A Watch for the Summer Girl

This is the season of freedom—the outdoor season of sports and pastimes. Any restraint, whether of clothes or adornment is a burden now.

What a relief to the Summer girl to have a sturdy, inexpensive watch to replace the delicate one that she constantly fears she may break or lose during the outdoor months.

We have attractive silver or enameled watches at moderate prices and then there's the little gun-metal Ingersoll midget at $2.00 and guaranteed. Look over our assortment.

LOCAL MATTERS

SALE RECORD.

Saturday, Aug. 2d—Sale of household goods by Mrs. John W. Latham at her home in Kennedyville. Sale begins at 2 o'clock.

Tuesday, Aug. 5th.—Sale of the valuable farms of the Hepbron estate near Kennedyville by Lewin W. Wickes, assignee.

Wednesday, Aug. 6th.—Public sale of valuable personalty belonging to Herman Bramble on Rasin farm near Lankford.

Monday, Aug. 11th.—Public sale of very valuable stock and farm implements belonging to Harry C. Walls on the Baldwin farm near Chesterville.

Thursday, August 14th.—Public sale of valuable personalty belonging to Benj. F. Jarvis on his farm near Lambson's station. Some fine stock in this sale.

Thursday, August 14.—Sale of lot of fine mules, horses and farming implements; also a splendid assortment of household furniture.

Friday, August 22.—Big sale of horses, cattle, etc., by Samuel G. Caldwell at his stables in Galena. Mr. Caldwell always has something good to offer.

A Correction.—We stated in last week's issue that the name of the new mail clerk who is to succeed Mr. Fred Hirons is Williams. We were misinformed. The new mail clerk's name is Mr. Shimp, and he has a wife. Mr. Williams is the name of the gentleman who is temporarily substituting for Mr. Shimp, and Mr. Williams says he is still a single man. We are very glad to make this correction in the interest of Mr. Williams, because there are lots of splendid young ladies in Chestertown who would make any man a most excellent wife.

Drowned in Swan Creek.—The body of Mr. George Stevens, a well-known waterman of the Fifth District, was found on Wednesday morning floating in Swan creek. The last seen of Mr. Stevens alive was on Sunday when he visited his brother, Mr. Laurence Stevens, near Rock Hall. He had been making his home for sometime in a shanty on the Strong farm shore opposite Rock Hall, and upon his return from his brother's, it is supposed that in attempting to reach his shanty in a boat he fell overboard and was drowned. The face and neck were terribly disfigured by the crabs and only his brother could identify him. Owing to the condition of the body the funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon.

Annual Grange Picnic.

The joint picnic of Kent and Queen Anne's will be held in Klinefelter's woods on August 7th. It will be a basket affair. Managers are endeavoring to make it a success. There will be a table for exhibits. Bring along anything you would like to show. The morning will be devoted to merry-making; the early afternoon to several addresses; Mr. Merrick, of Ingleside, will make the address of welcome, which will be responded to by the Master of Kent Grange. Hon. J. A. Pearce is expected to speak on "The Importance of Agriculture." State Master H. J. Pattison, who is president of the Maryland Agricultural College, will speak on the "Development of Agriculture in Maryland." Mr. Irving Walker, chairman of Committee on Arrangements, will no doubt make it pleasant for every one who may attend. All farmers and their friends will be welcome.

S. S. HEPBURN,
Publicity Com.

Edward Robinson, one of the most industrious and respectable colored men in Chestertown, died suddenly of acute indigestion last Friday night. It must be said to the credit of Robinson that he was of a saving disposition, and left his family provided for. He carried an insurance policy in the industrial department of the Prudential Insurance Company, Mr. George French, superintendent.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Misses Mary Smith and Grace Tull, teachers at Betterton and Worton Point, have resigned.

The feature of the week at Betterton has been the annual tournament of of the Betterton Gun Club. All the hotels and cottages are crowded and the season's rush is now on.

Mr. Herbert M. Matthews has purchased of Mr. Perry B. Rasin his store and fixtures at Catt's Corner, near Worton station. Mr. Matthews will conduct a first-class store there.

Mr. Joseph Rising, the well-known trainer, left for Wheeling, W. Va., on Wednesday morning, where he will start Pony Boy and two other horses which he will start in the races there.

Mr. Frank Robinson and family have moved to one of the houses near the electric light plant from the Duyer house and Mr. John Duyer and family to the house vacated by Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Edward Corey left on exhibition at the TRANSCRIPT office this week a basket of the largest and finest white potatoes we ever saw. They are of the Irish Cobler variety and 26 of them just filled a peach basket.

Mr. Billy Sachs, of the firm of H. Sachs & Son, Chestertown clothiers, is an expert swimmer He recently swam from Chester bridge to Emory's wharf, and emerged from the water apparently as fresh as when he entered.

A party composed of Dr. H. Benge Simmons, W. Irving Walker, Wm. G. Smyth, Howard F. Owens and L. Bates Russell enjoyed a delightful day's fishing on the bay at Betterton last Friday as the guests of Mr. Owens.

Mr. Louis F. Newsome, now living in Quaker Neck, has rented the C. M. Lloyd farm in Queen Anne's near I. B. for next year. Mr. M. H. Boyer, who owns the farm where Mr. Newsome now lives, will occupy the property next year.

Monday, August 11th, the Tolchester Co. have arranged to run an excursion to Annapolis from Betterton and Tolchester—Steamer Annapolis. This will make a nice family trip to the capital of the State. See advertisement in this paper.

Messrs. Stavely & Bowers, the hustling contractors and builders, of Lynch, have purchased a large concrete and cement mixer, which they will use in their constantly increasing business. They are now figuring on a big contract in this county.

Sheriff McKee arrested Ben Blake, Wallace Cann and Clarence Murray, all colored, for disorderly conduct and carrying concealed weapons at a camp at Melitota on Sunday evening. They were given a hearing before Justice Wright on Wednesday afternoon and held for court.

Chestertown is to have a milk shipping station. The date set for inauguration of the service is August 4th. This convenience for the farmers and shippers of this section was procured through the efforts and co-operation of the Rich Neck Farmers' Club Produce Exchange.

The Baltimore Sunday News devoted a column of its space to a criticism of William H. Jenkins' pamphlet of poems entitled "Blossoms." Jenkins is a son of Harry Jenkins, a very respectable and intelligent resident of this town. The "writeup" is a very complimentary one.

Messrs. A. Parks Rasin, Charles A. Baxter and Daniel R. Woodall, Jr., have entered into a partnership agreement to manufacture and market a fertilizer distributor attachment for cultivators, the invention of Mr. Woodall. The appliance is said to do the work for which it is intended perfectly, and to fill a long felt need of farmers and truckers.

THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Regular services on Sunday at 10.30 A. M. and 6.30 P. M. Short twilight sermon at the evening service. Sabbath school 2.30 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Christian Endeavor service Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

St. James M. P. Sunday School enjoyed a delightful day on Thursday picnicing at the beautiful bayshore home of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Willis.

The Board of Stewards of Christ M. P. Church, on Sunday morning following the service, granted the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, a vacation of a month, to be taken at his pleasure.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D.D., pastor—Services next Sunday, August 3, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by Rev. Harry Taylor; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song Service, followed by brief sermon by the pastor. All invited to come.

Bond M. E. Church Sunday School, Pomona, held their annual picnic at Quaker Neck wharf on Wednesday. A large crowd attended and a delightful day was spent.

Dr. H. B. Martin, rector of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, is enjoying a month's vacation. There will be no services during his absence.
