AFRO Softies Top Jones Tavern Ten

With Leon Brown collecting four doubles and pitching good ball, the AFRO-AMERICAN softball team pounded the Jones Tavern ten for a 13-6 victory.

After a bad start which resulted in the tavern team getting eight runs in the second inning, the AFRO settled down. Brown allowed no one to get past second from the third inning. For the AFRO, Edward Smith and Scotty Gross homered, with Ted Washington and Daddy White playing their usual bang-up game.

For the losers, Purnell collected three hits to pace his team. The season record so far for the AFRO is twelve wins and two losses.

Eastside Bests Dolphin Nine

Collecting a total of 17 hits, the Eastside baseball team defeated the Dolphine, last week, 12-9.

Joe Swaird, hard-hitting Dolphin baseman, and E. Logan, their star shortstop, set the pace in the winning attack. Though nicked for 11 hits, Ollie Brown was the winning pitcher.

Highlight of the game was Chandler's home run, a tremendous clout going over the centerfielder's head with ease.

Gillin, of the Dolphins, got three hits in four at bats, one a circuit blast.

Sunday the Eastsiders take on the strong Northeast A.C. at 1:30. Davis will pitch.

Westside Eagles Top Northeastern

The Westside Eagles pounded out 13 hits off two Northeastern pitchers to score an 8-6 victory on Sunday.

Davis, who started for the Eagles, gave up five hits including George Andrews's fifth homer of the season. He walked two men and yielded four runs while striking out seven.

Left Burnside, who relieved Davis in the fourth, gave three hits and two runs.

The Eagles will play host to the Dolphin A.C. Sunday at 4 p.m., on Druid Hill Park Diamond No. 2.

Halted by Illness

Leading heavyweight contender, Ezzard Charles, who was scheduled to meet Jimmy Bivins Aug. 2 in Griffith Stadium in the first of a series of elimination bouts to determine a successor to Champion Joe Louis's crown, was declared ill by the Cincinnati Boxing Commission, with the result that the bout has been moved up to Aug. 9.

Seek NBA Title Recognition for Bivins-Charles Fight

An examination by the Cincinnati Boxing Commission which disclosed that Ezzard Charles, ranking heavyweight contender, is suffering from a glandular disturbance forced postponement of his fight with Jimmy Bivins to Aug. 9, in Griffith Stadium.

The contest, sponsored by the Variety Club as a charity show in co-operation with Gabe Menendez, promoter Cabe Menendez, Tuesday, revealed that he is requesting the winner of the match between Bivins and Charles as the heavyweight champion.

If the request is granted, then the bout will be upped to 15 rounds, the maximum for a championship fight, Promoter Menendez said.

Gabe disclosed that he is making the request in view of the fact that Charles has whipped Elmer (Violent) Ray on previous occasions and that Walcott, although is a contender, doesn't rate alongside Charles.

Gilbert Sparks Royals' Victory

WASHINGTON

The Washington Royals, with Big Bob Gilbert slamming out two homers and a double, extended their winning streak to five consecutive games with a 10-3 win over Havre de Grace (Md.) Cardinals, Sunday, on the losers' ground.

Wright, Thompson Banished by NNL

NEW YORK (NNPA)—Negro National League officials banished two pitchers of the Homestead Grays from organized baseball here last Monday as they met to complete plans for the East-West game to be held in Chicago and the All-Star "dream game" set for New York, Aug. 24.

Banished from competition were John Wright and Frank (Groundhog) Thompson, Gray twirlers, who were both declared ineligible for competition because they "jumped" to the Mexican League.

With representatives from all the league's member teams attending except the Homestead Grays, officials named nineteen players for participation in the East-West and All-Star games and designated Jose Fernandez to manage the East's players. Vic Harris of the Grays and Marvin Barker of the New York Black Yankees were picked as the West's coaches.

The Baltimore Elite Giants, the Newark Eagles and the New Orleans Cubans each placed four men on the all-star line-up, the Grays and the Philadelphia Stars each will have three men on the squad, and the Black Yanks will furnish one. On the eight-man pitching staff, the Eagles, the Giants and the Cubans will furnish two men each and the Yanks and the Stars furnish one apiece.

The complete roster:

First-base, Buck Leonard, Grays; second, James Gilliam, Elite Giants; shortstop, Thomas Sanders, third, Minnos Crestle, Cubans; rightfield, Larry Doby, Eagles; centerfield, Louis Marques, Grays; leftfield, Sonny Stewart, Yanks; catcher, William Cash, Stars;

Pitchers: Rufus Lewis, Eagles; Max Manning, Eagles; Joseph Black, Giants; Robert Romby, Giants; Henry Miller, Stars; Robert Griffith, Black Yanks; Pat Scantelbury, Cubans; David Barnhill, Cubans.

Utility: Frank Austin, shortstop, Stars; Monte Irvin, centerfielder, Eagles; Lewis Louden, Cubans.

Doby Error Costs Tribe 2nd Place

CLEVELAND — Misjudgment of a fly ball by Larry Doby gave the Chicago White Sox Athletics two runs and a 4-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians here Monday afternoon, thus knocking the Tribe out of second place in the American League pennant race.

Doby's blunder occurred in the eighth inning with the Indians leading 3-2 and Bob Lemon seemingly on the verge of snapping the locals' protracted slump. Two Athletics were on bases at the time that Don White lifted a fly to center. Both men scored when Doby permitted the ball to sift through his glove and strike him on the head.

At bat, he former Newark Eagle star connected for one hit in four trips, that being a double. Since returning home from the club's

Nashua Ace Whiffs 7 Cub Farmhands in 12-1 Victory

Returns in Nightcap to Get Credit for Second Win of Day, His 13th

NASHUA, N.H.—Dan Bankhead pried open the door to the hall of fame here Sunday with a double challenge by turning in a 13-1 no hit performance against Springfield in the opener of a twin-bill and coming back in the nightcap to gain credit for a 4-3 win, his second in one day.

Giving with a no-hit game is a rarity in itself, but slender Dan made it a twin novelty by winning a double-header on the same afternoon of his whitewash stint.

The victims of Dan's double doses were the Springfield Cubs, farmhands of the Chicago Cubs of the National League. And, of course, victors were the Brooklyn Dodgers' New England League underlings of this city.

In chalking up the two triumphs, Bankhead collected his twelfth and thirteenth wins of the season against five defeats. In addition, it marked the Bank's seventh consecutive victory.

Has No Trouble

Bankhead had no trouble whatever in blowing his way past the Cubs for his no-hit triumph. It was his ninth win against a no-hit, no-run ball game too, but Don Hook's hurry-up throw to Doc Alexson in the second inning in an effort to throw out Denny Aeschliman carried high over Alexson's head, crammed off the grandstand and permitted Jack Curnal to score all the way from second base.

Outside of that frame Dan retired the Cubs in order in the first, third, fourth, fifth and sixth innings and walked Hank Nasternak in the seventh in facing four batters in that frame.

Dan came back in the 11-inning afterpiece to do 1½ innings in relief. This was another hitless, scoreless stand, in which he fanned two more Cubs. He whiffed seven in the opener.

To add to the woes of the losers, the ex-Memphis Red Sox pitcher rapped out a single to figure in the scoring of the winning run in the eleventh.

Jethroe's Double Is Not Enough

Rally Short, Montreal Drops Oriole Opener

Sammy Jethroe's pinch-double in the eighth inning figured in a 2-run rally but it was not enough to stem the tide of the lowly Baltimore Orioles and, as a result, the league-leading Montreal Royals dropped a 6-5 decision here Thursday night.

The loss marked the opening of a 4-game series at Baltimore Stadium, and immediately it was over Manager Clay Hopper announced he would send big Don Newcombe to the mound tonight (Friday) in an effort to snap the Royals out of their lethargy.

The former Newark Eagles' ace righthander is slated to work one of the two games listed as a twin-night-night double-header this evening.

Jethroe Scores

Jethroe, replacing pitcher Walter Nothe in the eighth with the homeless leadoff man, slammed out a triple and proceeded to third as the Orioles' Ernie Groth fell short of tying the Orioles, who had scored all their runs off Jack Banta in the first two frames.

Oklahoma Opens Drive-in Movie

OKLAHOMA CITY (ANP) The State of Oklahoma had its first drive-in movie theatre for colored people when the Fair Park Drive-In Theatre opened here Sunday. Winard Norman has been named manager of the new enterprise. He will direct a staff of 10 employees including ticket sellers, ushers and concession aides.

Norman recently held position as chief steward of service at the Variety Club atop the Hotel Black in Chicago. Mrs. W. C. (Ruth) Hawkins will manage the concessions.

Notes on U.S. Olympians

F-L-A-S-H!

LONDON — Dean Cromwell, U.S. track coach, branded as "utterly ridiculous" the report that the American cinder squad was ripped with dissension just prior to the opening of the Olympic Games this morning (Friday). He said he had "gone a long way" to avoid any sort of discrimination.

The competitions got under way with a bang in the high jump in which no colored are entered. In the 100-meters trials, Barney Ewell drew the toughest assignment in Laing, a speedy Jamaican. Ewell and others were confident the U.S. champion would have no difficulty with him.

LONDON — Rumor has it that members of the American track and field team have voiced resentment over the fact that Head Coach Dean Cromwell is spending too much time with his sprinter, Mel Patton, and too little time with other U.S. athletes.

Final workouts of the cinder squad consisted chiefly of practicing starts. With the men using the new aluminum-type starting blocks, Barney Ewell, Harrison Dillard, Lloyd LaBeach and Mel Patton practiced breaking at the sound of a hammer on a huge iron cylinder. This served to the absence of a pistol, barred by British military authorities at the Ekbridge Village, a military base. Dillard was reportedly first out.

Mal Whitfield, mid-distance ace of the U.S. squad, has completely recovered from a sore-throat attack which floored him shortly after docking of the S.S. America last week.

Another casualty, Herb Douglas, broad-jumper, is slowly working off a leg injury suffered in the humping pit on Tuesday.

Avery Brundage, head of the U.S. Olympic contingent, and a staunch advocate of strict amateurism, ruled late this week that it is permissible for the citizens of Lancaster, Pa., to continue with their fund-raising campaign, meant to take care of the wife and baby of Sprinter Barney Ewell while Ewell is abroad with the Olympians.

Arthur Wint, sensational RAF middle-distance star, whipped Herb McKenley in a 600-yard workout, Tuesday, reeling off the distance in 1:08.9.

Foreign observers are marveling over the effortless style of Mal Whitfield, U.S. 400 and 800-meter king. Coach Cromwell has said he will permit the Ohio State runner to compete in both events.

New Jersey Sportlight

Norm has added a good deal towards sports since he came to Jersey three years ago. He was a star in the New Jersey-New York professional baseball league with the Orange Triangles during the winter of 1946.

He was one of two sepia netters among 38 entries in the Essex County Tennis tournament last week end. He was eliminated in the third round by Sid Schneider, 6-2, 6-3.

The New Jersey Tennis Association is one of the strongest net organizations in the American Tennis Association with Princeton joining this year, making the organization 10 clubs strong.

The clubs are: Asbury Park Bal-Rae, Jersey City; Englewood Tennis, North End, Elizabeth; Orange Tennis, Triune and Viking, Newark; Shady Rest, Scotch Plains; Union Tennis, East Orange, and Princeton.

Bob Turner Scouted

Major baseball clubs have plenty of scouts, so if you are an outstanding player, the word will get around and a scout may be around. Don't go out to find a scout.

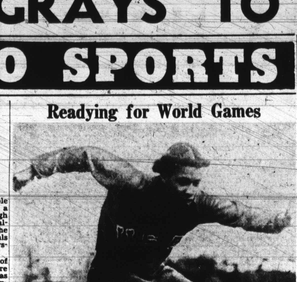
Latest word on scout activities in Jersey is that Bob Turner of South Bound Brook was spied upon by Connelly of the Chicago White Sox.

Bob is now playing outfield in the Colonial League — class "B" ball. He was All-State schoolboy in Jersey baseball in both 1945 and 1946 while he attended high school. His position was catcher.

He joined the Newark Eagles for a while during their spring training in Florida this year, but left the club to join the Colonials.

The Newark Eagles have 10 more games scheduled at home this season. The first of that schedule will be a night game next Tuesday against the New York Cubans.

Reading for World Games



Bernice Robinson, chief U.S. hope in the women's hurdles in the Olympic Games, takes a short spin over the bars in Uxbridge, England, in preparation for the world competitions which opened Thursday in Wembley Stadium, London. Miss Robinson is a Chicagoan and the American 80-meters hurdles champion.

Heads for West

Pinkney Holes Out From 135 Yards

Carlos Hutchins won medalist honors at the EGA Amateur championship matches held in Philadelphia Friday, Saturday and Sunday, but was eliminated in the quarter finals.

Sam Stewart and Willie Adams reached the semi-finals in a flight before being eliminated.

Slim Myers qualified for the B flight and reached the semi-finals.

Mrs. Marguerite Brown won consolation in the women's championship flight by defeating Hazel Foreman of Washington, the defending champion, Marie Murphy was runner-up in this flight.

Clyde Martin was awarded fourth prize money among the pros, despite the fact that he broke his driver on the 18th hole on Sunday.

Martin, Steward, Adams, Myers, Hutchins and Myers are competing in Ray Robinson's $3,000 open tournament, being held in New York this week.

Alex Pinkney, playing in a foursome with Agnes Douglas, Sam Sesy and Dutch Jones last Saturday, hooked his tee shot into the rough, on the 327 yard ninth hole at Carroll Park, and from 135 yards out used a No. 9 iron for an eagle 2.

Ex-Boxer Gets Year in Prison

GEORGE Slater, 22-year-old former middleweight boxer, is serving a one-year sentence in the county prison for assault and battery on a policeman.

The sentence was imposed last Tuesday by Judge James C. Crumlish in Quarter Sessions Court.

The assault officer, Tinsley Haliburton, a member of the special squad, testified that Slater, whose address is 2015 Addison St., punched and kicked him when he sought to arrest him for disorderly conduct charge at 20th and South Sts. on July 8.

Romby Silences Grays' Bats for 7-1 Win in D.C.

Walkermen Back Home Tonight, Set for Grays; Eagles Here Sunday

WASHINGTON

With Bob Romby settling down after the second inning and holding five-hit ball, the Baltimore Elite Giants fastened down the Negro National League leadership by drubbing the Homestead Grays, 7-1, at Griffith Stadium Thursday night.

The Grays tallied in their second on Easter's single and a running triple to right center by Cliff Bell. But from that point on, except for one instance, they failed to threaten. Romby's sculpture slants kept their three remaining hits well under Santiago.

The Grays' lone threat otherwise occurred in the top of the fourth when Gary opened the frame by slamming a double down the rightfield foul-line. Pitcher Bob Walker's attempted sacrifice bunt turned out to be a pop to Ed Finney.

Russell Stars

Then Lula Marquez shot a hard-hit line drive into the centerfield corner at the foul-line. Frank Russell then came up with one of the most spectacular plays of the year to chase off the run.

Russell tore into the corner, caught the ball down a few feet from the wall, wheeled, and in the same motion, rifled a centerfield peg to Pee Wee Butts to double Gary off second. The Grays's shortsacker, certain that the ball would be caught, had rounded third on the route home when Manager Vic Harris, coaching there, waved him back to second. Gary made the run for it but Russell's throw beaten him off by seven feet.

Gilliam also checked in with a spectacular catch when he made a backhand stab and throw on Luke Easter's hard-hit line drive, a vicious blow to the right of second base. Gilliam also shone on a short hop as the Elite Giants shared it and toured to Washington for the putout.

The visitors threatened the Grays in their half of the sixth by loading the bases. In the seventh they cut loose with a barrage that chased Walker to the showers.

Elites Count

Junior Gilliam led off the sixth for the Elite Giants by walking. Gilliam
