SANDY BOTTOM DEPARTMENT STORE!

Tents Come Down.

Last Sunday, the closing day of the camp meeting, was an eventful one, and the big tent was crowded to the limit of its capacity. At 11 o'clock Prof. A. J. S. Bourdeau, representing the American Religious Liberty Association, spoke on "Will Rome Rule America." He dealt with the United States in prophecy and showed the great Romeward tendency from current events and the ultimate outcome from the bible standpoint.

At 2 o'clock a public baptism was held in the Chester river. The bridge was lined with interested spectators and nearly 2,000 witnessed the solemn scene. Evangelist R. T. Baer, of Baltimore, officiated.

The closing service was attended by nearly 800. Pastor W. A. Spicer, secretary of the World's Conference of S. D. A., addressed the large assembly on the rise and progress of this movement until now it is going by leaps and bounds on all the continents and in 87 foreign countries. The central feature of their message is the second coming of Christ and the preparation necessary to meet Him.

The following officers for the Chesapeake Conference of S. D. A. were elected for the coming year: Evangelist, R. T. Baer, president; W. T. Durst, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. R. T. Baer, State Sabbath School secretary; Mrs. F. W. Paap, Y. P. M. V. secretary; F. E. Hankins, missionary secretary; Evangelist F. W. Paap, Religious Liberty secretary; Pastor R. H. Martin, Educational secretary. The executive committee is composed of the following: R. T. Baer, R. Martin, F. W. Paap, S. T. Shadle and F. E. Hankins.

One of the last actions of the executive committee was to vote Evangilist L. E. From to remain in Chestertown for some time to continue the evangelstic address begun during the Camp meeting. It is expected that his opening address will be in Fireman's Hall on Saturday Oct. 12. Further announcement of time, place, and subject will be made.

Guarantors Organize.

Twenty of the guarantors of the Chautauqua for next year met in Firemen's Hall on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, elected officers and arranged plans for conducting the Chautauqua in a systematic manner. The following officers were elected: President, Dr. H. Benge Simmons; secretary, C. Norman Jefferson; treasurer, Thomas S. Bordley; executive committee, the above named gentlemen with Messrs. L. Bates Russell and Fred G. Usilton. The arrangement for next year's program was discussed, and a motion prevailed to leave the matter in the hands of Dr. Pearson and the Chautauqua Association. While the committee complimented Dr. Perry, the past platform manager very highly, there was a unanimous request for Miss Hambleton, who was here two years ago, and she will be requested to preside over next season's Chautauqua. The date for holding next year's Chautauqua was fixed for the first week in September. There have been about 660 season tickets of the necessary 725 guaranteed, and it will be no trouble to dispose of the remainder. The executive committee was empowered to appoint a lady's committee, a reception committee, etc., to assist in the work of arrangement for next year.

County Seats' Public School Day.

A public school day is to be held in every county seat in the State during the coming session, at which the State Board of Education will assist.

This decision was made by the Board at its meeting at the Rennert, in Baltimore last Wednesday morning.

State Superintendent M. Bates Stephens was instructed by the board to arrange a schedule of meetings, one for each county, which will cover the entire State.

"Our idea," said Governor Goldsborough after the meeting, "is to stimulate interest in educational matters among the school children, the teachers and the citizens in general. Dr. Stephens will form a schedule and we will declare a holiday in each county for the day when the meeting will be held. We expect to have leading educators and business men take part in the meetings and to invite the teachers, scholars, parents and all others interested to come to the county seat with their lunch baskets and hear what the speakers have to say. The work will begin this fall and we will go into every county in the State."

Still Pond Notes.

Miss Elizabeth Hague is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Walter Locker, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hackett and daughter, Marghuerita, of Chestertown, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett.

Messrs. Golden Warren, Jewell Thompson, Charles Hague and John Jarvis visited Baltimore during the week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bowers spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Wm. B. Price, Betterton.

Miss Marion Howard left for her home in Florida last week.

Mrs. Wm. H. Thompson and son, Earl, are visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Ford, Baltimore.

Mr George Harper and daughter, Mrs. William Medders, had the pleasure of hearing a lecture by Dr. Cadman, in Chestertown Tuesday with tea afterwards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hubbard.

Don't forget the Sunday School and Epworth League Rally Day Sunday, October 12th. Also the convention must not be forgotten, which will be on Tuesday, Oct. 14th. An all day service.

The Epworth League will be led Sunday evening of Mr. W. L. Ford. Topic: "Choosing Chums."
