OUR DEATH RECORD.

MR. BEMJAMIN F. FLEMING.

Mr. Benjamin F. Fleming, one of our town's most prominent citizens and business men, dropped dead while fishing on Chester bride on Wednesday afternoon. He was in his 63rd year. Mr. Fleming had not been in good health for sometime, but on Wednesday morning he remarked to his family and to those whom he met on the streets that he was feeling better than he had been for sometime. He rode across the bridge with Mr. Charles Baxter in the morning and said he was feeling much better, and was at the postoffice for his mail between 12 and 1 o'clock. He went out on the bridge to fish about 3 o'clock and was in the act of landing a fish, when he suddenly fell to the floor and was dead before anyone could reach him. Mr. Charles L. Wheat, the brigdekeeper, and Mr. L. Bates Russell, who happened to be passing over the bridge, rushed to the stricken man's side, but death was instantaneous. Kind friends broke the sad intelligence to his family, and he was bourne to his home not far distant by those who had hurried to his assistance. The news of Mr. Fleming's death was a shock to the entire community. Many of his friends knew of his impaired health, but they were not prepared for the sudden shock. The deceased was born in Harrington, Del. When a young man he came to Chestertown and made his home with Mrs. S. A. Dodd. He was superintendent of the railroad when it was owned by the late Fred Gerker, and also owned a number of sailing vessels. Of late years, owing to the condition of his health, he employed his time in out door work, selling farm implements and fertilizer. Mr. Fleming probably came in contact with more men on this peninsula than any man in Chestertown, and he was popular with every one because of his jovial disposition. He was a most generous hearted man, and was a friend to the poor and needy. He was identified with the Chestertown M. E. Church, and contributed to its support. He was a devoted husband, father and friend, and his many friends throughout the peninsula learned of his death with feelings of much regret. He leaves a widow, who before marriage was Miss Mollie Plummer, daughter of the late James Plummer, and one daughter, Miss Mary Fleming. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters—Messrs. Harry Fleming, of Aberdeen; James Fleming, of Seattle, Washington State; Zadoc Fleming, of Harrington, Del.; Miss Lizzie Fleming, of Aberdeen, and Mrs. Frances Johnson, of Denton. Funeral services will be held from his late residence on Front street this (Saturday) morning at 11.30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett, of the M. E. Church. Interment will be made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: Messrs. Merrick Clements and J. Frank Connelly, of the firm of Graham & Clements, with which the deceased was connected; Fred G. Usilton, Lewin W. Wickes, Thomas W. Perkins and Charles Baxter. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

MRS. JULIA A. COLEMAN.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia A. Coleman, widow of the late John H. Coleman, who died Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grace Miles, occurred Sunday morning. Mrs. Coleman, who has resided in the western end of this city for a number of years, come to this city from Rock Hall, Md. She was a consistent member of South Chester M. E. Church, and until she was confined to her home she was always found at the church services. The funeral services were in charge of the Rev. A. M. Witwer, former pastor of the South Chester M. E. Church now of the Siloam M. E. Church, of Philadelphia, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. George Sheetz. The deceased is survived by three sons, John and William Coleman, of Pittsburgh, Pa., Maurice Coleman, of Chester, also five daughters, Mrs. John McBuley, of Springfield, Ohio; Mrs. Joseph Judefind, of Rock Hall, Md.; Miss Dollie Coleman; of Wilmington, Del., Mrs. Grace Miles and Mrs. Joseph Bartow, of this city.

The pall bearers were: Dr. William H. Lehman, William Warner, A. A. Abram, Robert Vouchelle, Richard Wright and Edward Minshall.—Chester (Pa.) Times.

MRS. S. E. PARDEE.

The remains of Mrs. S. E. Pardee, of Well Ham, Anne Arundel county, were brought to Sudlersville Monday afternoon and funeral services were held Tuesday morning from the M. E. Church South. She was one of our former citizens and was noted for her kind, loving and generous nature. Her many friends there are familiar with her deeds of charity and helpfulness and her memory will be cherished by those who knew her as a friend.

The funeral services of Mr. John Rice were held at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jerry Miller, in Flatlands on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Father Urner. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Jesse H. Usilton, Albert Lewis, Harry C. Willis, C. Romie Skirven, Lewin U. Skirven and Wm. G. Smyth. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

ABRAM S. MILES.

Mr. Abram S. Miles, a prominent resident of Baltimore, and a member of the Tolchester Steamboat Company, died at his home, 1410 East Chase street, on Monday morning. Funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon with interment in Greenmount cemetery.

Candidates File Certificates.

The certificates of all candidates on the Anti-Organization and Organization Democratic tickets were filed with the Board of Supervisors of Election on Monday. The Urie Republicans also filed certificates for a full ticket, but we understand that several whose names were filed refused to serve. An opposition ticket for State Central Committee consisting of Col. Wm. J. Vannort, Capt. Daniel Hill, and Walter Bantam, filed certificates in opposition to the Urie candidates, but we understand that they have concluded to withdraw and leave a clear field for Mr. Urie in the primaries. The Progressives filed certificates for candidates for the State Central Committee and delegates to the State Convention, and will put up a full ticket in the election. The names of the candidates for State Central Committee are: Cornelius G. Hadaway, Sidney P. Townshend and Samuel C. Skinner. For delegates to the State Convention are: John G. Wettcott, Daniel W. Ingersol) and Wm. Walter Chapman. Certificates for Senator Blair Lee, Democrat, and Thomas Parran, Republican, candidates for the short term in the United States Senate were filed as were those for Emerson R. Harrington for Comptroller, and Caleb Magruder, for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. The names of all candidates who have no opposition will not appear on the ticket in the primaries.

Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., trustee, has sold at private sale the Hepburn farm in the Second District now tenated by Mr. W. T. Mr. Rasin, to Mr. Frank Meeks. The farm contains 185 acres, and the price is private.
