BETTER than SPANKING

Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. 2523, Chicago, Ill., have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a 50c package securely wrapped and prepaid Absolutely Free to any reader of the Transcript. This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day in old or young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co. is an Old Reliable House—write to them to-day for the free medicine. Cure the afflicted members of your family, then tell your neighbors and friends about this remedy.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. JENNIE KEMP.

Mrs. Jennie Kemp, one of our most highly esteemed lady residents, died at her home on Spring avenue last Saturday evening after a short illness of acute indigestion and gastric trouble, aged 70 years. The deceased was the widow of the late Rev. John D. Kemp, one of the ablest and most widely known ministers of the Wilmington Conference. With her husband she had served some of the most prominent charges in the conference, and therefore had a large circle of friends all over the Maryland-Delaware peninsula, who mourn her sudden demise and sympathize with her afflicted family. Mrs. Kemp was a grand Christian woman. She was devoted to the church of her choice, and was always in her place at every service when not prevented by illness. Since the death of her husband she and her daughter, Miss Maude, have lived devotedly and happily together, while only a narrow gateway separated them from her other daughter, Mrs. Thomas S. Bordley and her family. But that gateway is closed to mother now, and there is another gateway through which the spirit of a good woman has gone to a beautiful reward. But let both gateways stand open now, so that mother's spirit may come and go just as she did while here, and the pathway from earth to heaven will not be half so thorny because mother's feet will have pressed down all the thorns. The deceased leaves two daughters, Miss Maude and Mrs. Thomas S. Bordley. Funeral services were held from her late residence on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment private in the family lot in Chester Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. M. A. Toulson, Wm. B. Copper, Dr. E. J. Clarke, J. B. McIntire, Harry F. Jefferson and John C. Davis. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen, of Still Pond, had charge of the funeral for undertaker Wm. T. Hicks, who was ill at his home.

T. C. MASLIN.

Mr. T. C. Maslin died at his home near Rock Hall Thursday morning at 2.30 after a lingering illness of 5 years, aged 73 years. Funeral services will be held at his late residence this Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. A. P. Duby officiating. Pall-bearers were: Charles L. and Marion T. Miller, William and Leonard Leary, John and Walter Hadaway. He is survived by a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Sparers and Miss Martha Maslin. Casey Bros. undertakers.
