THIS COOL

SNAP HAS SUGGESTED WARMER CLOTHING to quite a good many, judging from the number of measurements I've taken. Yet by comparisons, the trade is becoming posted as to the difference in prices for same service, and the reason is quite obvious. When you stop and think—no stock, high rent and the varions expenses which must of necessity enter into the cost of your garments—why shouldn't I do business? Look around. Post yourselves. Then there will be no difficulty in showing you the difference.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Office under Voshell House, next to Robert McWhorter's,
CHESTERTOWN, MD.
