CHAPTER 402.

AN ACT to propose an amendment to Article 3 of the Constitution of this State by adding a new Section, to be known as 40A; and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for the adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, (three-fifths of all the members of each of the two houses concurring), That the following new section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Article 3, title "Legislative Department," of the Constitution of this State, the same to be inserted after Section 40 and to be numbered 40A, and if adopted by the legally qualified voters thereof, as herein provided, said section shall become a part of Article 3 of the Constitution of Maryland.

40A. The General Assembly shall enact no law authorizing private property to be taken for public use without just compensation, to be agreed upon between the parties or awarded by a jury, being first paid or tendered to the party entitled to such compensation, but where such property is situated in Baltimore City and is acquired by this State or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, the General Assembly may provide for the appointment of appraisers by a Court of Record to value such property, and that, upon payment of the amount of such valuation to the party entitled to compensation, or into Court and securing the payment of any further sum that may be awarded by a jury, such property may be taken.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said foregoing section, hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution, shall at the next ensuing general election, to be held on Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November, 1913, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof, for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said election the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now provided by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

AN ACT to amend Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III, Circuit Courts," of the Constitution of this State, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, three-fifths of all the members of the two houses concurring, That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III, Circuit Courts," of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, it shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 21 of said article 4, to-wit:

Sec. 21. For each of the said circuits (excepting the eighth and third) there shall be a chief Judge and two associate Judges, to be styled Judges of the Circuit Court to be elected or appointed as herein provided.

And no two of said associate judges for any of the said circuits, except the third circuit shall, at the time of their election or appointment or during the term for which they may have been elected or appointed, reside in the same county. If two or more persons shall be candidates for associate judges in the same county in any of the circuits, except the third circuit, that one only in said county shall be declared elected who has the highest number of votes in the circuit. In case any two candidates for associate judge in any of the circuits, except the third circuit, residing in the same county, shall have an equal number of votes greater than any other candidate for associate judge in the circuit, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for one associate judge; but the persons residing in any other county of the circuit and who has the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The said Judges shall hold not less than two terms of the Circuit Court in each of the counties composing their respective circuits, at such times as are now or may hereafter be prescribed to which jurors shall be summoned; and in those counties where only two such terms are held, two other and intermediate terms, to which jurors shall not be summoned; they may alter or fix the times for holding any or all terms, until otherwise prescribed, and shall adopt rules to the end that all business not requiring the interposition of the jury shall be, as far as practicable, disposed of at said intermediate terms.

One judge in each of the above circuits, including the third circuit, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business; and the said judges, or any of them, may hold special terms of their Courts, whenever in their discretion, the business of the several counties renders such terms necessary.

The additional associate judge for the third circuit herein provided for, shall be elected by the qualified voters of Baltimore and Harford Counties, at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment, and the judge so elected shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, hold his office for the same term of years, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the third circuit.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said foregoing section hereby proposed as a amendment to the Constitution of this State shall be, at the next general election for members of the General Assembly to be held in this State, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said general election the vote of the said proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now prescribed by law, and immediately after said election, due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

But the General Assembly may in its discretion remove the above penalty and all other penalties upon the vote seller so as to place the penalties for the purchase of votes on the vote buyer alone.

Better Babies Contest.

Mrs. Evelyn Harris in the following communication explains some delays, and errors in former published accounts of the Better Babies Contest, held during the recent Fair.

There has been a little delay in getting the premiums off and we feel that an apology is due the parents of the successful babies. We decided so late to get the cups (in fact it was right hard work to get the money collected to pay for them, and in fact we must have it in hand before we made a purchase) that the jewelers had to telegraph the orders. Then they did not get them in time to do any engraving before the show. With their order work too, they have gotten them done as soon as could be expected and we know all were pleased with them. Mr. J. H. Sides kindly consented to letter the certificates and they also are distributed.

Jefferson & Bros. gave the championship cup to Brown M. Roe. Wm. Medders & Co, to John J. Elwards, Kent County Pomona Grange, Paul Henry Harrison, Clara Eunice Bramble.

The rest of the money came from a long list of contributors all merchants and public spirited citizens who are trying by this means to advance the Better Babies cause.

Paul Henry Harrison received a cup because his average was two full points ahead of any Kent county baby. While he himself is not a Maryland boy, his mother was a Kent county woman and she is living up to the ideas of Kent. We hope by this small token of appreciation to pursuade her to let Paul Henry live here now all the time.

Little Virginia Jester deserves special mention for her splendid average 94. She is the daughter of a Queen Anne's woman who is so close to Kent that we consider her our baby after all.

The score cards will be mailed in a few days. Some of us did work so hard for this show that we neglected home, health and husband! We have been trying to "catch up" a little also can save too, so the score cards have been laid aside. They also will be mailed to all within one week's time.

The list of doctors published were the ones who were willing to help if they could. The names of the ones who actually sweated and worked were: Drs. Norman Dudley, Harry Simpers, Frank Hines, W. G. Coppage and I. Nurkin.

The ladies assisting were: Mrs. Wm. B. Usiltonl Jr., Mrs. W. W. Beck, Mrs. S. Scott Beck, Mrs. Chas. R. Twilley, Mrs. W. B. Copper, Mrs. C. E. Crane, Mrs. H.F. Jefferson, Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Harvey B. Moore, Miss Adele France, Miss Helen Urie, Miss Louisa Urie, Miss Isabel Beck, Miss Anna Smyth, Miss Cora Harding.

Signed, Mrs. Eveiyn Harris.

IN MEMORIAM.

When Richard Mabory was suddenly hurled into eternity, Millington lost a good citizen, his parents a noble son, and society a young man whose conduct was worthy of imitation. The writer of these lines boarded for some time in the same family with him. Always cheerful, polite and willing to add to the pleasure of those around him. The Sunday before his death he asked the writer to play some religious selections so he might sing. He accompanied me on the violin. The selections he made were such as "Nearer My God, to Thee," "One Day's More Work for Jesus," etc. His rendition of them was beautiful, showing his love of what was good, true and noble. The next Sabbath he was dead. So young, so true and noble. Mother, father, sisters, brother grieve not; his life was short but well spent.

There is no death, what seems so is transition.
This life is but a portal of the Elysium
Which we call death. J. G. H.
