who is ranked third in the national standing, entries include John Chandler of Fanwood, rated fourth. Nat Jackson, former champion, who is currently rated at sixth.

Also, Dr. Hubert Eaton who ranked 10. Richard Cohen and Jeff Crate, both of Plainfield, rated 12 and 13 in order. Business permitting, Dr. Reginald Weir of New York also will be an entrant.

Miss Gibson will have tough opposition in Nana Davis of Elizabeth, who battled the women's champion Independence Day at Hartford, Conn., and Doris Miles of Englewood, rating fourth who is dangerous at pulling upsets.

Mocking the baseball feature of "knothole and bleacher days" the Eastern's committee announced that the New Jersey Tennis Association will have as its guests on Wednesday some 500 youngsters from North Jersey community social and welfare organizations.

Aaron Perry's $20,181.01 income tax plight may be a flagrant case of mismanagement both ways, but it all depends on the way the individual signs his thinking.

Last summer when it was rumored that Perry was on the verge of bankruptcy, Harry Garsh, white-haired promoter, told the AFRO indignantly: "I have been accused by your papers of cheating Perry out of his money so I took him to the bank, drew all of his money out, turned it over to Perry and wiped my hands of the whole matter."

Another report is that Perry is so far in the arrears with his taxes because he believed Garsh was taking care of them. Meanwhile, more than a dozen calls to Garsh's home have resulted in the answer that "he isn't home, but I will have him call you as soon as he comes in—for a statement."

Well, Mr. Garsh, I am still waiting for your call.

Ernest (Rough House) Greene, former Dunbar High School grider, is doing construction work in Georgetown University for conditioning prior to leaving for Wilberforce to join the team for practice slated to get under way, Aug. 23.

Sam Lucas and Paul Colbert, standouts on Dunbar High School's football team last fall, also are headed for the Ohio college, while young teammate Jerry Willis, booked at Virginia State College.

Two veteran North Carolina State College gridders, James Linsberger and Bill Hunter, will join Coach Herman Riddick's Eagles when practice gets under way, Aug. 18, at Durham.

Coach Sal Hall of Cardozo, who motored out to Evanston, Ill., in the 1946 Hudson to witness the Olympic track and field tryouts, has his memories and souvenirs purloined his car which was recovered in the time by Cincinnati, Illinois ,Louisville.

John Lancaster, former Armstrong (D.C.) hurler, who had a tryout with the Homestead Grays in their 13-6 triumph over the Indianapolis Clowns, joined the team against the Philadelphia Stars, the Wilmington, Del., Saturday, as a regular.
