THE HUB,

Millington, Md.

BEWARE, MR. TAX-PAYER.

Wm. H. Anderson, superintendent of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League, is fighting Senator Blair Lee, a Democrat, and is endorsing his opponent, Mr. Thomas Parran, Republican, for the short term senatorship. Mr. Anderson is also fighting Mr. James G. Harris, Democrat, and is said to have given his endorsement to Mr. Howard Turner, a Republican. Mr. Anderson is fighting Senator Lee and Mr. Harris, not because they are not in sympathy with the local option bill, whose serious defects Mr. Anderson himself has admitted and promised to rectify in the next session of the Legislature, but he is fighting Senator Lee and Mr. Harris, as well as numerous Democrats all over the State, because, in our solemn judgment Mr. Anderson is seeking to turn the State of Maryland over to the Republicans. Why should any man be driven to support a local option bill whose serious defects its author has admitted and which he has promised to correct?
