Your AFRO Reveals

This is the third in a series of pictures and stories about smart, energetic youngsters who are starting on a successful career selling the AFRO each week.

MEET — JOHN MASSEY

John is 12-years-old, lives at 803 N. Eden St. and attends School No. 102.

John is a little hustler when it comes to selling AFROs. He has no hobbies but likes all kinds of games and sports. His church is Grace Memorial. Mrs. Martha Carter, John's mother, thinks as John does, that selling AFROs gives valuable experience to a boy and he is earning money at the same time.

Guardsmen Ball Brilliant Affair

WASHINGTON

Decollette gowns, bouffant skirts, bristling tails and starched dickies held sway last Friday, when 900 persons joined the District of Columbia Guardsmen at their formal ball in the Lincoln Colonnade.

For their annual formal, the Guardsmen, grown famous for sprightly fun-fests, had special visitors from the three other chapters including Norfolk, Baltimore and Philadelphia, and scores of non-chapters guests from points along the Eastern Seaboard.

From the Norfolk group came Mr. and Mrs. Wister Riddick, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ashe and Dr. and Mrs. L. Carter; from Philadelphia L. Day, Jack Rowane and R. Gaffney; from Baltimore came Clifton Murray, Robert Lewis and Steve Moore.

Localites Predominate

The prepondance of the guests, however, were local socialites and they were a gay, a pretty and vivacious lot.

Among them were:

Miss Margaret Stewart in pink, Mrs. Grace Bailey, Mrs. Renetta Washington in red net, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Genus, she in a decollette black; the James Grays, Lela in black with stole;

Mrs. Vi Curtis Hinton in a stunning white lace; Mrs. Alcibia Wronley, last week crowned Miss Mardi Gras by Young Women's League in a stunning white gown; Mrs. Ada Deans Chapman in brocade; Mrs. Dorothea B. Stewart of the Baker's Dozen in black taffeta;

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Miss Minnie Paynter, Mrs. Edith Devoe, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Parson, and Miss Mildred Saunders.

Club's Officers Listed

Officers of the Guardsmen are William Thompson, president; Joel R. Clarke, vice-president; Elmer Dorrington, treasurer, and Tim Irving, secrgary.

Zetas Entertain Grand Basileus

Public School Secretaries Hear Talk on Personality

William V. Lockwood, adult counselor of the Department of Education, spoke on "Personality" last week when he appeared before the meeting of the Public School Secretaries at the YWCA.

During the meeting, Miss Willie Mae Scott and Mrs. Fannie Poulson were elected representatives of the group to the conference of the National Association of School Secretaries to be held March 23 through 27 in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Church Elected

Mrs. Louise M. Church was elected president and Frank Jones Jr., vice president of the local group.

Other officers are, Mrs. Poulson, recording secretary; Mrs. Marjorie Jones, financial secretary; Miss Thelma Murray, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Catherine Roberts, treasurer; Miss Wilhelmina Rawlings, chaplain; and Mrs. Coretha Boyd, journalist.

Others present at the meeting were Mesdames and Misses Ethel Day, Bessie Carroll, Marguerite Dixon, Rosanna Johnson, Florence Westfield, Marian Ransom, Martha Howell, Althea Branch; Nicey Jarmon, and Doris Carter.

Personnel at Ft. Meade Hear Girls' Choir Sing

Both soldiers and civilians at Camp George E. Meade heard a musical program on Sunday morning by the Girls' Choir of East Baltimore, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret D. Armstrong.

The group sang secular numbers and spirituals arranged by their founder and original director, Edward W. Stancil who is now serving in the armed forces. Clarence L. Carter, manager, introduced the group.

Presiding at the service was Robert Poindexter 1.t. G. G. Johnson is chaplain.

VAGABOND—The savings club celebrated its first anniversary, Sunday at the home of the president, Mrs. Pauline Jones of 619 Schroeder Street.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cockrell, Mrs. Helen Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. James Ruffin, David Spriggs, William Watkins, Thomas Stokes.

The club will have a supper party on the 19th at 1134 N. Stockton Street.

GUIDING LIGHT—met with Mrs. Bertha Holley of 1203 Edmondson Avenue, this week. Plans for a supper party on the 20th at 1210 N. Stricker Street have been completed. The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. Lock.
