THIEVING ON AVENUE.

Plucky Resident Catches The Robber in a Trap.

There was considerable thieving on Washington avenue last week, and quite a number of the residents lost articles of value. Miss Jane Blackiston lost a gold watch and gold cross, entrance being made by cutting the wire in a screen door, and lifting the lock. Mrs. Garrett Foxwell lost some "ice" money which she had on the kitchen table and entrance was gained to the home in the same manner as at Miss Blackiston's. Mrs. Charles S. Smith had two valuable gold rings taken from a shelf in her kitchen, while four fine hand-made handkerchiefs belonging to Miss Marghuerite Willis, a guest, were taken from the kitchen at Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell's home where the ironing had been done, and Mrs. S. E. Ford suffered the second or third raid on her hen house. The residents of the avenue have had their suspicions and on Tuesday morning one of the ladies set a trap for the robber and she landed her man. This resident, who is a courageous woman, placed an empty pocketbook on the table, and hid in the closet with a pistol in her hand. A white boy, who peddles truck around town, and who lives in Queen Annes, had been suspicioned, and sure enough he was the man. He was in the habit of coming to town every Tuesday and Friday. He went to the lady's home on last Tuesday morning, went in the room, saw the pocketbook lying on the table, picked it up and started out. Just as he did so the lady rushed out of the closet, covered the boy with her pistol, and demanded the return of her pocketbook and her watch, which she saw he was wearing. At first the boy protested his innocence. He finally gave up the articles, and with her pistol in her hand the capturer marched the boy out of her yard to the wagon in which his father was seated. The lady then told the father what the boy had been doing, and upon the promise that the articles should be returned to all the residents who had lost their valuables, and that the boy would never return to Chestertown, the lady refused to have him arrested. The authorities afterwards ordered the boy's arrest, and he was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court. Moral—Don't attempt any robberies on the avenue. You will be caught certain. This is the second arrest that has been made on the avenue in two weeks.

FAIR NOTES.

The entries for the races at Radcliffe Park during the fair, close on Tuesday, August 19th. All classes are filling finely, and some of the fastest horses in the East will be entered. A special boat has been chartered to bring more than 100 horses from Easton on Saturday, August 25.

A grand stand to seat 1200 people has been completed during the week. [illegible] and many [illegible] are making for the fair. The extra stables have also been erected and there is now stable room at the track for 100 horses.

The track is being put in first-class shape, and if the weather is favorable, there will be record time made. The track is regarded as one of the fastest and best half-mile tracks in the country.

The fair dates are August 26, 27, 28 and 29. It has been most extensively advertised throughout the peninsula by that master bill-poster, Mr. John S. Vandegrift, and every place in the town will be taxed to its utmost to accommodate the crowds that will attend the fair. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run a special train to Chestertown on Wednesday, one of the big days.

Tuesday will be children's day. The Baby Show, in charge of Mrs. Evelyn Harris, will be held that day, and it is expected to be a most enjoyable feature of the big fair. The show will be held in a large tent which the association will provide, and during the four days this tent will be reserved as a reception tent for the ladies.

There will be an extensive exhibit of farm products and machinery and farm implements in large tents to be provided for the purpose.

Special privileges have been sold for refreshments, light lunches and peanuts, lemonade, chewing gum and cigars. Mr. John S. Vandegrift has the privilege for selling sandwiches and sausage.

The fair management, Mr. James G. Beck, president, and Mr. Clifton L. Jarrell, secretary, are doing everything possible for the success of the affair. The merchants and business interests of the town generally should co-operate with the management in making the fair a success.

We urge our property holders and town authorities to give the town a good "clean up" for the fair, and as far as possible let the numerous visitors during the week see that we really and truly have the prettiest town in the State.

Heavy Storms.

Four distinct thunder storms passed over this section on Sunday afternoon and evening, letting loose a deluge of rain and doing considerable damage. A barn on the Skirven farm tenanted by Mr. Wm. Lee was blown down, destroying a number of implements and damaging some wheat that were stored in the barn. A fine six-year-old mare belonging to Mr. James Newnam in Queen Annes, was killed by lightning, and a big shade tree in Tolchester park was struck. The steamer Annapolis, of the Tolchester line, broke her steering gear during the storm, and was held at Tolchester during repairs. The Emma Giles was pressed into commission to take the big crowds to Baltimore. The wagon shed on Mr. William M. Clendaniel's Greenwood farm was struck by lightning and slightly damaged. Insured with Jos. N. Wheatley & Co. There was a regular excursion of county people, and numerous autos were busy taking the people to the beach. Most of them were caught in the storm on the road. There was hail in several sections of the county, but no damage is reported. The clouds brought relief from the hottest day of the year.

Scholarship Awarded.—The Orphans' Court has awarded by competitive examination the vacant scholarship from this county in Washington College to Mr. J. Bayard Parsons, of Rock Hall, who made the highest average. Eight applicants took the examination.
