The Chautauqua.

This has been Chautauqua week in Chestertown and large crowds have been present at each entertainment. The local committee had disposed of hundreds of season tickets by Monday afternoon, and there have been calls for more all the week. The Chautauqua has been a success financially, socially and in every other respect, and Rev. Dr. Russell Perry, the platform manager, has proven himself to be the right man at the helm. We are unable to specialize upon each entertainment. They were all of the highest order, and the program this year far surpassed the one of last year. We have had such distinguished speakers as Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan, Frank Dixon, United States Senator Gore, Rev. Cadman and others, as well as some of the finest musical companies, magicians, scientists and impersonators in the country, and Miss Sheppard, the charming Junior Chautauqua superintendent, has won the hearts of children and grownups as well by the force and charm of her personality. There remain to-day's and to-morrow's features. There will be a Union Service of all the churches in the big tent to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock, and Rev. Dr. Cadman will deliver one of his great sermons. At 7.30 P. M. Rev. Dr. Perry will preach, and you will again hear a great sermon. We desire again to congratulate the managment of the Chautauqua, especially those young college men, who form the Chautauqua crew. They have been courteous and very considerate of the comfort and convenience of the audience, and their efforts have added much to the pleasure of each entertainment. We look longingly for the return of Chautauqua next year.
