STILL A CARTLOAD OF PEBBLES.

Here is a good one which we found on our files of July 2, 1910. It is headed

TOO GOOD TO KEEP,
July 2, 1910

A gentleman from the first district was in the office this week, and he said the position of the Kent News on the tax rate reminded him of the story of Pat and the preacher. Pat was going away from home to engage in work and the preacher said: "Now, Pat, here is a bag. Every time you do anything bad, I want you to put a pebble in the bag, and when your time is out bring the bag back and we'll see how you got along." In due time Pat came back and the bag was full of pebbles. The preacher said: "Why, Pat what is the trouble? you have been bad all the time you have been gone, haven't you?" Pat said, "Faith, and your honor, that is not all the pebbles—a whole cart load is on the way and will be here soon." This gentleman said: "The Organization has conducted bad business all these years, but now that the day of reckoning has come, they have dumped a whole cart load of bad debts on the county for the present board of commissioners to pay, and the Kent News by showing the amount of money wasted on the roads has only brought home the bag full of pebbles. The cart is coming along each week."
