SOME

folks "can be hoodoed" all the time, all sometime, but not all, all the time.

There's quite a number awakening to the fact that I'm saving them from $3.50 to $5.00 on Suits and Overcoats, compared to what they've been paying for as good service. I deal with the New York branch of the International Tailoring Co., insuring the most modern, reliable and quickest service.

No stock, no large rents and expenses generally. Hence I can afford to work close, and I'm satisfying a large proportion on this score. Investigate my plan.

Respectfully,

W. E. Moody,

Office Under Vothell House, next to Robt. McWhorter's,

CHESTERTOWN, :: :: MD.

EYE GLASSES

WE HAVE REMODELED our examination room and installed the latest OPTICAL instruments, and with our six years of study and experience in fitting glasses we are prepared to give you EYE GLASS SATISFACTION.

THE NEW COLLAR MOULDER

in use at the Home Laundry moulds the collar in the correct shape.

Pure soaps and proper finish finish give the collar a snow white appearance. Collars laundered here last longer—they are not ironed by out of date machines. There is ample tie space, round edge (not sharp). No more cutting of edges.

On a Green Slope.

The above is the title of a charming little book of poems by Miss Mary Robertine Stokes, Kent's sweet poetess, just issued from The Gorham Press, Boston, Mass. The book is dedicated to the mother of the poetess, and is composed of the poetic gems written by Miss Stokes from time to time, several of which were recently published in the TRANSCRIPT. Miss Stokes is a lover of nature. She is an artist with the brush as well as with the pen, and she has woven into her little book in a most artistic and rythmic manner the beauties of nature as she has lived among them upon the green slopes and rugged hillsides of old Kent. We are proud of our Betterton poetess. She is the second artist in this county to sing in poesey, and the TRANSCRIPT will take this little gem which we have received through the courtesy of Miss Stokes, and preserve it in our library, where we may frequently peruse its pages in search of nature's beauties. The book is very attractive, and an edition of 500 volumes has just been issued. The book may be purchased for $1 per volume at the Eichelberger Book and Stationery Co., North Charles street, Baltimore.

TRU-SHEEN

CARD OF APPRECIATION.

I desire through these means to express to all of those who were so kind, sympathetec, thoughtful and considerate of me and my family in the recent sorrow that has fallen so heavily upon us in the sudden death of our beloved son, Clarence. The many tokens of high regard in which my boy was held in this community will ever be held in loving remembrance by me.

Very sincerely,

1t THOMAS WILLIS.

ATTEND, ATTEND, FRIENDS.

Lend an ear!
The witches are back,
They've all come here!
They buried them deep,
But they won't be still
On All Saints eve,
When the winds blow chill
They'll meet you here,
At the hour of eight,
Come see queer things
And learn your fate
And get good things to eat,
At Still Pond Grange Room,
Oct. 31st. Admission 25 cents.
