70 Bison Grid Prospects Invited to First Practice

WASHINGTON

Howard University's Coach Eddie Jackson, preparing for the Bisons' opening grid practice, Sept. 1, mailed invitations to 70 top flight gridders this week.

The Hilltop mentor, entering his fourth season as coach of the Bisons' athletic teams, disclosed that some 45 veteran performers and 15 new prospects have been contacted thus far.

Among those informed of the opening drills were veteran participants who led the Bisons to seven triumphs in nine tilts last season. They were:

All-CIAA guard Otho Jordan and brother, Sam, Washington, D.C.; Sandy Greene, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.; Charles (Pip) McClain, Alexander; Hettler Parker, Melvin Marshall, Roper McNair, Harry (Jim) Thompson, Hillary Thompson, Clarence Gilkes, all of Washington.

Virgil Anderson, freshman sensation last year from Sioux Falls, S. Dak.; Ernie Davis, freshman quarterback last season, from Orange, N.J.; Robert Minton, reserve halfback, from Philadelphia; Cliff Lee, Atlantic City, N.J.; Alonzo Williams, Asbury Park, N.J., and Chis Roberson, Stone Harbor, N.J.

Although he is expecting to strengthen his team with several promising newcomers, Coach Jackson declined to reveal the names of his "prospective new stars" until they are safely in the fold.

There will be no changes in the Bisons' coaching setup this fall. Coach Jackson revealed. Last year's trio of Sam Barnes, Oberlin, '38, end coach; Tom Johnson, Springfield, '40, backfield coach, and Kenny Powell, Johnson C. Smith, '42, backfield coach, will round out the staff.

With Bannaker and the Hilltop athletic field closed for renovation, the Bisons will shift their practices over probably three fields. The gridders will shuttle back and forth between the field adjacent to Lincoln Memorial, Armory grounds and the field adjacent Howard University's medical school.

Skeets Holland in Improved Condition

Raymond (Skeets) Holland, 32-year-old jockey of this city, has recovered from injuries he received in a fall at the Maryboro Race Track on the opening day card Wednesday.

Holland, aboard the 6-year-old mare, Gay Peggy, went down in a spill at the first turn of the mile-and-sixteenth fifth race. He was improving his position from fifth to challenge the leaders when the horse fell, taking War Spy and Jockey Fred Kraits, white, with her.

Attendants picked Holland up and lifted him into the infield out of the paths of the horses who had yet to make another turn of the track. He was taken to the track hospital and found to be not seriously injured but shaken up.

Skeets was up and around at his home, 5422 Denmore Ave., Pimlico, Thursday and on Friday took in the races at Maryboro. He expects to resume riding within a few days.

Cal Smith Makes Lightweight Debut With 8-Round Triumph

PHILADELPHIA

Calvin Smith, rung young Philadelphia lightweight, made his first start as a local windup fighter a successful one by pounding out an eight-round decision over Luis Ramos on Thursday night at Toppis Stadium.

Although the decision was unanimous, it did not appear that Smith had taken the New York Latin's measure as handily as he should have.

The unorthodox Ramos, swinging wildly with his roundhouse punches, frequently left openings which Smith, slow in acting, and perhaps in thinking, let slip past without penalizing his adversary.

As it was, Smith, lashing Ramos with jabs, hooks and crosses, got the best of most of the exchanges by only a narrow margin. His best round was the eighth.

Smith, who had a three-and-a-half-pound weight advantage at 131½, won six rounds on each of the official scorecards. Two officials, Referee George Giacchino and Judge Al Volce, each gave Ramos two rounds, while Judge Joe Sweeney awarded the New Yorker one period and called another even.

Making his first appearance since last April, Billy Nixon, local welterweight, won a cheap one-round technical knockout over George Hammond, Riveside, N.J., in the programmed six-round windup.

The referee halted the bout after the ringside physician ruled that Hammond's mouth was "badly lacerated." Nixon had driven several hard blows to Hammond's jaw, but it is doubtful that they did the damage the medic indicated.

Bernie Peters, hard-hitting featherweight, outslugged Billy Stevens, New York, in a six-rounder. Another scheduled six saw Bobby Green tko Earl Coleman in a free-swinging duel between local welterweights.

Jail Youths Rapping Tigers' Lily-Whiteism

DETROIT—(ANP) —Detroit police scored one run-in, an assist and an error at Tuesday night's baseball game.

Seventeen young boys and girls distributing leaflets and petitions at Briggs Stadium asked Walter Briggs, owner of the Tigers, to give tryouts to colored ball players, were run in by the police of the second precinct.

In preventing the distribution of leaflets, the police were giving an assist to jim-crow practices by the owners of major league ball clubs. The police chalked up their error in arresting and holding the young people for two hours without charges and then releasing them after confiscating their placards. The youth were members of the Young Progressives of America (Youth for Wallace).

Tan Netman Takes Indiana U. Title

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (ANP)—Howard Minnis, Louisiana netter and only colored student in Indiana University School of Physical Education, won the men's singles crown in the Indiana University all-campus tennis tournament. He defeated Fred Meier, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4, and paired with Tommy Tomczak by defeating Fred Meier and Lou Hensler, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1. Over 100 netters took part in the week-long tourney.

Howard Minnis was seeded second in the National Negro Tennis Tourney last year.

GUNS FOR $3500 PRIZE:
Rhodes Seeks 3rd Louis Open Golf Title in Row

DETROIT—If Theodore Rhodes wins the coming Joe Louis Invitational Gold Tournament scheduled for Rackham Golf Course here in the Motor City, it will mark the shortest time that the Nashville pro has emerged from the 72-hole, $3,500 extravaganza as the victor.

Previous to last year, there had been no unwritten law that no single player could win the Louis Invitational. It was simple to reason why. No one had ever managed to turn the trick. But last year Rhodes made tournament history, in more ways than one.

Breaks Tourney Mark

First, the nattily-clad pro fired a four-under-par 280 to set a new tournament record. Previously the mark was 290, which is good golf over the long, well-trapped layout. Rhodes's record-shattering score was also the first time a sub-par golf had been fired for all four rounds. But his consistent golf was necessary to win. Bill Spiller shot a sparkling 283. Solomon Hughes matched this score. Howard Wheeler, Willie Moseley, were knotted at 286, while Leonard Smith and Charles Sifford chalked up 290's. Each golfer broke the former tournament record.

Must Be Keen

Judging by those scores it is safe to assume that Rhodes will have to shoot even better golf this year to nab the first place cash prize of $1000 for the coming meet, which is scheduled Aug. 29-31, Sept. 1-2, at the beautiful municipal course.

In the amateur division, Eural Clark will start the match play as the choice of the public, but should encounter stiff opposition from Judson Grant of Los Angeles; Alfred "Tup" Holmes of Detroit, Dr. Benson Robinson of the Motor City, host Joe Louis, and many other crack simoniers.

Tourney Director Benard Odell anticipates a record entry, judging from the expressions of those already evoked by the tourney in various sections of the country.

Balto. Panthers Card Legion Nine

The Baltimore Panthers, continuing their campaign in independent semi-pro ranks, tangle with the American Legion Post 797, of York, Pa., at the new Westport Park, Sunday.

The Panthers will start their new 18-year-old mound ace, Bill Haskins. Haskins, a lefthander, has an impressive record and local officials are predicting a bright future for him in semi-pro and professional ball.

The Pather-Legionnaire battle is slated to get under way at 2:15 p.m.

Sugar Ray to Box Gavilan Sept. 21

NEW YORK—Striving as best they know how, to match their Tournament of Champions rivals in promotion, directors of 20th Century Sporting Club on Wednesday announced the signing of Ray (Sugar) Robinson to meet Kid Gavilan, of Cuba, in a non-title fight at the Polo Ds Williamsbridge Flores championship bout of Sept. 21.

Thus the war between the two boxing promotions, which seems continues. Tournament of Champions had booked a middleweight title scrap between Tony Zale and Marcel Cerdan of France for Jersey City on Sept. 22, while 20th Century decided to fill its Yankee Stadium date here with a lightweight exchange between champion Willie Pep and challenger Flores.

The Tournament of Champions elected to get Jersey Joe Walcott and Gus Lesnevich into the ring with the Zale-Cerdan scuffle to fortify that production. To meet this new challenge, 20th Century came up with the idea of putting Sugar Ray in with the flashy Cuban, winner of four straight in Madison Square Garden.

According to the Robinson-Gavilan contract, the former will make his first New York title defense against the Kid in the Garden in late fall or early winter.

Indian Softballers Nose Out Eagles, 5-4

WASHINGTON

Georgetown Indians softballers, although outhit by Southwest Eagles, bunched enough safeties to eke out a 5-4 victory, and take the lead in Boys' Club No. 2 Little American League, recently, on the losers' grounds.

Bill Harris led the Indians attack with one hit, and crossed the plate twice. For the losers, William Gladden and Bill Johnson garnered two safeties.

Williams Scores at Meadowbrook

NEWARK

Charley Williams, former New ark Golden Gloves lightweight champion, scored one of the most impressive victories of his amateur and professional careers on Monday night when he felled Leon Gabrial of Atlantic City for the full count in the sixth of a 10-round battle at Meadowbrook Bowl arena.

William held the upper hand of the battle on points in the first five frames but the real attack came at the opening of the sixth stanza when he caught Gabrial with a lethal right to the solar plexus and Leon dropped for the count. For the first time in his boxing career.
