BOY's Club Entertains at Formal Dinner on Birthday

with Lula Jones Garrett

Joseph's Hospital, here. Mrs. Diggs underwent an operation on Monday at the hospital. The John Lanes (Genesta Gilbert) welcomed an eight and a half pound baby girl at Provident Hospital, this week.

New York's Ted Vidals were about the homestead the past week end. Were hosted by the Ranny Waterses on Wednesday. Cleonia Williams, of the same town, is hereabouts for a few days. The Dan Burleys came down from Manhattan for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. Julius White, and the D. Arnett Frisbys have been hosting Alma Harriee of Philadelphia. Muriel Johnson, superintendent of the Maryland Training School for Girls, was in New York last week attending a two-day session of the National Conference of Superintendents of Correctional Institutions.

The Lords and Ladies Club gave a pre-George Washington Birthday party at the Ascoe Club, Monday. Guests danced and played cards.

Guesting with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murphy Jr., this week while her husband confers in Washington, is Mrs. Carlisle S. Stewart ,wife of a Detroit clergyman.

MISS REGGINS WED

Miss Ethel Riggins became the bride of Edward Boldep of New York City on Monday.

A reception given by the bride's mother, Mrs. Bessie Reid and sister, Miss Mattie Reid, was held at the home of the bride following the ceremony.

Among the guests were the best man and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Jackson of New York; Mrs. James Hawks and Mrs. Charles Ware of Washington.

Other guests included.

Mesdames Alberta Sanders, Julia Towsend, Blanche Barnes, Georgia Mae Crews, Annie Mae Gary, Grace Jackson, Bernice Keeling, Misses Rose Lane, Eleanor Washington; Mr. and Mrs. John Dowell, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis.

Mrs. and Mrs. Kater Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Moneque; and Rufus Carter, Charles H. Smith, Lonnie Richardson, James F. Watson, William Carter and Arthur Spruill.

The bride wore rose velvet with navy blue accessories, set off with a corsage of gardenias. The bride's sister and maid of honor was attired in a soft blue crepe bustle style dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Bolden Sr. of Birmingham, Alabama. The newlyweds will make their home in New York.

It was the regular meeting of the Morgan Park Bridgettes when Mesdames Lelia Wright, Anne Smith, Risa Bright, Gaynelle Spaulding, Edna Johnson, Catherine Murphy and Ruth Burgess were guests of Mrs. Carl Murphy last week. But when a dozen of her old friends jaunted over on Tuesday to spend practically half the day with her, it was a birthday surprise arranged by her husband, Dr. Murphy.

And to keep up the entertainment motif on the home hearth the Firesiders gave a party for their husbands. Hostesses were Ada Hackett, Evelyn West, Irma Dancy, Frances DeMann, in whose club cellar the affair was held; Ida Smith, Inez Johnson, Milbourne Brown, Ethel Grant, Iris Carpenter and Dorothy Robinson.

FULTON HEIGHTS NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB—met Monday, Feb. 21 at Brown Memorial Church. The principal speakers were Theodore Hayes, attorney, Dr. Thomas Pitts, president of the Western area Protective League and Mr. Macadore, vice president of the League.

The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the Neighborhood Club with the principles of the Western Area Protective League. The meeting was well attended due to the effects of Mrs. Marjorie Waters, chairman, membership committee.

Hospitalized

Mrs. Sarah F. Diggs, outstanding civic worker of Baltimore, and a member of the staff of Morgan State College, is in St. Joseph's Hospital, where she underwent an operation on Monday. Her condition is satisfactory, authorities said today, (Friday).

Sixth Ward Honors Civic Worker

Mrs. Lovey Husketh, East Baltimore music teacher and civic worker, who joined the Co-operative Women's Civic League at its first luncheon, is shown being honored by the Sixth Ward of the League with a life membership. On Saturday the league will hold its thirty-fourth annual luncheon, all of which Mrs. Husketh has participated in. She has taught music in Baltimore for more than a half century, and served as organist at several churches, including Enon and Madison Street Presbyterian. She was director of the Women's Choir of Memorial Baptist Church for 15 years. Left to right in the picture are Mrs. Delaphine Dorsey, chairman of the Sixth Ward; Mrs. Husketh, and Mrs. Gladys Shepperd, chairman of the league's Housing Fund Committee, which received the $100 gift from the Ward.
