Stanfield Seeks 4 Track Titles

Seton Hall Star Aims at Quadruple

NEWARK—Andy Stanfield, Seton Hall's super-sprinter, will try for a "Jesse Owens Quadruple" in the ICA-A championships to be held at Randalls Island in New York, Friday and Saturday.

Not since the famed Owens won the 100 and 220 sprints, broad jump and 220-yard low hurdles in with three knocks.

Manager Lefty Pearson and his Sunday for a four-team double-header at Griffith Stadium.

Day-to-Day In the Majors

SUNDAY—Jackie Robinson got one for five and Roy Campanella two for four, as the 19-9 loss the Brooklyn Dodgers sustained at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds at Ebbets Field.

At the Polo Grounds, Monty Irvin got two hits in two attempts in the second game after being blanked on three trips in the opener, as the New York Giants dropped a twin-bill to Pittsburgh, 4-3 and 8-6. Hank Thompson had a somewhat similar record for the day. Hitless in four trips in the matinee affair, Tommy connected twice in as many times in the other piece.

Sam Jethroe got one out of four in the first game and two from four times in the second to help the Boston Braves score a pair of home runs from over the Chicago Cubs, 3-2 and 4-2.

In the American League, Cleveland was routed twice by the New York Yankees at the Cleveland Stadium. Luke Easter got one hit in eight at bats for the afternoon, but Larry Doby contributed five in eight. The Yanks triumphed, 14-5 and 12-4.

MONDAY—Don Newcombe hurled the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 5-1 win over the Cincinnati Reds under the Ebbets Field lights, his third triumph of the season against one loss. He spread eight-and hits over nine innings, struck out seven and walked two. Jackie Robinson, again installed at the Dodger second base post, had two bangles in four trips, lateward Roy Campanella contributed two in three, and Newcombe himself contributed a single in two at bats.

In the American League at Cleveland, Larry Doby slammed a double in four at bats as the Indians were trounced, 7-2, by the New York Yankees. Luke Easter sat out the game on the sideline, evidently benched by Manager Lou Boudreau for weak hitting.

TUESDAY—Jackie Robinson made a diving stop of Hank Edward's grounder on his stomach in the fourth inning for the play of the game, as the Brooklyn Dodgers were victimized by their old nemesis, Johnny Schmitz, at Ebbets Field. Schmitz hurled four hit ball as the Chicago Cubs beat the Bums, 3-1, but Brooklyn stayed in first place as the Philadelphia Phillies and the N.Y. Giants were rained out.

Robbie got one of the four hits, a double, in four trips plateward and drove across two runs, but Roy Campanella was hitless in four attempts. Six chances were handled by Robinson in the field.

In Boston, Sam Jethroe hit safely once in five at-bats as the Braves dropped a 6-2 game to the Cincinnati Reds.

In the American League, Cleveland was unscheduled.

WEDNESDAY — Dan Bankhead flurled the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 6-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs, handing perennially unbeaten Bob Rush his first defeat of the 1950 season for the season. At the same time, Slender Dan was annexing his fourth triumph without a loss. Roy Campanella aided his fellow battery-mate with a home run. Campy had one hit in three tries, as did Jackie Robinson.

Monty Irvin was held hitless at the Polo Grounds as the New York Giants took it on the chin, 2-0, at the hands of the St. Louis Cardinals. Hank Thompson was one for two, but committed a costly error on Johnny Lindell's rap in the eighth, a blow which eventually cost the Giants the game.

Up at Boston, where the Braves defeated Cincinnati, 4-1, Sam Jethroe was still in the throes of a batting slump, going four times for naught. He did, however, hit in one of the Hub runs.

In the American League, at Cleveland, Larry Doby continued the sizzling stick, pace which has him leading the loop, by rapping out two singles in four trips, while the Indians were downing Washington 5-4 behind Bob Feller for not-hitting-anything game from the dugout.

THURSDAY—Defending champion Brooklyn Dodgers, with Roy Campanella missing his usual homer-and-a-single, lost to the Chicago Cubs, 3-4, behind Preacher Roe. Roy Campy's only hit of the day, but the blow put the Bums ahead after the Cubs had deadlocked the game at 3-3 in the fourth. Jackie Robinson, up twice, got one single.

Across the river at the Polo Grounds, Monty Irvin bagged a double and single in six tries as the New York Giants went 13 innings before losing a 5-5 decision to the Cardinals. Hank Thompson, who has been having considerable trouble with the Polo Grounds lately, and seems to have let-up affect his fielding, did not see action.

In the American League, Larry Doby contributed one hit in two at bats and scored the tag run toward the Indians' 3-0 victory over the Washington Senators. Easter again sitted.

Clippers Annex 3rd Straight Win

SALISBURY, Md. — The Maryland Clippers won their third straight game here Sunday by defeating the strong Vienna Pops of Vienna, Va., to the tune of 5 to 0. This was the first time Vienna has been shut out in the history of the team.

Holloway, ace curve-baller of the Clippers, was never in trouble, as he allowed only 4 hits, and only one runner reached third base. McDowell was the big man with the stick. He laced out a homer with two mates aboard in the Andy can win the four, though no one ever did it in the IC4-A." If Stanfield can win the four, it will be a big feather in Gibson's cap and maybe the IC4-A championship for Seton Hall.

Phil Thigpen is a good bet for the 880-yard run and Seton Hall has a fine chance to cop the one-mile relay with no Morgan State College to contest them. Thus, if Andy could win four and Thigpen and the relay foursome come through, Seton Hall could register 30 points—usually enough to win the championship.

$500 Shoot Meet

CINCINNATI (ANP) — A $500 registered shoot conducted at the Gun Club of Cincinnati.

It is a herculean task Stanfield has fashioned for himself and it will me a miracle if he is able to accomplish it. Barney Ewell, formerly of Penn State, three times achieved a triple victory in IC4-A, but no one in modern time has even attempted a quadruple.

If the four-event proves too tough for Stanfield, it may be that he will have to scratch in one of the events. If he is able to get through the trial heats on Friday, his chances should be good for he could easily wave his final jump in the broad jump if his trial jumps were of appreciable distance. But the rub will come when he has to run the final of the 220 sprint and 220 hurdles in succession.

Good Chance for Title

Coach Gibson said, "I think antecedent championships. The grind is going to be rough for Andy for he will have only 10 minutes rest between the 220-yard hurdles and the 220-yard sprint final.

Rough Schedule

The meet schedule for Friday and Saturday indicates a very busy day for Handy Andy. On Friday, the schedule shows the broad jump trials at 4 p.m.; 100-yard heats, 4:35 p.m.; 220-yard low hurdle heats at 5:10, and the 220-yard sprint heats, 5:25 p.m.

On Saturday, it is just as tough with the schedule: 100-yard semi-finals, 2:45 p.m.; 100-yard final, 3:25, broad jump finals, 3:45; 220-low hurdles semi-finals, 3:35; 220-yard sprint semi-finals, 4:05; 220-low hurdles finals, 4:30, and 220-yard sprint finals, 4:40.

Why women love Mr. Boh!
1 Mister Boh was a helpful friend to all who came to his store—for Mister Boh suggested things that they simply would adore.
2 He put up orders in a flash—and the women would almost cheer when he'd mention the 6-CAN CARTON of National Bohemian Beer!
3 "It's light as a feather," Boh would say about that handy pack. "There's no deposit, no return, and the cans are easy to stack."
4 Everyone loves these features, but the beer is better yet—for it's lighter and it's drier... has a flavor you'll never forget!
