CHAPTER 402.

AN ACT to propose an amendment to Article 3 of the Constitution of this State by adding a new Section, to be known as 40A; and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for the adoption or rejection.

Section 1. 40A. The General Assembly shall enact no law authorizing private property to be taken for public use without just compensation, to be agreed upon between the parties or awarded by a jury, being first paid or tendered to the party entitled to such compensation, but where such property is situated in Baltimore City and is desired by this State or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, the General Assembly may provide for the appointment of appraisers by a Court of Record to value such property, and that, upon payment of the amount of such valuation to the party entitled to compensation, or into Court and securing the payment of any further sum that may be awarded by a jury, such property may be taken.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said foregoing section, hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution, shall at the next ensuing general election, to be held on Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November, 1913, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof, for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said election the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now provided by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

CHAPTER 515.

AN ACT to amend Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III, Circuit Courts," of the Constitution of this State, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, three-fifths of all the members of the two houses concurring, That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III, Circuit Courts," of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, it shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 21 of said article 4.

Sec. 21. For each of the said circuits (excepting the eighth and third) there shall be a chief judge and two associate judges, to be styled Judges of the Circuit Court to be elected or appointed as herein provided.

And no two of said associate judges for any of the said circuits, except the third circuit shall, at the time of their election or appointment or during the term for which they may have been elected or appointed, reside in the same county. If two or more persons shall be candidates for associate judges in the same county in any of the circuits, except the third circuit, that one only in said county shall be declared elected who has the highest number of votes in the circuit. In case any two candidates for associate judge in any of the circuits, except the third circuit, residing in the same county, shall have an equal number of votes greater than any other candidate for associate judge in the circuit, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for one associate judge; but the persons residing in any other county of the circuit and who has the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The said judges shall hold not less than two terms of the Circuit Court in each of the counties composing their respective circuits, at such times as are now or may hereafter be prescribed to which jurors shall be summoned; and in those counties where only two such terms are held, two other and intermediate terms, to which jurors shall not be summoned; they may alter or fix the times for holding any or all terms, until otherwise prescribed, and shall adopt rules to the end that all business not requiring the interposition of the jury shall be, as far as practicable, disposed of at said intermediate terms.

One judge in each of the above circuits, including the third circuit, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business; and the said judges, or any of them, may hold special terms of their Courts, whenever in their discretion, the business of the several counties renders such terms necessary.

The additional associate judge for the third circuit herein provided for, shall be elected by the qualified voters of Baltimore and Harford Counties, at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment, and the judge so elected shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, hold his office for the same term of years, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the third circuit.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the aforegoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State shall be, at the next general election for members of the General Assembly to be held in this State, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said general election, the vote on the said proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against Constitutional Amendment," as now prescribed by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, (three-fifths of all the members of each of the two houses concurring) That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 3 of Article 1, title "Elective Franchise," of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, said section shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 3 of said Article 1 of the Constitution of Maryland.

Sec. 3. If any person shall give, or offer to give, directly or indirectly, any bribe, present or reward, or any promise or any security, for the payment or delivery of money, or any other thing, to induce any voter to refrain from casting his vote, or to prevent him in any way from voting, or to procure a vote for any candidate or person proposed, or voted for as an elector of President and Vice President of the United States, or Representative in Congress or for any office of profit or trust, created by the Constitution or Laws of this State, or by the Ordinances, or authority of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, the person receiving the same, and any person who gives or causes to be given, an illegal vote, knowing it to be such, at any election to be hereafter held in this State, shall, on conviction in a Court of Law, in addition to the penalties now or hereafter to be imposed by law, be forever disqualified to hold any office of profit or trust, or to vote at any election thereafter.

But the General Assembly may in its discretion remove the above penalty and all other penalties upon the vote seller so as to place the penalties for the purchase of votes on the vote buyer alone.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said foregoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution shall at the next election for members of the General Assembly of this state to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November, nineteen hundred and thirteen (1913), be submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State; and at the said election the said proposed amendment shall be printed upon the official ballot and the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot shall be printed the words, "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now provided by law, with an appropriate box to vote for and against the same as the voter shall select. Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all members of each of the two houses concurring), That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 9 of Article 5, title "Attorney General and State's Attorney" of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal qualified voters thereof, as herein provided, said section shall supersede and stand in the place and instead of Section 9 of said Article 5 of the Constitution of Maryland.

LURE OF THE CIRCUS.

Hold of the Music and Sawdust Odor Upon Old Performers.

Sometimes I think there must be two distinct varieties of humanity, said an old circus man, one of which we might call the rovers and the other the stay at homes. With my own taste for roving it was hard for me to understand that ninety-nine persons in every hundred are content to stay in one place most of their lives and even are unhappy if taken out of it, but the vast majority. The rover, who is one man or woman in a hundred, likes to wander and is unhappy if confined to one place. Probably if it were not for him there would be no circus. Love of the road has a strong hold on all the circus people, from performers to canvasmen and drivers. "When you hear the band play you join out!" is the way they put it themselves, and once I had a striking illustration of this.

I was checking window paper in a small town and came to a fine plate glass front. It was the best tailoring establishment there and ordinarily would have been passed by the lithographer as unobtainable, but it had a single sheet of our paper and I went in to take up the order. It developed that the tailor's brother was a rover and had trouped with circuses as a bandsman—a windjammer, in the vernacular. His influence had put that lithograph there, and he chatted with me.

"You won't catch me round here tomorrow, Mike, while that show is in town!" he said. "If I saw as much as a side wall half a mile off I'd be joining out again! No, sir! I'm going up into the country tonight. My brother pays me good wages here, and there's nothing in trouping."

A week later I dropped back to the show. It was 10 in the morning, and the parade was just leaving the lot. Somebody shouted, "Hey there, Mike!" from the big band wagon, and on going nearer I saw the tailor's brother, seated among the other windjammers, with a red and gold coat, a plumed hat and his cornet.

"I thought you were going up into the country."

"Forget it!" he replied. "I didn't go." He had heard the band play.

Circus people are of all sorts—old and young, Americans and foreign born, well paid performers and bosses and ne'er do well hostlers, canvasmen and razorbacks. From time to time they will turn and denounce their calling, just like other people. In fact, I never knew a man in any line who would not occasionally scold about his occupation and regret that his talent had been frittered away in such an unpromising field when he might have done so much better in something else, but that is no indication that he doesn't like his job, and circus people like theirs. They love the smell of sawdust, horses and animals, the music of the big band, the peculiar hollow rattle of circus wagons, the daily jumps and the little knot of curious stay at homes who seem always to be round to watch whatever a circus man does. They are born rovers.—Saturday Evening Post.

The Blow a Train Can Strike.

The force of the blow struck by a modern train going at high speed is greater than that of the shot from a modern gun. At least such is the statement of a scientist who has been looking into this question. He estimates that a modern passenger train will weigh about 400 tons and that it moves at a velocity of seventy to seventy-five miles an hour, or about 100 feet a second. A mass of 400 tons propelled at this velocity will strike a blow twice as great as that delivered by a 2,000 pound shot fired from a 100 ton cannon. This, he states, accounts for the tremendous destruction caused by collisions.—New York Press.
