H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

FALL ANNOUNCEMENT!

TWICE DURING EACH YEAR a store (especially of this sort) presents to the buyer entirely different aspects. In fact, due to our local climate, the dry goods merchant has but two seasons---Fall and Winter merge to make one season and Spring and Summer the other. To prepare for one of these seasons (six months long) is no small task.

To assist us in this preparation, the policy of this store has been to buy only from wholesale houses which are considered foremost in the country, both as to style and quality of their goods. This policy has been the bulwark of whatever success we have achieved as distributors of good merchandise.

In the departments mentioned below, the best the market affords is here for your critical inspection.

Millinery Department

Our stock of Hats is now complete. Our buyers have procured from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore what in their judgment represented the best tastes in MILLINERY. We have a remarkable showing indeed to greet you.

Dress Goods Department

The piece goods are so pretty that this season promises to be a record one. Brocaded Velvets, Velvet Corduroys, Shepherd Checks, Large Plaids, Serges, Diagonals, Ratines, Etc., are here in abundance.

Suit Department

The stamp of STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER is on all our Ladies' Suits. This means for you correct style and value received for your money. BUY YOUR SUIT OR COAT EARLY so as to get the pick of our splendid assortment.

Shoe Department

You need not look further than this store to find "Fashions Favorites" for Fall 1913.

J&K Shoes for Ladies, $3.50, $4 $4.50 and $5.

Monogram Shoes for Misses and Children.

Skuffers and Trampwell for Children's School Shoes.

If you come in now, we have all widths and can fit you perfectly.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

DOUGLAS COCHRAN.

Douglas Cochran, youngest son of Mr. Robert A. Cochran, died at his father's home near Middletown, Del., on Monday afternoon of last week, of a complication of diseases. Mr. Cochran had been ill since last Febuary. He was 39 years of age and unmarrind. Besides his father Mr. Cochran leaves one brother James Cochran and seven sisters, Mrs. Spencer Comegys, Mrs. Joseph S. Griffith, Mrs. John P. Cochran, Mrs. J. Wallace Beaston, Mrs. James Crew, Miss Lydia Cochran, and Miss Josephine Cochran. The funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon, from his father's home and interment was made in Forest Cemetery.

MRS. SARAH SYMES.

Mrs. Sarah Symes, mother of Mrs. Cornelius Stahr, died at the home of Mr. Wm. R. Price, near Turner's Creek, of paralysis on Wednesday morning, aged 68 years. She leaves a husband and ten grown children. Funeral will be held to-day (Saturday), at the home at 1 o'clock, Rev. Wm. Clews officiating. Interment in the M. P. church yard in Kennedyville. Wm. H. Krusen will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

LITTLE—DUKE.

Rev. F. T. Little, pastor of Alnutt Memorial Methodist Protestant Church, Lombard and Chester streets, officiated at the marriage ceremony of his son, Pere Wilmer Little, when he was married Monday afternoon to Miss Caroline Elizabeth Duke, of Calvert county. The pastor was assisted by his son, Rev. Francis Little, one of the groom's brothers, who is an assistant at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine Church, New York, while Reese H. Little, another brother, was the best man. The marriage took place at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Alnutt Church in the presence of the immediate families and a few personal friends of the bride and groom. Mr. Little is manager of the special agents of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Baltimore. The bride's only attendant was her father, Mr. Perrin Duke, by whom she was given in marriage. She was attired in a neat fitting dark traveling suit and carried a large bunch of yellow chrysanthemums. The wedding march was rendered by Mr. Harry Gilligan, organist of the church. The bride had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Duke, her uncle and aunt, at West Orange, N. J., and went to Baltimore a few days ago and stopped at the Belvedere. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a two-weeks trip through the South. They will be at home to their friends after October 15, and will reside at 1401 Linden avenue, Baltimore.

Our Merchants' Interest.

The well-known and reliable commission house of Frank Hellerick & Co., of Philadelphia, is asking our poultry raisers for their shipments of turkeys, etc. This firm is one of the most reliable commission houses in the east, and is so well-known to Kent and Queen Annes people that it is unnecessary for us to say anything to the shippers. They state that they have built up a large trade through advertisement in the Kent papers, and they are looking for still more. Mr. Emory Sudler, a well-known former resident of Queen Annes, is connected with the house and will look after your interests carefully. See their advertisement in another column and give them your trade.

Where can you get a really good hat that is right in style for as little as $1.50 or $2? At Bordley's. Where can you get anything in the clothing and furnishing line that is as good and as low priced as anywhere else? At Bordley's.

Kuppenheimer clothes and Selz Royal Blue shoes always please. They are sold at Brown Bros.' store next to the Third National Bank.

If you want to know all about how you can secure that handsome $400 piano on display in Mr. A. L. Sparks' big window go in and he will tell you. And if you want to see one of the prettiest lines of dress goods, notions, millinery and hats that the big store has ever carried, go inspect his stock.

The season for fall weddings has arrived and J. S. Kreeger has a beautiful assortment of wedding presents in his big store on Cross street. Look them over. He also carries the celebrated Waltham watches.

They tell us that the size of the hats this fall is much smaller than usual. Hey, Hubby, ain't you glad? And they say that H. F. Jefferson & Bro. has marked the prices to suit the size and "trim". Hey, Hubby, ain't you glad?

H. B. Rote, the jeweler, not only keeps time, but he keeps everything else in the jewelry line, besides keeping in touch with the people's wants and carrying a line of goods that appeal to good taste and popular prices.

A. Cohen's big Sandy Bottom department store will be closed from next Friday, October 10th, until Monday evening, October 13th. He will pay 36c per dozen for eggs during the week.

Wm. M. Hadaway, the Worton merchandise store man, is prepared to supply your fall and winter needs in fodder yarn, household goods, farm supplies, etc. He will pay highest market prices for country produce. He'll take all the eggs you bring.

A representative of Isaac Hamburger & Son, the well-known Baltimore clothing house, will be at Vansant & Newsome's store on October 9, 10 and 11 to take your measure and show you a magnificent line of samples from which to select a nobby suit. No doubt about the workmanship and style. They are up-to-date in every particular.

Mr. Charles H. Jefferson is agent for the well-known Empire wheat drill, and keeps on hand a full supply of repairs of all kinds. Also agent for repairs for the Bickford & Huffman drill. See him about each.

P. M. Brooks has dairy feeds of all kinds at reasonable prices. His Rose Bud and Maryland Seal flour are also among the best brands manufactured. See him about them.

Those mixing pans that Medders & Co., of Still Pond, is offering for next Wednesday at only 9 cents are fine. If you ever try one, you will never want to be without one.

Fair prices, good shoes and complete service is the motto by which C. C. Jones, the exclusive shoe man, is winning business every day. Try him and be convinced.

Millington Items.

The following delegates were elected last Sunday to attend the county Sunday School Convention, which will be held at Still Pond, Tuesday, Oct. 14th: Mrs. J. L. Smith and Mrs. Lizzie Jones. The alternates elected were: Miss Susie Jones and Miss Pauline Stevens.

Miss Lizzie Mabrey, of Washington, D.C., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mabrey, near town, last Sunday.

Mr. R. J. Taylor and family, and Mr. and Mrs. John Higman returned home last Tuesday, after a week's stay in Albany, N. Y.

Miss Nan Crane and mother moved this week from Bailey's Hotel to Central Hotel. Mrs. Rose moved from her house, which adjoins the postoffice, to Bailey's Hotel. Mrs. Ella White moved from the Hurlock house to the Walls house and Mr. Johnnie Slaughter moved to the house vacated by Mrs. White.

The cannery closed last Friday, and the Bohemian help returned to their homes in Baltimore Tuesday morning by a special train.

Mrs. Charles Roberts, of Middletown, Del., spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. B. W. Aydelotte.

Mr. Edward Cole died last Wednesday about 1 P. M., at his home in South Millington, of a complication of diseases, aged 60 years. Arrangements for funeral had not been made at time of this writing.

Mr. Johnnie Slaughter has accepted the position of clerk in Mr. C. H. Higbit's store.

Services to-morrow, Oct. 5th, at Asbury M. E. Church, will be as follows: 9.45 A. M. Sunday school, subject: "Moses' Cry for Help"; 11 A. M. preaching by the pastor, Rev. Claude Benson; 7.30 P. M. Rally Day Service by Sunday school. Friday, 7.30 P. M., prayer service. All invited.

Miss Willie Moffett held her opening of fall millinery Thursday, October 2nd.
