Smith has Trouble in Worcester

Senator John Walter Smith's refusal to give the people of his own county popular primaries, is giving the Senator considerable trouble and there promises to be a world of trouble for the Boss of Worcester to push his convention nominated ticket over a winner in the fall election.

Mr. Orlando Harrison, the well-known nurseryman of Berlin, has made his announcement that he will run as an Independent candidate for the State Senate from Worcester county, in November. Mr. Harrison has been a candidate for sometime for this high honor, but as there seemed to be some probability of another gentleman being nominated, Mr. Harrison decided to make his own fight direct with the people. It is thought that the regular Democratic organization will nominate Hon. Calvin B. Taylor for the State Senate. Rumor has it that Mr. Oscar Purnell, formerly part owner of the Snow Hill Messenger, is likely to be an Independent candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court for Worcester county.

Maryland Postoffices.

The appointments of Maryland postmasters is giving the administration and Maryland's representatives in Congress considerable thought at present, and the President is expected to make many of these appointments very shortly. Only a few of these appointments have been made, none of which has been confirmed by the Senate. These are as follows:

William W. Brown, Chesapeake City; Washington F. Collins, Millington, and Cicil E. Ewing, Rising Sun, Democrats, and Mary W. Stewart, Oxford, Republican. The Stewart appointed was a reappointment and was made strictly upon merit.

There are also 743 fourth-class offices in the Postal Service in Maryland which President Taft included in the list of places protected by the Civil Service. Democrats are protesting against this transfer, but their protest will be in vain unless Congress overrides President Wilson, as he is said to be favorable to the action of his predecessor.

First-class postmasterships are those that pay $3,000 or more. Included in this list for Maryland are Baltimore, Cumberland and Hagerstown. The second-class postmasterships pay between $2,000 and $3,000, and all between $1,000 and $2,000 are third-class. Those paying less than $1,000 a year are fourth-class postmasterships.

Postmasterships in Maryland, in addition to the Baltimore office, and which belong to the first, second and third class, and to which appointments are made by the President, are as follow:

Cumberland, $3,200; Hagerstown, $3,100; Frederick, $2,800; Westminster, $2,400; Easton, $2,400; Frostburg, $2,200, Belair, $2,200; Chestertown, $2,200; Annapolis, $2,800; Salisbury, $2,600; Cambridge, $2,500; Havre de Grace, $2,100; Crisfield, $2,200; Oakland, $1,900; Elkton, $1,900; Centreville, $1,900; Princess Anne, $1,800; Snow Hill, $1,700; Port Deposit, $1,800; Aberdeen, $1,700; Berlin, $1,900; Brunswick, $1,600; Denton, $1,700; Upper Marlboro, $1,100; Ellicott City, $1,800; Emmitsburg, $1,700; Federalsburg, $1,500; Forest Glen, $1,500; Gaithersburg, $1,500; Greensboro, $1,200; Hampstead, $1,100; Hancock, $1,500; Hurlock, $1,100; Hyattsville, $1,500; Laurel, $1,900; Lonaconing, $1,600; Middletown, $1,100; Millington, $1,200; Mount Airy, $1,600; Mount Savage, $1,200; New Windsor, $1,300; North East, $1,400; Pocomoke, $1,300; Reisterstown, $1,200; Ridgely, $1,400; Rising Sun, $1,500; Rockville, $1,800; St Michaels, $1,400; Smithsburg, $1,100; Sykesville, $1,500; Taneytown, $1,400; Thurmont, $1,400; Union Bridge, $1,400; Westernport, $1,300; Williamsport, $1,400; and Woodsboro, $1,800.

Cold Winter Coming so Say the Squirrels.

It's going to be a hard winter. The cold of the last few mornings is only a prelude of what we are going to get, and we are going to get it soon. This is no idle talk of the weather bureau or presiflage of the almanac. It is hard, cold facts.

Bill Snyder, headkeeper of the menagerie in Central Park, New York, is authority for the statement. The squirrels told him so. Bill looks always to the gray squirrels for his forecasting of the weather.

The gray squirrels, he says, have begun to build their nests, and this means the near approach of cold winter. The grays began their nest-building four weeks ahead of schedule time, compared with last year.

Horse Notes.

R. T. C., 2.06¼, the leading money winning trotter of 1911, is now the property of Harry Burgoyne, superintendent of Walnut Hall Farm, Donerail, Ky. Edward Thompson, of Northport, L. I., presented the horse to him during the recent trotting meeting at Detroit. R. T. C. went lame when an attempt was made to train him this season and his racing days were over. Mr. Thompson wanted to find a good home for him, and as Mr. Burgoyne wanted a road horse the change of ownership was satisfactory to all concerned.—Exchange.

County School Fair at Centreville.—The second annual Queen Annes County School Fair will be held in the new primary school building on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 14 and 15. Griffith; literary, Miss C. Estelle Rose; spelling, Miss Nannie P. Keating; domestic art, Miss Margaret A. Lockard; domestic science, Miss Nellie Clash; flowers, Rev. C. P. McGoldrick; fruit, Henry E. Wright; poultry, Graham Watson, and writing, Prof. J. O. Neighbors, all of Centreville.

BETTER than SPANKING

Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. 2523, Chicago, Ill., have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a 50c package securely wrapped and prepaid Absolutely Free to any reader of the Transcript. This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day in old or young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co. is an Old Reliable House—write to them to-day for the free medicine. Cure the afflicted members of your family, then tell your neighbors and friends about this remedy.

Saving a Sick Horse

It often happens that a valuable horse or cow is suddenly taken sick.

Quick action must be taken. Rush to the nearest telephone and call up the veterinarian.

To provide for such emergencies, which often occur at night, you should have a telephone on your farm, where you can get at it quickly.

Why not order it to-day?
