THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Regular services on Sunday and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sabbath school 2.30 P. M., Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The monthly social meetings of the Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church will be resumed sometime in October.

Interesting Rally Day services were held in Crumpton Methodist Protestant Church last Sunday. Rev. F. T. Tagg, editor of the Methodist Protestant, and Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers, president of the Maryland Annual Conference, took part in the exercises.

Our Mowbray revival opens Oct. 5th, 8 P. M. All are welcome. The pastor will be assisted by a number of brethren from other churches. Song service 7.15 P. M., preaching 7.30 P. M.

One thousand men already have registered for the National Convention of Methodist Men, which is expected to bring thousands of ministers and laymen to Indianapolis on October 21. Fred B. Fisher, of New York, secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, yesterday announced the temporary reservation of 1,000 registrations for Indiana men.

Bishop Homer C. Stunts, who was in the Phillipines when former President Taft was there and now has all of South America for his Episcopal district, has accepted a place on the program. Other announcements are of the appearance at the meeting of Bishop Francis McConnell, Bishop James W. Bashford, Robert Speer, a Presbyterian leader, Frank Moss, assistant district attorney of New York county, former Vice-President Charles W. Fairbanks and Colonel E. W. Hatford, U. S. A.

Christ M. P. Sunday School will observe the second Sunday in October as Rally Day. An appropriate program will be arranged.

Still Pond and Betterton M. E. churches, F. X. Moore, pastor—The second quarterly conference will be held at Betterton Saturday evening, Sept. 20, at 7.30 o'clock, Dr. Watt presiding. Dr. Watt will preach at both churches on Sunday, the 21st, at Still Pond at 10.45 A. M.; at Betterton 2.45 P. M. The Young Men's Literary and Social Club of Still Pond church will hold a special meeting in their reading room next Monday night at 8 o'clock to make arrangements for their fall rally, which will take place the first week in October. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

The Annual Convention of the Rock Hall District Sunday School Association will be held to-morrow in the M. E. Church at Rock Hall, beginning at 10.30 A. M., followed by afternoon and evening sessions. The various phases of Sunday school methods which are producing the best results in building up the school and leading the scholars to Christ will be freely discussed. Each school is urged to elect a large delegation at once and see to it that they go. All superintendents are requested to be present with a report of their schools. Ministers are especially invited to attend and give their valuable counsel and co-operation.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor.—Services next Sunday, Sept. 21st, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject—"Dining With Jesus"; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service, followed by sermon by the pastor. All invited.

The reopening services at the M. E. Church last Sunday were of an interesting character. The organ in its new quarters was greatly admired, the choir under the direction Mrs. Merrick Clements, rendered beautiful music in splendid style. Mr. Kemp Bordley's violin solo was a prominent feature, and was greatly admired. Rev. R. Watt, D. S., preached the sermon, after which Rev. Dr. Barrett took charge of the collection. The cost of fitting the chamber and removing the organ was about $650.00. In about twenty minutes the whole amount was raised, in cash and subscriptions. The congregations, morning and evening, were large.

Piney Neck Items.

Miss Edith Colison and Miss Alice Colison and Miss Alice Wood left Monday morning for the State Normal School in Baltimore.

Another delegation of men from the Osceola Tribe of Improved Order of Red Men left here Monday evening to install officers in the new organization of Red Men at Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby and family, from Quaker Neck, spent Sunday with the former's son, Mr. Robt. Kirby, the pastor of this town.

All were very sorry to hear of the death of little Raymond Kendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dradge Kendall, this town. His death was caused by falling into a tub of hot water.

Mrs. Kerr, of Baltimore, is visiting her daughter, Mrs Cleveland Ashley, of this town.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Price, Mrs. Martha Beck, Mrs. Annie Hyland and daughter, Sylvia and her son, Charles; Misses May Urie, Louise Reihl, Delia Ashley; Messrs. Raymond Price, Asa Urie, James and Adrien Price left here Thursday to go to Chestertown to the circus. All had a pleasant trip.
