U. of Md. Subterfuges

Dr. H. C. (Curly) Byrd, president of the University of Maryland, has said that he has instructed heads of departments at the college not to deny admission to any student on the grounds of color.

Dr. Byrd intimated that there are other considerations besides grades taken into account when a student applies at the University of Maryland. He said that he could not say more because of time which he has not at his disposal.

For example, if the department heads are permitted to use their own discretion in such cases, they might very well say:

"This applicant does not dress according to our standards. His appearance does not recommend him as a good risk for our campus. Therefore, for all of these reasons, but not on the ground of color, we will have to exclude him."

Several years ago, W. Hillegeist, who was registrar at the University of Maryland, boasted publicly and boldly that the method he used this method of excluding them.

Mr. Hillegeist admitted that the average Jewish applicant out of the School because of quotas so that they could not be kept out on the ground of color.

The admission officer said that he received applications from students whose names were Jewish but who were not necessarily Jewish. They were also called in for personal interviews. He said that he could tell by the applicant's face and by the way he parts his hair if he did not practice discrimination in arriving at his decisions.

Dr. Thurgood Marshall, counsel for the NAACP, and Dr. Phillips Publ the State Board of Education have specialized in the matter of admission of Negroes to colleges in Maryland and have won victories in several cases. Dr. Publ is the only Negro member of the State Board of Education and is a leader in the fight for equal opportunity for all citizens of the state.

The time has long passed when the University of Maryland could be a place where only white students could come for an education. The state of Maryland has been paying for the education of students from other states who come here because their colleges do not admit students of color.

Dr. Publ has pointed out that the state of Maryland owes a debt to its citizens who are students at Lincoln University in Pennsylvania because the University of Maryland has refused to admit them because of their color.

The time is long overdue when the University of Maryland should be made to pay its own way in the matter of the education of students who are citizens of the state of Maryland and who are students at other institutions because they have been refused admission to the University of Maryland because of their color.

The time is long overdue when the University of Maryland should be made to admit students on an equal basis with students from other states who are attending other institutions because they have been refused admission to the University of Maryland because of their color.

A young lady appealed to this reporter to help her find a good boarding or rooming house for her two children.

It seems that the brother, a railroad worker, who lived with her in Cleveland, came to Baltimore City on Sept. 28 to visit a friend who lives in the 900 block of N. Wolfe St.

He left the cousin's home at about 10 o'clock that night and apparently vanished into thin air.

Inquiries at the Baltimore City and County jails and hospitals failed to locate the missing man.

It was reported that the incident was reported to the police department of Baltimore City and County and to the Baltimore City Hospitals.

Relatives in Cleveland have been informed and are now in Baltimore to make an investigation.

Anyone who knows the whereabouts of this man should notify the police department or the Afro-American Newspaper.
