Miss Mary Camper Wed to Rudolph J. Redd

—with Lula Jones Garrett—

And the bride wore blue. Speaking of Mary Cornelia Camper, who made her vows to Rudolph Redd at a ceremony at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. T. Camper, Friday.

And a mighty charming bride was in her frock of lace and marquisette, made with a moulded shoulder collar of the lace, the yoke being of transparent marquisette, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt caught with big blue roses and sweeping into a very slight train. Matching this was a crownless hat of starched blue lace, and she carried a pale blue leather prayer book with ribbon markers.

She was attended by her sister, Ellen Johns, who wore a duplicating frock, in pink lace, but with brief sleeves and bow-back halo. Her posies, a bouquet of tiny pink rosebuds and larkspur, were encircled in a marquisette ruffle.

Rudolph Johnson was best man.

Dr. Camper (he's Progressive Party's candidate for Congress) gave his child in marriage, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. George G. Garnett. Prior to and during the ceremony, nuptial music was provided by Luther Mitchell, pianist, and Mrs. Elaine Allen, soloist.

Mrs. Camper was smart in royal blue draped crepe, with her hair brushed back and the chignon caught in a flower spattered snood. She wore a spray of gardenias at the side-front of her belf. And the bridegroom's foster mother, Mrs. William Day, selected a pink background floral print, intricately draped, and slit at the front, with long black gloves.

A scant two dozen of the family and friends saw the ceremony, but the reception, afterwards, was attended by scores.

At the rites were:

Mr. and Mrs. Day, Glendi John, Nixon Camper, Miss Jean Camper, Miss Ruth Faly of Philadelphia, Mrs. Charles Faly of Philadelphia, Mrs. Pauline Weston, Mrs. Mark Patterson;

Mrs. Violet Nixon, Mrs. Rachel Hatcher, Richard Smith, Mrs. Caroline Nixon, Mrs. Evelyn Fitzgerald of Washington, John Upshur of Washington, Abel Cromwell, Dr. Douglas Camper, Mrs. Catherine Carroll, Miss Mary Griggs of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones.

OFF TO HOLLAND

Up in New York, on Wednesday, Kappa Sigma and Alpha Pi chapters of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority were bidding Godspeed to their soror. Bobbye Dellass and her husband, Adrian, ere the latter took a steamer for Holland.

The affair, a dinner party, was held in the green room of the YMCA, with Beulah Watson as mistress of ceremony, and presenting the gift from the sorority.

There was group singing, a dramatic reading by Mercedes Gilbert, a solo by Juanita Terrell.

Joining the group was Soror Darlene Hutson of Mu Sigma chapter, Jackson, Tenn., who is in New York for summer school at Columbia. Others about included Sorors Dorothy Alexander, F. Frazier, Beulah Dellass, Mercedes Gilbert, D. Hulson, H. Jones, Katherine Hicks, C. Liddie, M. Parker, Caldonia Mays, Dorothy McKinney, J. Terrell, Lynda Small, Bertha Walson, Ruth Whitehead Whaley, Alma West, all members of the sorority; and guests including Mr. HeHass, Captain J. Raynor, G. Hicks and W. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Dellass sailed on Friday on the Ernie Pyle. This is her first visit to Europe to visit her husband's family at the De Hass Hotel in Amsterdam. They plan to remain in Holland for the next two years.

FROLIC AT COLTON

The Frank Burneses entertained members of the Country Pleasure Club at a dinner party at their cottage on St. Clemeth Bay, Colton, Md., Saturday.

Up for the party were:

Mr. and Mrs. John Laws, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson, Mrs. Molly Fairfax, Mrs. Catherine Madden, Edwin Chatman, Jerome Scott, R. Jefferson, Mrs. Ollie Hollis of Chicago, Mrs. Julia Taylor, Mrs. Mottie Lee Ford, Mrs. Edith Chatman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ford Jr., Samuel Winder, Harry Madden, Mrs. Tillie Delegendre of New York and Mrs. Lula Smith.

Mrs. Hollis had been the guest of honor, earlier, at the out-door picnic given by her sister, Mrs. Fairfax at the latter's place, Spring Stone Farm, at Sparks, Md.

Guests included:

The Earl Harts, Joshup Johnsons, William Youngs, Matthew Lawses, Plato Hargraves, Harry Maddens, Thomas Beards, Leroy Smiths; Mesdames Spencer Fauntleroy, Francis Munford and Goldie Richardson; Misses Rachel Jones and Elvizr Smith and Joyce Smith.

CARRIE GETS SURPRISE

Those guys and gals who dropped in to greet Carrie Scott on her natal day, Wednesday, have convinced her that birthdays are something to look forward to.

Dining quietly with her mother, Mrs. Sadie Dorsey, and the family, the bell casually rung, and there, bearing hankies, cosmetics, candy, flowers, and good cheer were:

Myrtice and LeRoy Bennell, Aggie and "Pat" Patterson, Weida and Charles Alston, Rowena and Bill Lewis, Bessie Fuller, Thelma Waters, Alyce, Elinor and Melvin Cole, Tanny and Merrial Friend, Margaret Satchell, Alma and Paul Williams, and of course, daughter Peggy James.

"Ohs and ah's" over exquisite jewelry from Hubby James E. Scott added to the delight of the other gifts. Greetings and gifts came from Sara and Lawrence Jones of Detroit and from Thelma Jewett Toite of New York, plus a luscious cake from Bea Dennis of this town.

CHRISTENING HELD

Out in St. Paul, Minn., a Sunday ago, the Cecil Pooles of San Francisco had their infant, Gale Alvin, 15 months old, christened at St. Phillips Episcopal Church. The Rev. Daisuke Kitagawa officiated in the absence of Father L. T. Williams. The Alex Landers of Des Moines were godparents, Mr. Alexander flying up from Washington for the event.

Father of the baby, is the Los Angeles attorney, and Mrs. Poole is the former Charlotte Crump, whose home was in Pittsburgh, and who was in Government service in both Washington and Pittsburgh and also served as public relations director of NAACP in New York.

PEREGRINATORS

Velma McEwen (she's women's industrial secretary of the Baltimore Urban League) is back at her post after jockeying about the South for a month. Did Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi, with a look-in on Connecticut, also. Bertha Anderson went up to St. John's to visit with her nephew, Charles Brownley, who is studying pharmacy there. Also visited in Brooklyn and New York while in the vicinity. Rachel Harden is in New York—Columbia University to be exact. Edna Over Gray was in Kansas City, Mo., her old haunts, a couple week. Has been on a tour to the West, having visited fifteen chapters of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, of which she is national basileus. The A. B. Rogers posted back of the delights of Canada, which they are seeing from Montreal and Quebec. Verda Welcome is in Ithaca, N.Y., for the nonce, attending the Institute on International Relations which is being held on the campus of Cornell University. Previously, had visited Philadelphia and New York with her father. Anne Jones has hied herself back to the coolness of Connecticut. Loretta Wallace, she's the attorney, Roy S. Bond's right hand, left Monday for a Canadian vacation.

Capt. and Mrs. Leonard Underwood hosted Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd Parker and their daughter, Cheryl, of Wilberforce, the past week end. Capt. Parker is in charge of ROTC at the university. The Underwoods and Parkers were neighbors while stationed at Saipan. Alma Thomas of Chicago, is summering with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis and daughter spent the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Norris of 2033 Northeast Avenue in Halethorpe, Md.

Wedding Punch Gets Bridal Approval

Rudolph J. Redd and his bride, the former Miss Mary C. Camper, sample the wedding punch during their reception in Baltimore, Friday. Looking on is the bride's sister and matron of honor, Mrs. Ellen Jones.

Married in Maryland

The former Sara Joan Washington, daughter of Mrs. Serena Spencer Washington, of Atlantic City, is married to Holton Hayes, Boy Scout executive, in Baltimore, Friday.

Miss Washington Married Here

A marital bombshell was dropped on Eastern Seaboard society when Sara Joan Washington, 20, adopted daughter of Mme. Sara S. Washington, wealthy owner and president of the Apex News and Hair Company, was quietly married to Holton Hayes, a Boy Scout executive here, Friday.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Dyson at Metropolitan Methodist Church, with the bride's stepfather serving as witness.

She wore a white sheer street frock, white accessories and a white leghorn hat. Her corsage was of orchids.

The bride, who is a native of Atlantic City, is a leader among the younger society set along the Eastern Seaboard. She is a senior at Howard University and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. She has attended Boston University and also the exclusive private school for girls, Northfield Institute, Northfield, Mass. She received her early training at the select Palmer Memorial Institute at Sedalia, N.C.

She is a cousin to Madame Washington, who adopted her when she was seven years old, and will inherit Madame Washington's wealth. Mrs. Verna Cross Gosnell, of Baltimore, the bride's mother, is Madame Washington's first cousin.

The bridegroom, Holton Hayes, 24, resides in Atlantic City and is a field executive of the Boy Scouts of America. He has been the assistant to director of Atlantic County Area for the past three years.

Mr. Hayes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Hayes of Indianapolis, Ind. He was an honor student of Crispus Attucks High School at Indianapolis and attended the University of Indiana, graduating with a B.S. degree in 1945. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, was a varsity track man in Indiana University and in 1943 won the Big Ten discus championship.

At present the couple are at Camp Edge, Alloway, N.Y., and following their stay there will go to his home in Indianapolis, Ind.

Shopping Spree, Bon Voyage Parties End as Mrs. Shaw Sails for Europe

By LOUISE K. HINES

With an amazing amount of energy left after nearly a month of serious shopping in New York, Philadelphia and Boston, Mrs. Lottie Shaw is "very much elated over her coming trip to Amsterdam."

Sailing from New York today (Friday) Mrs. Shaw will accompany her husband, Bishop Alexander P. Shaw, resident bishop of the Baltimore Area, who is alternate delegate to World Council of Churches which meets in Amsterdam Aug. 22 to Sept. 4.

Shopping, a woman's delight, has proved just that for this charming lady, who has garnered for her trip, a new wardrobe which features (some fashioned in the new look) her favorite colors of black, gray, blue and beige.

Outfits Pretty, But Practical

Included in the lot are three evening gowns, one in deep pink with cut bead trim, and two in a black, two beige coats, a three-piece beige suit, and a gray two-piece dressmaker suit.

And then there are six black dresses which can be toned up with a variety of accessories.

Mrs. Shaw is taking five hats, (she loves them) a half-dozen pairs of shoes, "plenty of nylons," a raincoat, and the necessary quantity of lingerie, gloves, scarves and other feminine "fixings."

Scoffs at Sea-sickness

She is comforted by the fact that they have been able to make hotel reservations, and not a little excited over the thought of being 14 days on the Atlantic Ocean.

Upon advice of a well-wisher, she has even bought a vial of pills to stave off sea-sickness.

"I don't like the looks of those pills. I think they might make me feel worse than the motion of the boat," she said jokingly, giving one the impression that she will be far more interested in what is going on, than in succumbing to the de-mer."

Shopping her practical side, Mrs. Shaw will have tucked in her luggage, some cans of food stuffs, particularly meats and fruit juices, and coffee for the Bishop, as well as plenty of soap and soap powder.

Will Buy Mementoes

Upon the advice of their aunts Wilbur and Preston, Bishop and Mrs. Shaw will visit both in England and France. In typical American style, Mrs. Shaw hopes to bring back souvenirs in quantity.

Mrs. Shaw has been honored by several groups wishing her bon voyage. Last week the ministers' wives of North Baltimore District headed by Mrs. F. P. King, presented her with a silver and rhinestone brooch and clip-earring set.

She was "showered" with handkerchiefs on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Kelly L. Jackson, and again with nylon hose on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mayme Griffin.

This trip abroad, rounds out a year that has taken her with her husband, to church conferences in six States. "Now that the children are grown, I will enjoy being able to go when and where I like," she mused.

Left This Morning

"I almost feel as if I deserve this trip, and I certainly am glad we are sailing instead of flying," she added.

Bishop and Mrs. Shaw, accompanied by their daughters, Misses Elaine and Anita Shaw, and son, Wilbur, motored to New York early Thursday morning.

After receiving "shots" and completing other phases of processing, they sailed early this morning.

Party Honors Mary Gordon

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gordon Sr. of 1219 Etting Street gave a party for their daughter Mary on her thirteenth birthday, last Tuesday.

Mary is an eighth grade pupil at Washington Junior High School.

Guests were:

Misses Elaine Bradford, Christina Boyd, Eloise Larkins, Ann Wyner, Marion Green, Catherine Warren, Elaine Franklin, Deloris Curtis,

Misses Sylvia Henderson, Jeanette Gary, Carol Edwards, Delores Glasgowe, Barbara Smith, Claudette Waddy, Gloria Carter, Ingram Parson;

Aaron Stewart, James Cooper, Samuel Rayfield, Joshua Williams, Henry James, Alvin Rayfield, Avon Childs, Calvin Edwards, and Alton Smith.

Hostesses were Misses Cathren Gordon, Hester Gordon, Edith Gordon, and Margaret Gordon.

LOTS OF LUCK to Mrs. Kareema Kareem

We think that Mrs. Kareema Kareem has a very interesting, unusual name . . . and one that people are sure to hear a great deal more of. For with Mrs. Kareem's charm and ability, we know that the beauty career she is planning is bound to be a very successful one.

At the present time Mrs. Kareem is studying Beauty Culture at the Apex School and is very much enthused about her work there. Her greatest interest lies in hair styling which gives her the opportunity to really expand her creative talents. We certainly want to wish Mrs. Kareem a world of success!

Of course, Mrs. Kareem has very discriminating tastes when it comes to beauty in fashion, too. Mrs. Kareem says that she has never felt so well dressed, or received so many flattering compliments, as when she wears HENDIN'S HOLLYWOOD FASHIONS. Mrs. Kareem wouldn't trade a million for her HENDIN CHARGE ACCOUNT, because it enables her to get the smartest clothes in Baltimore and pay for them conveniently.

P. S. A trip to HENDIN'S is a cool treat on any hot day . . . because HENDIN'S is air-conditioned throughout.
