FRANK H. MILLER, Chestertown, Md.

Kennedyville Items.

The dinner and supper served by the Ladies' Aid Society on Monday last was quite a success, they having realized a net profit of nearly $60 which will be used by them in their regular work of caring for the parsonage and grounds surrounding the same.

The primary election, while causing a great deal of interest passed off quietly in this precinct.

Quite a number of our people attended the Chautauqua in Chestertown last week and enjoyed it very much.

Rev. Frank S. Cain and Mr. W. Thos. Jones spent a part of last week ... timore.

We were very glad to see our genial friend, Mr. W. M. Clendaniel, able to to be out on Monday last.

Rev. Quincy L. Morrow, wife and son, are visiting among their friends at this time, and Mr. Morrow occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday evening last when he preached a helpfuul sermon.

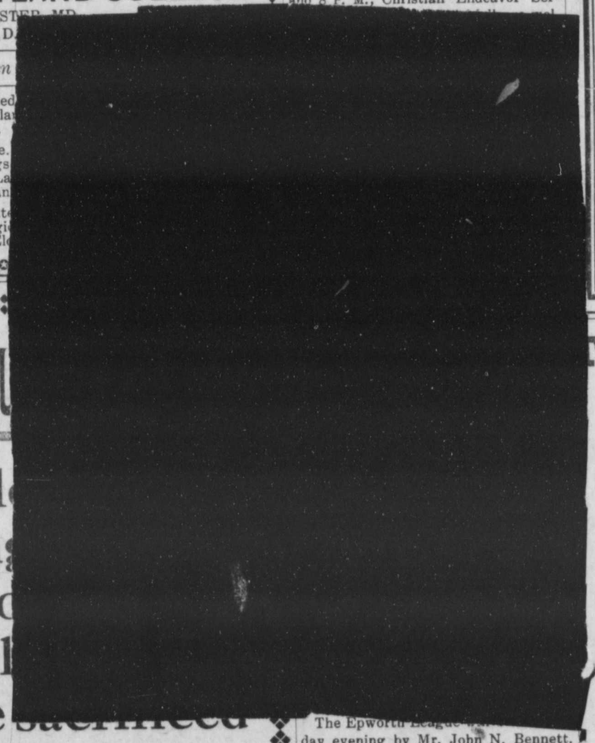

Four new telephones have recently been put into homes, in and near this village.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank S. Cain are entertaining the following guests at the Methodist Protestant parsonage this week: Mrs. Hester A. Bennett, mother of Mrs. Cain, from near Milford, Del.. Mrs. Mollie D. Hart, cousin of Mrs. Cain, from Townsend, Del., Miss Elva Cain, niece of Rev. Mr. Cain, from Knoxville, Tennessee, and Miss Myrtlie Ford, of Winchester, Md., a former parishoner of Mr. Cain.

Mr. Mason Baxter, Mr. Harry Jones, Miss Susie Sparks, of Sudlerville, Md., and Miss Mary Dunn, of Camden, Del., were callers at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Cain, on Sunday last.

We are glad to report that all of our sick ones are getting along nicely, and we hope to soon see them out again.

The usual services are announced for Sunday next, Sept. 14th, in the Methodist Protestant Church. Sunday school at 9.30 A. M, preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 8 P. M., Christian Endeavor Ser-

The Epworth ... day evening by Mr. John N. Bennett. Topic, "School and College Night". Rev. F. X. Moore is home now and we should attend these services.

Steamer Penn Sunk.—A fire which caused the sinking of the Steamer Penn of the Ericsson line occurred Saturday morning while the steamer was laying at her Pier in Philadelphia. The fire was caused by a defect in the galley stove, and did little damage. The vessel was about to make her regular day trip from Philadelphia to Baltimore, and 500 passangers were left on the wharf. On account of the accident the day trip schedule between the cities has been abandoned.
