IN MEMORIAM

ADDISON—In loving memory of our dear father, John Henry, who departed this life May 2, 1936.
Gone, dear father, gone forever,
Hope we miss your smiling face,
Death has left our home deserted,
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still.
But death has left a lonesome void
Which time can never fill.
DEVOTED CHILDREN

WILKINS—In loving memory of my dear friend, KERMIT who departed this life May 6, 1948.
My lips cannot tell
how I miss him,
My heart cannot tell
what to say.
God alone knows
how I miss him
In a home that is lonesome today.
Devoted friend,
JAMES BEALE

SCOTT—In loving memories of our dear husband and father, ISIAH, who passed away two years ago, May 5, 1947.
VERSE.
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days.
We do not forget you nor do we intend.
Within of you often and will to the end.
But some sweet day we'll meet again,
Beyond the toil and strife and clasp each others hand once more.
In heaven that happy life.
Devoted and loving wife and daughter, Mrs Bessie F. Scott,
Mrs. Martha Scott Saunders
Mrs. Bertha Scott Brown.

TRUST IN GOD
The Lord of all, my Shepherd is,
And want I shall not know,
By pastures green He bids me lie
Inspires me where to go.

My soul He doth restore, and keep
As in His Name He leads,
If through the valley I must go,
E'en Death respects His deeds,

I will not fear His promise stands
To be with me always;
His Rod and Staff, they Comfort me,
Through all my Nights and Days.

The Table He prepared for me,
No man can set aside;
My Head with Oil He doth Anoint,
My cup of Joy abides.

Goodness and Mercy shall be mine,
As long as God so Wills;
Then I'll go Home to be with Him,
In His Eternal Hills.

JOE N. THOMPSON,
Custodian of Enon Baptist Church.

Women, Here's 2-way Help You Really Should Know About

What to do for woman's oldest problem, functional monthly pain? Many a girl and woman has found the ANSWER in CARDUI'S 2-way help. You see, CARDUI may make things lots easier for you in either or two ways: (1) started 3 days before "your time" and taken as directed on the label, it should help relieve functional periodic pain; (2) taken throughout the month like a tonic, it should improve your appetite and digestion, and thus help build up resistance for the trying days to come. CARDUI is scientifically prepared and scientifically tested. If you suffer "at those certain times", get CARDUI today.

Annual Banquet Held at Coppin

The Student Senate of Coppin Teachers College held its second annual Parent-Student Banquet on Thursday at Enon Baptist Church, with Calvin Carrington, former president of the body, as guest speaker.

Miss Marjorie Epps summarized the student participation in the school events of the year, as the cultural, educational and athletic organizations of the school were honored at the affair.

Miss Josephine Lansey, chairman of the athletic committee, awarded varsity letters to members of teams who had participated in 50 per cent of the games.

Letter Winners Named

They were:

Arnette Brown, William Jessup, James Campbor, Melvin Watts and Warren Shelton.

Frances Cheeks, Ella Jones, Yolanda Jones, Josephine Harris, Louise Plonk, Audrey Briscoe, Lillie Gilliard, Mandy Bond, Delores Bundy and Beatrice Johnson.

Organizations honored by special toasts were the Dramatic Club, Women's Chorus, Student Senate and committees, Future Teachers of America, Coppin Intercultural Club and the Women's League.

Other individual honorees were:

Miss Talmadge Bunn, "Miss Coppin of 1949." Miss Shirley Howard and Howard Spencer, basketball coaches; Miss Alice Taylor, Student Senate advisor; J. Stanbury, custodian; Dr. Connor, president; Mr. Roeketts and Miss Elsie Humphrey, president of the Student Senate.

Writing, fashion designing and teaching in that order, are the prime interests of Miss Talmadge Bunn, who was recently elected "Miss Coppin Teachers College of 1949."

A personable young lady, with a practical point of view, she plans to make a teaching career a sure occupational backlog before venturing out in other fields of interest.

She has sampled all three of the fields in which her prime interests lie.

While a seventh-grade pupil she got the thrill of her adolescent years when two of her poems were published in an anthology, "Very Gerry." Miss Bunn said, in describing her early literary effort.

At Dunbar High School she composed both the words and music of her class song. That was the last time she dabbled in music, but two years later she walked off with the third prize for an original play entered in a nation-wide contest.

Despite the duties of the senior year in college, Miss Bunn found time to polish off her first novel preparatory to mailing it hopefully this week to a publisher.

Teamed with Miss Frances Wright last summer, she created the dresses which her friend designed. Next she wants to try her skill at both designing and creating ladies' fashions.

Enjoyed Practice Teaching

Miss Bunn enjoyed her nine weeks of practice teaching and has a yen to teach any grade from the third to the sixth.

At Coppin she penned the alma mater song in her freshman year, took the leading role in the annual play and has twice served as assistant director. She is president of her Women's League and the Women's Chorus and is a member of the Student Senate.

In an elaborate ceremony befitting the coveted title which she earned at Coppin, she will be crowned at 5 p.m. on next Friday on the lawn of the N. Mount St. institution.

One of Eight Children

Her favorite subjects are English, music and psychology, hobbies, dancing and writing.

She is one of a family of eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Bunn of 1931 W. Lanvale St. Her father is a construction company foreman.

About that unusual first name she bears. It's one her mother picked from a newspaper and planned to give to her next child. "Miss Coppin" to be was automatically the unwitting recipient.

Jurist No Nicodemus, Isaac Told, on 'Wall Writing' Plea

A religious book salesman, charged with having had carnal knowledge of a 14-year-old girl, preached a sermon in Eastern police court, Tuesday, during which he told of seeing "an angel writing on the wall," but Magistrate Frank J. Sebap told the 26-year-old salesman that although he could not see the handwriting on the wall, he could see enough evidence to hold him for grand jury action in $1000 bail.

The salesman, Isaac Ingraham of the 1700 block Orleans St., was accused of placing his hands on a girl who lives in the Holabird Homes project. Policewoman Carolyn Robinson, who investigated the case, quoted the defendant as saying that he was a Seventh Day Adventist.

Testimony at the hearing revealed that the girl was the child of Ingraham's sister and that the alleged acts occurred while Ingraham was visiting during the sister's absence.

In Memory of Mother on MOTHER'S DAY

In loving memory of my dear mother, ETTA, who passed away May 1, 1948.
Her memory is as dear today,
As in the hour she passed away.
DEVOTED DAUGHTER,
VIOLA DELILLYE.
GRANDSON, SON-IN-LAW

MOORE—A tribute to our darling mother, MARY on Mother's Day, who passed away Nov. 28, 1935.
Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
DEVOTED FAMILY.

ADDISON — A tribute to our darling mother, ELEANORA, on Mother's Day.
Years of sacrifice, little of glory,
Loving and giving and smoothing the way.
Life is too short, mother, ever to pay,
Strong in adversity, ready to do,
Gentle, unselfish, a friend ever true,
Our proudest possession, dear mother, was you.

GIBSON — A tribute to FANNIE M. GIBSON, on Mother's Day:
From this world of pain and sorrow,
To the land of peace and rest.
God has taken you, dear loved one,
Where you have found eternal rest.
SON and DAUGHTER-IN-LAW

HUGHES — In memory of a dear devoted mother, MARY ELLA, who passed away four teen years ago.
Green grows the grass on your grave,
Every day since you went away,
Wherever I go whatever I do,
Locked in my heart are memories of you.
Loving Daughter, ROSE,
SON-IN-LAW.

Roses for MRS. QUILLE
Mother's Day has come again,
Some hearts are gay, some filled with pain.
We went to visit Mrs. Quille,
Who resides in peace on Arbutus Hill;
She did not hear us at the gate,
We even rushed—we were not late,
She could not see our tear drops fall,
She could not answer to our call.
But we know—she knows, we came to say—
"Here are your roses for Mother's Day"
By Victorine Q. Adams

FINKS—In memory of MRS. MARY FINKS on Mother's Day.
Although you left us five years ago,
Mother dear, our hearts join in Tender memory of you on your day.
HOWARD FINKS
Daughter, BLANCHE V. DIXON; Granddaughter, JULIET DIXON WATERS

In Memory of Our Dear Mother
FANNIE PARRISH
who passed away, April 30, 1925.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far though to reach.
Sweet to remember her who once was here,
And who though absent is just as dear.
By her loving daughters,
MARY E
