Art Work of Howard Students on Display in FSA Gallery

WASHINGTON

Works by students and faculty members in the art department at Howard University are taking the spotlight this month at the Federal Security Agency building, Third St. and Independence Ave. S. W.

The fifth-floor gallery in the building is devoted to the display which will be open to the public from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. through April.

"Excellent" is the term used by Leo L. Miller of FSA to describe the group of over 70 pencil drawings, water-colors, oils, posters and prints. "We are proud for the opportunity to see these products of Howard University's art department," he declared on Wednesday.

Students Named

Students whose works are represented in the exhibit are:

Donald McIvaine, Bernice Hammond, Bernard Byrd, Hilda Proctor, Earlina Walden, Rena Arnold, Melvin Johnson, James P. Wise, Hembrus Walden, William Frances, Jesse McIver, John Taylor;

Myra Ball, Alfred Johnson, Joseph Cabana, Lawrence Carter, Juletta Randolph, Dan T. Reid, William H. Scott, Pearl Sewell, John Elder, Clarence Banks, Ernest Cherry;

H. Mitchell, Emmett Lucas, Y. R. Williamson, O. H. Brown, H. J. C. McMillan, D. C. Petty, Helen Watson and others.

HOW SLOAN'S LINIMENT AIDS MUSCULAR PAINS

Here's vital news for sufferers from muscular aches and rheumatic pains. Using infra-red rays, scientists have now succeeded in photographing blood vessels below the skin-surface. These photos (see pictures above) prove that, after an application of Sloan's Liniment, the veins expand . . . evidence that the created area gets extra supplies of blood, to revitalize tissues and wash away waste matter and poisons faster.

No wonder Sloan's Liniment helps to bring blessed relief from rheumatic and similar ills. No wonder Sloan's has been called "the greatest name in pain-relieving liniments." Get a bottle today—never greasy or sticky.

Va. Union Maps 'Flying Classroom' Trip Overseas to Recruit Students

Dr. Ellison Refers to Projected 10-Week Flight of 50 as Anti-Communist Crusade

RICHMOND

One of the basic motives behind a projected "flying classroom trip" of Virginia Union students around the world is to acquaint foreign students with the university's cultural offerings and to recruit students from the various foreign countries.

That was revealed this week by Clennon King, one of the prime movers in the venture, who indicated, though guardedly, that one of the objectives of the world project is to bring a descendant of Alexander Dumas, noted poet, to study at Virginia Union.

Mr. King also indicated that it is the intention of the Richmond institution to recruit one student each from France, India, Ethiopia and Egypt, and probably from other countries to be visited by the students, for study at the local college.

President Announces Plans

Plans for the trip around the world were announced last week by Dr. John M. Ellison, president, who termed it "the most ambitious and significant project in American higher education: a flying classroom trip around the world; a global crusade against communism."

The group will leave Richmond in a chartered plane on June 25, carrying 50 students, selected from college throughout the nation, on a 10-week study and crusade mission to Canada, 21 foreign countries and two South Sea islands.

Visiting the Far East first, the group will study in and be guests of the following countries: Ireland, England, Belgium, France, Italy, Greece, Egypt, Israel, the Sudan, Ethiopia, Arabia, Pakistan, India, Burma, Siam (Thailand), Cambodia, Singapore, Indonesia, Philippine Islands, China and Japan.

Some Typical Students

Included in the study group will be an assistant professor of education at City College of NYC, an Alabama dirt farmer, who finished one year of college work seven years ago, and a high school senior from Ohio. However, most of the students will come from Virginia.

These and all other students who make the tour will be registered as summer school students at Union, with the option of from 9 to 12-semester hours of college credit for the venture, according to Mr. King, who emphasized that students from all colleges in the nation are eligible to compete.

Getting in a lick at world communism, Mr. King said:

"Due to the grave state of affairs in world relations created by Communist tactics and propaganda, Virginia Union feels that its coming global study will mark a good opportunity to make a world plea for democracy and to indicate its distrust of the Communist movement."

Plan Speaking Tours

Just as each participant will address and confer with the people in all the lands to be visited; upon his return the student will agree to speak all over America to educational meetings and to business, industrial, labor, agricultural, religious and lay groups to pass along what he learned, King said.

In order to secure this distribution and to benefit as many groups as possible, representatives from as many different sections (of the country) and colleges (therein) will be included in the group as possible, he added.

The venture will be financed through personal means and from scholarships provided by business, industrial and other organizations and individuals.

This is to be Union's second venture in international education, the college having sponsored a foreign study team as part of the celebration of its 50th anniversary last year.

Plaster Falls in Home, Tenants Ask $15,000

WASHINGTON

Damages of $15,000 were demanded by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Herbert of 1321 E. Capitol St., as a result of plaster falling in their home.

The suit is directed against Wirt T. Boswell, representative for the estate of Mrs. Nettie C. Boswell, mental health patient, 200 Massachusetts Ave., N.W.

The Herberts say they rented the premises from Mrs. Boswell in July, 1940, and under the agreement, the landlord was to make all repairs. On July 21, 1949, the property was said to have been in poor and dangerous condition because of the failure of Mrs. Boswell to make the necessary repairs.

Youth, 18, Held in Cutting Scrape

Involved in a cutting scrape, an 18-year-old youth was held under $1000 bail at Northwestern police station, Tuesday.

Placed under bail was Calvin Tate of the 1200 block Division St., who allegedly stabbed Louis Giles of the 700 block Gold St. during a fight, Monday evening.

Suffering a chest wound, Giles is in University Hospital, where his condition is reported fair.

Dr. Drew 'Great American,' Widow Told by Red Cross

WASHINGTON (NNPA) —Dr. Ross T. McIntire, director of the American Red Cross national blood program and wartime Surgeon General of the United States, last Friday added his praises to the eulogies of Dr. Charles R. Drew, who was killed in an automobile accident near Burlington, N.C., on April 1.

"In Dr. Drew's death the medical profession and the nation have suffered a great loss," Dr. McIntire wrote the widow of the famed hematologist (blood scientist).

On Roster of Great American

"His service during the war years with the National Research Council and with the American Red Cross contributed in no small measure to the success of blood procurement for our armed forces. His attainments as a physician and as a man placed him on the roster of great Americans.

For the degree of doctor of medical science in surgery, which Dr. Drew received from Columbia University in June, 1940, his thesis was "Banked Blood."

The research which he did in preparing this thesis was of such value in the blood plasma program that he was recalled from Howard University to New York City to become medical supervisor of the blood plasma division of the Blood Transfusion Association.

Also Helped Britain

In that position he was responsible for collecting blood for the British Army.

In February, 1941, Dr. Drew was made director of the Red Cross Blood Bank in New York City and assistant director of blood procurement for the National Research Council and put in charge of collecting blood for the United States Army and Navy.

Food consumption in 1949 was 11 percent above the 1935-39 average. It is expected to equal or surpass that this year.

NORVEL LEE WINS NATIONAL AAU TITLE

Bison Boxer Takes Heavyweight Title

Team Title Captured by Philly in Boston; 2 Baltimoreans Triumph

By FRANK SANTOS

BOSTON — Norvel Lee, Howard University physical education senior, of Washington, D.C., established himself as the No. 1 amateur heavyweight boxer in the country, Wednesday night, when he won the heavyweight championship in the National AAU Boxing Championships before a capacity crowd at Boston Gardens.

Lee, who three weeks ago won a National Golden Gloves title in the annual East-West matches, punched his way to a decision over Stan Howlett, of Madison, Ill. to gain the title.

He shared Washington honors with a white teammate, Eldridge Thompson, a Marine from Quantico, Va., who won the light-heavyweight title by defeating Jesse Manigault, of Baltimore's Northwestern Police Boys Club.

Philadelphia Wins

The team from Philadelphia won the team title, three of the Quaker City boxers taking home a title. Gil Turner, 19-year-old 147-pounder, captured the 147-pound title, scoring a tko over Dick Gradden of Seattle, Wash., in third round. Turner was also one of the three in the running for the outstanding fighter of the tourney.

Sherman Nelson, 17-year-old boxer of Philadelphia, is the newly-crowned 112-pound champion. He outpointed Jimmy Karakos at Atlanta, Ga. Sherman is a junior at the Gratz High School.

George Justice of Philadelphia carried home the 126-pound title by gaining a unanimous decision over Sam Johnson from San Francisco.

Sammy Rogers, a 19-year-old Army company representing the Baltimore AAU, won a split decision over Dick Ralf of Seattle, Wash., in the 136-pound class.

John Hawthorne, a recruit in the Third Cavalry, USA, also representing Baltimore, lost a unanimous decision to Wes Echols of Atwater, Calif., in the 160-pound class. Echols was later chosen as the outstanding fighter in the tourney.

In the first round trials Luther Chambers of Philadelphia decisioned John Gibson, Albany, N.Y., in the 147-pound class; Gil Turner, Philadelphia, decisioned James Hill of Seattle, Wash., in the 147-pound class; Robert Leeper, Washington, D.C., lost by a decision to Robert Agena of Honolulu, 118-pound class.

Lawrence Barrett of Baltimore, Md., lost by decision to Mike Mars of Cleveland, Ohio, 132-pound class; Willie Davis, Washington, D.C., TKO'ed Herman Thompson, Baltimore, Md., in two minutes; 26 seconds of the second round, in the 126-pound class, and Sammy Rogers, Baltimore, Md., decisioned Francis Freese, New York City.

Washingtonian Wins

Norvel Lee, National Golden Gloves champion of Washington, TKO'ed Burn Pike, Atlanta, Ga.; William Sawyer, Philadelphia, decisioned Howard Tate, Canton, Ohio, and Robert Phares Baltimore, Md. decisioned Jack Brennan of Charleston, Mass., in the heavyweight class and Jesse Manigault, Baltimore, Md. decisioned Isiah Robinson, Oakland, Calif., in the 112-pound class; Sherman Nelson, Philadelphia, decisioned Tony Bonomola, New Orleans, La. John Hawthorne, Baltimore, Md. decisioned Richard Guerro of Chicago.

In the second round trail in the last bout of the evening, Gil Turner, Philadelphia, knocked out Charles Lincoln of Portland, Ore.

Gene Smith Seeks 10th Win in Row

Young Gene Smith, whose sparkling footwork and deadly punchings is a contrast with his boyish profile, will seek his 10th straight win in the pro ranks, meeting Max Osario, Monday night, at Turner's Arena.

In another bout, Marshall Clayton will return to action after two months rest against Johnny (Honeyboy) Williams in a 10-round main event.

Former All-Army lightweight champion, Clayton is seeking his third win of the season in Turner's final show, having decisioned tough Tommy Shepard of Baltimore and kayoed Arcelo Pacheco in 44 seconds of the first rounds in previous outings.

Smith is aspiring for his eighth knockout in 10 matches against Osario who bowed to Little Dynamite here last August on the Jimmy Cooper and Manuel Ortiz tussle at the ball park.

COOPER OUTPOINTS ARAUJO IN 10-ROUND MAIN EVENT

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Jimmy Cooper, Washington featherweight, after a cautious start, easily outpointed Georgie Araujo here in the 10-round main event, Monday night.

AFRO SPORTS

Face Making or Fighting?

Arlington School Organizes Team

ARLINGTON, Va. —Hoffman Boston School, organizing its first varsity baseball team in the school's history, held its first intra squad drills last week with some 22 candidates participating.

Coach Roy L. Griffin, who is booking District and nearby Virginia teams for his yearling squad appeared satisfied with the results. Among likely starters showing promise are:

Team A:— Raymond Jackson, shortstop; Arthur Lewis, catcher; Archie Green, first base; Rase Jones, third base; John Moore second base; and Carl Green, right field.

Other Candidates

Showing promise on Team B are George Mullins, catcher; Walter Vollin, first baseman; Donald Morten, third base; Frank Clem, shortstop; and Glen Snow, left field.

Galesville Hot Sox Off to Good Start

The Galesville Hot Sox opened the season over the week end with two victories, defeating the Maryland Giants, 6-0, Saturday, and the Holly Beach Giants, 5-2, on Easter Sunday.

Jim Watkins limited the Maryland Giants to four hits in hurling Saturday's shutout triumph while John Makell Jr. paced the Hot Sox at bat with four hits.

Billy Tydings pitched Sunday's game, with Raymond Fountain sparking the Hot Sox batters with three hits, though Ed Watkins's triple set the stage for the victory.

Frank Makell, manager, of Galesville, Md., West River 3081, is booking games for the Hot Sox.

Smith Angling for Headline Bout After Dancrosse Win

WASHINGTON

The baby-faced youngster danced and skipped all the way to the dressing room ahead of the tumultuous crowd. In between the skips, he packed nonchalantly with a left and right in the air, then said:

"Hardly had a workout. I don't see why I shouldn't be fighting main events soon. Didn't hardly work up a sweat with that kid and he's had 39 fights."

That was Gene Smith, meteorite rising little featherweight, Monday night at Turner's Arena, shortly after he had bludgeoned to ted Danny Janeriose into submission in 40 seconds of the second round for his ninth straight win as a pro, seven of them by the knockout route.

Made Quick Work of It

Rushing out to make quick work of his hurt opponent, Smith did a masterful job. Bobbing and weaving under Dancrosse's long arms, Gene found his target, and pinpoint to a volley of lefts and rights to the head sent Dancrosse crashing to the floor to stay.

Smith, weighing 125½ pounds, held an advantage over Dancrosse who had come in at 122½. A turnout of some 1300 fans, one of the largest crowds of the season, witnessed the contest. As a crowd booster, Smith has been added to next Monday night's card.

Not Daunted by Experience

A cocky little lad, Smith showed no respect for the more experienced opponent from the opening bell. Moving in under his long, straight rights and erratic left hooks, Smith shot rapid-fire lefts and nine count midway the first round with a left hook to the solar plexus.

Near the close of the same round Smith, after chasing Dancrosse for nearly two minutes, sent a right hand crashing to his jaw. The terror-stricken fighter crumpled to the canvas, his mouth piece tumbling out as if his jaw was fractured. For what was to come, Dancrosse might have sat out the count. Only the bell saved him.

AFRO Bombers Ready For Season

The AFRO Bombers will again hit the softball diamonds this season coached by Roger Bowie and Scotty Gross. Games may be booked through Peyton Gray, manager.
