THE STATE COMPTROLLERSHIP.

The friends of MR. WILLIAM B. COPPER, Chief Judge of the Orphans' Court for this county and Cashier of the Third National Bank of Chestertown, are extreemly anxious for him to make the fight for the nomination for State Comptroller. Mr. Copper is well and favorably known throughout the State and was a few years ago president of the Maryland Banker's Association. While holding this position he came in contact with many of the most prominent and influential men in the State and his ability to gain the confidence of men, together with his high order of ability as a financier have won him manyafriends and admirers from one end of the State to the other. Not only are his many friends on the Eastern Shore behind him for Comptrollership but we hear his Western Maryland and Baltimore city friends are equally as enthusiastic for him. Owing to the lateness of the information which has so suddenly crystalized we did not have an opportunity to interview Mr. Copper as to whether or not he will yield to the wishes of his friends and make the contest.

MR. TAX-PAYER, if you want to saddle Urieism and extravagance on the county again, vote the Organization ticket. If you want a low tax rate and economy in government, vote the Anti-Organization ticket.

THE nearer the day of the primaries, the more certain becomes Anti-Organization victory for the whole ticket. The Organizotion should not, and in our judgment will not nominate a single man on their ticket.

THE Cecil Democrat said editorially last Saturday: "The working of the present law, which places the roads in the hands of an engineer is deemed a failure, and its repeal will be sought." We refer to this statement simply to show the widespread dissatisfaction of the people not only in Kent, but in Cecil, with a law that forces upon the taxpayers an unnecessary and unjust burden, and yet the Organization forces are pledged to a continuation of this law in this county. The Organization forces are for the Road Engineer, and the Road Engineer is against the interests of the tax-payers. What should the tax-payers do in a case like this?

WILLIAM W. BECK is the man who refused to repeal the Gibbs Road Law, which was the only way of getting rid of Gibbsism. William W. Beck is also the man who confirmed Mr. John D. Urie as School Commissioner. Wm. W. Beck, therefore, is not only responsible for a continuance of Gibbsism and wretched road management, but he is responsible for Urieism and politics in the public schools. Beck you know is the Organization representative in the Senate. He is for Howard Turner for the Legislature, and if Beck gets Turner in the House, you can just imagine what he will do to the tax-payers. You want to check Beck by beating Turner and Shallcross.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE.

There are strong evidences that the Organization forces have given up all hope of carrying the coming primaries. The linking of Urie with the management of the Organization campaign, and the 94-cent tax rate together with an unfortunate selection of candidates in several instances, have been severe blows to the Organization's hopes, because it has awakened the tax-payers to what is going on. They are, therefore, looking to the future, and from the most reliable authority comes the report that they are already lining up their candidates. Harrison W. Vickers thinks he has about enough as State's Attorney, and he is to be the Organization candidate for the State Senate, while S. Scott Beck is being groomed as the candidate for State's Attorney. Mr. Charles L. Dodd has his eye on the clerkship, provided the Organization don't get behind the present incumbent, Mr. James T. Dixon. The Antis are l[y]ow and sawing wood. They ex[pect] beat the Organization so deci[sively] in the coming primaries, that [there] will be no Organization faction in [the] primaries, and the Antis are [there] concerned with only the things [at] present.

A HOMELY ILLUSTRATION OF A REAL CONDITION.

With due respect to the mother-in-law for whom we have the greatest admiration, and who so frequently is the object of much unmerited criticism, we beg the indulgence of a well-known Methodist minister for relating this story, whose moral is so pertinent to the present political situation in Kent: Once upon a time there lived in a certain family a mother-in-law of rather fretful and peevish disposition. The slightest annoyance would fret and worry her exceedingly. One of her greatest failings was susceptibility to a draft, and every time the children would go through the room in which the old lady was seated, she would say: "Shut the door, I feel a draft." The poor old lady died one day from the effects of a draft, and she left a provision in her will that her remains should be cremated. The son-in-law made arrangements for the cremation, and the remains were taken to the crematory. The superintendent of the crematory informed the son-in-law that it would require about 24 hours to reduce the remains to ashes, but that he could return in about six or seven hours and see how things were progressing. The son-in-law returned to the crematory in about ten hours, and when the superintendent opened the door of the furnace to see how the fire was burning, he saw the mother-in-law sitting up in the casket, and she said: "Shut the door, I feel a draft."

MORAL—From 1903 to 1909 there was a constant draft in the County Commissioners office. The tax-payers asked the Organization commissioners to shut the door but they refused. Just about the time the tax-payers were being "cremated" by the Organization commissioners with a red-hot heat of a $1.85 tax rate, the Antis looked in, and in their agony the tax-payers cried, "SHUT THE DOOR, WE FEEL A DRAFT," and the Antis obeyed. And to this day whenever Mr. Urie or the Organization Democrats go near the County Commissioners' office, the tax-payers cry, "SHUT THE DOOR, WE FEEL A DRAFT," and the door stays shut, and is locked with a 94-cent tax rate. Beware of drafts; they are dangerous things.

THE JARMAN SCHOLARSHIP.

We do not intend that Harrison W. Vickers shall put us in a false position in reference to Mr. John D. Urie's position in the Jarman scholarship affair, nor do we intend to allow him or any one else to attempt to shield a guilty party behind the skirts of Mr. John P. Ahern. We are not concerned with Mr. Ahern's participation in the matter, nor did we infer or imply that Mr. Ahern was guilty of anything. It was perfectly useless for Mr. Vickers to place himself in such a ridiculous position as he did last Saturday morning by getting a letter from Mr. Ahern or writing to Dr. Jarman. Why did he not base his statement upon a letter from Mr. John D. Urie, who was the man who approached Dr. Jarman and sought to drag Mr. Ahern into a most embarrassing situation? Why did not Vickers take the statement of the TRANSCRIPT, go to Mr. Urie with it, and base his investigation upon what Urie did, and not seek to place Mr. Ahern in such a position that Vickers can go to the grand jury with a statement that Mr. Ahern has been accused of violating the Corrupt Practices Act. If Mr. Vickers is to go before the grand jury, let him go there with the facts as disclosed by the TRANSCRIPT. Let him go with the conversation between Mr. Urie and Dr. Jarman in his hand. Vickers knows as well as we do who is the guilty party in this matter. He knows that Mr. Ahern is not concerned in this matter except as he has been placed there by Mr. Urie, and he knows that there is nothing either expressed or implied that Mr. Ahern knew anything about the conversation between Mr. Urie and Dr. Jarman. We did not seek this information from Dr. Jarman. We knew absolutely nothing about the affair until Dr. Jarman came into our office and voluntarily made the statement to us. We took down the statement, and sometime the latter part of the week of its publication we submitted the statement to Dr. Jarman; and we are perfectly frank to say that the doctor made corrections, and then O. K'd the statement as it was published in the Transcript. He stated to us on Saturday morning last that he did not tell Vickers that he had cut and slashed the article or that there were any mistakes in it as Vickers stated in his letter in the Kent News on Saturday. He said he told Vickers that he trimmed the article, and even then there were some words in it that different people could place different construction upon. Dr. Jarman also stated to us on Saturday morning that he told Mr. Ahern that the statement Urie made to Mr. Ahern was altogether different from the statement Urie made to Dr. Jarman. Dr. Jarman believes that Urie was seeking to influence his vote for Mr. Ahern, and has so stated it. Indeed, Dr. Jarman did not have to make such a statement, for the fact that Dr. Jarman told Urie that he did not know politics was mixed up in the scholarship appointment, was an evidence that Dr. Jarman believed that Urie was seeking to influence his vote for Ahern, and the admission that Urie made to Dr. Jarman "that there has to be a little politics in everything" is an admission on Urie's part that he was playing politics with the appointment. For the benefit of Vickers and the public, and with a determination that Vickers shall not drag Mr. Ahern into a false position, nor that he will seek to do anything else than his duty in this matter, we reproduce the conversation between Dr. Jarman and Mr. Urie as follows:

Meeting Mr. Urie on the street, Mr. Urie said:

——, I see your son has taken the examination for a scholarship at St. John's College."

The gentleman replied: "I did not know anything about it until it was over."

"Well," said Mr. Urie, "I like the appearance of your son, and I think he would make a very creditable representative from this county in St. John's College, and I am favorable to his appointment. I know he did not get as good an average as some of the others who took the competitive examination, but I have been talking to Smyth about your son, and Mr. Smyth says he believes he would make the best all-round representative. HOW DO YOU STAND ON AHERN? WHY DON'T YOU WRITE TO AHERN?"

"Well," said the gentleman, "I know Mr. Ahern, and speak to him when I see him. BUT I DIDN'T KNOW THAT POLITICS WAS MIXED UP IN THIS THING. I thought the one who got the highest average got the place."

"Oh, well," said Mr. Urie, "you know it is like everthing else, there has to be a little politics in everything," and here the gentleman left, and has not written to Mr. Ahern yet.

Dr. Jarman censored this statement before it was published and stated that it was correct. He repeated the identical statement to Mr. W. B. Copper and to us in our office, and Dr. Jarman told us that he believed Urie was seeking to influence his vote for Ahern. If there is anything in the above conversation that warranted Vickers in publishing the bluff he did in last Saturday's Kent News, we fail to see it. Just why Mr. Vickers desires to drag Mr. Ahern, a candidate for public office on his friends' ticket into this thing we fail to see. He is evidently much kinder to Mr. Urie, a Republican, than he is to Mr. Ahern, and yet we believe that Vickers would prefer to embarrass Mr. Ahern, Dr. Jarman, the TRANSCRIPT, in fact anybody before he would Mr. Urie. The TRANSCRIPT calls upon Vickers to do his duty in this matter and rid the Organization Democrats of the interference that is dragging them down to political destruction. This case is as plain as can be. Why not turn on the light? If Mr. Vickers fails to do his duty in this matter, which seems to us to be so plain, that anyone can understand it, we appeal to the next grand jury not to take the statement of Vickers as published in the Kent News last Saturday, but to take the conversation between Dr. Jarman and Mr. Urie which Dr. Jarman has stated is correct, and sift this matter to the bottom.

A WASTE OF SPACE.

The Urie organ of last Saturday said: "We do not feel called upon at all to defend Mr. Urie; a defense of him would probably be twisted by the opposition into a community of interest, but we do desire to say that Mr. Urie has never been accused of a lack of political astuteness; we imagine that he has been schooled in the science sufficiently to hold his own against any man who poses as leader of the Anti-Organization."

For the past two weeks the Urie organ has contained a column and a quarter of editorial matter in defense of Mr. Urie, and in one of these issues they even apologized to Mr. Urie for making a statement to which they were afraid he would take offence. And yet they do not feel called upon to defend their leader and chief adviser, Mr. Urie. The people know all about the "community of interest" that exists between Mr. Urie and the Organization, and they know in what school he learned the tricks of the political game. Such defense of Mr. Urie's participation in Democratic politics as was made by the Urie Organ last Saturday is sufficient to convince the people THAT URIE IS DOMINATING THE POLICIES AND PLANS OF THE ORGANIZATION DEMOCRATS IN THIS CAMPAIGN, and that every candidate on the Organization ticket has the brand of Urieism stamped upon him good and hard. In other words, if Turner and Shallcross get to the Legislature, URIE WILL HAVE MORE TO DO WITH SHAPING LEGISLATION FOR KENT COUNTY THAN ANY DEMOCRAT IN THE COUNTY. You have only to read the Kent News to be convinced of that. That paper is not doing one thing in this campaign but defending Urie and Urie's participation in the public school management. And if Mr. Urie, a recognized Republican, is not the head and shoulders of the Organization faction in this campaign, why should the Kent News devote so much space every week to a defence of Urie? Beck, Vickers, Dodd and all other workers have been shoved into the background, and instead of making an effort to defend their course as Democrats, if they are not so ashamed of it, that they haven't the nerve to mention it, their paper is filled from week to week with a defence of Mr. Urie and his public school policy. Where there is smoke there must be fire, and if Urie is not directing the Organization, in this fight, and every one of their candidates are tied to Mr. Urie, why do they waste so much space in defence of Mr. Urie?

THE Organization forced a tax rate of $1.85 on the tax-payers, and not satisfied with that they forced a new assessment of property on the tax-payers at a cost of some $12,000, thus making the people pay much more taxes than they should have done, even under a 94-cent tax-rate.

THE Antis have not only got to give the Organization faction a decent licking in the coming primaries, but they have got to keep Urie out of Democratic politics too. The fact that the Kent News is devoting two columns and a half a week to a defense of Urie and his fight for more money for schools, is the best evidence in the world that they regard Mr. Urie as their leader and the Organization's chief adviser. Don't be fooled by the claptrap statements of the Organization. URIE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT HE IS LEADING THE ORGANIZATION FORCES and that is all there is to it.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

DEAR SIRS:—I read your miserable sheet with the greatest disgust. Why are you always jumping on our engineer Mr. Gibbs? In the First District he are the friend of the working man. I have never received very much for the work I done on the roads. Never in one year so much as over $250. But to read your paper you will make people think a road worker gets rich. We believe Mr. Gibbs is the bestest man who ever had the roads in this Disyrict in charge. I have talked with many road men in other Districts and he says he has done more for them than any other men in their part of the County. You might think you can beat him but if you do you will brake the party. He and his Father is the strongest men in this part of the County and mighty so. But for him we would never get $1.50 for our day work. It is justice that we should only have eight hours a day when everybody else in every other calling only work this long. Hurrah! I say for Gibbsism. We pays for what we gets. Mr. Gibbs is a more competenter man than Mr. Roe if he do ride in an automobile.
