LOCAL MATTERS

Prize Winners at Festival.—The following is a list of winners at St. John's supper and festival at Rock Hall on Sept. 27: Dinner set, won by Mr. Wheatley, Rock Hall; brass clock, by Miss Florence Hogans, Rock Hall; brass umbrella stand, won by Mr. Brannock, Rock Hall; large dressed doll, won by Miss Voelker, 1002 Lommerset street, Baltimore, Md.; gold watch and chain, won by Mr. Kaufman, Empire Laundry, Baltimore, Md.; center-piece, handmade, won by Mr. Groeninger, Baltimore, Md.

Made Unnecessary Trip.—Because Col. Samuel L. Rawleigh of St. Mary's county, well-known in this town, received a telegram a few days ago, which had been delayed a year in Leonardtown, he unnecessarily took a trip to the city last week. Col. Rawleigh failed to note the date of the telegram, which was from his granddaughter saying that she expected to visit him. Failing to put in an appearance the Colonel went to look for his granddaughter and upon going to the home of his daughter in Washington, D. C., he found his granddaughter who stated that she was not contemplating a trip. Col. Rawleigh remained in Washington with his daughter several days and then returned home to see if his telegram could not be delivered on time.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The resignation of George C. Town send, justice of the peace, of Millington, has been forwarded to Gov. Goldsborough.

The Pomona Grange will be held at Kennedyville, Nov. 13, instead of Oct. 23, as previously announced. The annual election of officers will be held at this meeting.

A runaway team on Washington avenue created some excitement on Sunday afternoon. The horse got frightened at an automobile and dashed up the avenue at a rapid rate. The gentleman who was driving managed to clear every obstacle except a hitching post and the animal was brought to a standstill at the foot of College Hill with no other damage then a broken shaft. Mr. Charles N. Satterfield, of the firm of Davis & Satterfield, happened to be near by and he assisted the gentleman to his shop where a pair of shafts were secured and the gentleman went on his way.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

CHESLEY—MERRITT.

A wedding ceremony performed by the grandfather of the groom took place at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. Michael and All Angels, St. Paul and Twentieth streets, Baltimore. Miss Henrietta Elizabeth Merritt, daughter of Mrs. L. S. Merritt and the late Samuel A. Merritt, 2107 North Calvert street, and John William Chesley, of Charlotte Hall, St. Mary's county, Md., were the principals in the unusual affair. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John W. Chesley, of St. Michael's, Md., a retired minister, assisted by Rev. Charles Fiske, rector of St. Michael and All Angels' Church. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Judge James Alfred Pearce, of Chestertown, formerly of the Court of Appeals. She was attended by her sister, Miss Adelaide K. Merritt, as maid of honor. The groom was attended by J. Edward Harrison, as best man, and Samuel A. Merritt, Macall M. Merritt, Chas. W. Chesley and Arthur P. Gough, as ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Chesley will reside in Baltimore. The bride is a descendant from one of the oldest and most prominent families of Kent county.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

CLARENCE WILLIS.

Clarence, son of Rural Route Carrier Thomas Willis, was found dead in bed at his father's home near Radcliffe Mill on Sunday morning. The cause of death is supposed to have been heart failure. Young Willis engaged in a rough and tumble game of football on the public square on Friday night, during which he sustained a bruised side. He did not complain much the following day and on Saturday evening he played in the band at the Democratic meeting in Fireman's Hall. When found on Sunday morning his body was still warm. Young Willis was employed in the harness shop of Mr. Walter Bramble, and was an industrious and very courteous young man. His sudden death cast a gloom over the entire community. Beautiful floweral offerings were made by his Sunday school class, and by eight boy companions. He was a member of the Junior Order of Mechanics and was very popular in the town. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from his fathers residence near Radcliffe mills, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Norman Hicks, Norman Hirons, Colyn Dwyer, Jewell Armstrong, Charles Ford, Albion Bailey, Alvin Coleman and Cecil Robinson. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of arrangements.

MRS. WILLIMINA H. SMYTH.

Mrs. Willimina H. Smyth, wife of Mr. Richard C. Smyth, of near Fairlee, died on Tuesday, October 7, aged 76 years. Besides her husband she is survived by four children, Mrs. Wm. E. Keyser, Mrs. Walter Taylor, Miss Carrie and Blanch Smyth and fourteen grandchildren. Mrs. Smyth was a warm hearted and loving wife and mother and was possesed of many noble trates of character and ever ready to assist those in trouble. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from the residence of her husband conducted by Rev. H. B. Jester of St. James M. P. Church; interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: H. C. Willis, Jesse H. Usilton, C. Romie Skirven, C. Frank Crow, Wm. G. Smyth and Stockton Startt. Charles L. Dodd, undertaker.

WILMER EMORY

Wilmor Emory, lawyer, and for many years a justice of the peace, died early Saturday morning at his home, 2006 Maryland avenue, Baltimore, from an attack of acute kidney trouble. Mr. Emory was born at Lansdowne, Queen Annes county, August 17, 1847, and was the son of the late James W. Emory. He made his home in Baltimore about 15 years ago, when he become the leading factor in the organization of the Queen Anne Railroad. Besides his widow, he is survived by to daughters (Mrs. Charles W. Hurst and Miss Margaret Emory) and by one son (Wilmer Emory, Jr). Funeral services were held on Sunday with interment in Centerville.

C. E. IVENS.

Mr. C. E. Ivens, of Churchville, Harford county, died at his home Thursday morning, aged 55 years. He leaves a widow and one son. Mr. Ivens was well-known in this county, where he had frequently been a visitor.

Protestant Episcopal Convention.

The general convention of the P. E. Church, which has been held regularly in this country every three years since the year 1786, met in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, in New York City, on Wednesday morning, October 8th. There are in attendance at this convention 115 bishops and the convention will embrace 715 representative men from all parts of the world.

Twelve hundred members of the Woman's Auxiliary, which holds its session coincident with the General Convention, are in the city.

The delegates from the Diocese of Easton are: Rev. S. S. Hepbron, of this county, David Howard, Gibson Ghant, W. Y. Bearan, of the clergy, and Messrs. Edwin Valliant, W. Hopper Gibson, of Queen Annes county, W. L. Cooper and Judge Stanford.

Our Merchants' Interest.

Investigate Mr. W. E. Moody's claim to save you $3.00 to $5.00 on suits or overcoats made to measure by the International Tailoring Co. of New York, Chicago and London. No large rent, stock to carry and other necessary expenses explains why such conditions are possible. He's making quite a good many for conservative buyers who readily see the difference compared to prices they've been paying.

AN INTERESTING FACT.—The largest amount of business ever done in a single day by the firm of Bordley & Sons, the men's store", was done last Saturday, October 4th. If you have curiosity enough to know how the trick was turned, read their advertisement in this issue, and it will tell you. You young men who have not yet gotten an "Adler-Rochester" book of styles, will do well to give your name and address to Bordley & Sons, and they will mail you at once this book. It has something interesting for you to know about the famous "Adler" line. Don't buy with your eyes shut. Ask them.

The fall advertisement of Kilbourn & Bramble of Fairlee, the hustling and up-to-date Fairlee merchants, have their full advertisement with interesting quotations of goods in everyday use in this issue on page 7, you will not go amiss if you stop and read this advertisement.

Mr. J. H. Sides' advertisement of automobile supplies, vulcanizing of tires and general repair shop, together with his Central Garage, will be found in our adv. columns on page 5.

Resolutions of Respect on the Death of Clarence Willis.

WHEREAS, Our All Wise Heavely Father has seen fit to remove from us by death, Brother Clarence Willis, therefore be it

Resolved, That in Clarence Willis the M.E. Sunday School has lost one of its most faithful and valued members, one who ever had the interest of the Sunday School at heart and one that was most earnest in his endeavor to learn more of his Christ and His Kingdom and one whose bright face will ever be missed by his class-mates, his teacher and his Sunday School, therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend to his stricken parents, his brothers and sisters, our heart-felt sympathy, feeling he has left a vacancy in the family that can never be filled, therefore be it

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent to the parents, entered on the minutes of the Sunday School and published in the county papers.

TRUSTEE'S SALE
—OF A—
Valuable DWELLING
On High St., Chestertown, Md.

UNDER and by virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, passed in Chancery Cause, entitled Alfred A. Crew, et al., vs. Daniel W. Crew, being No. 1853 Chancery, the undersigned thereby having been duly appointed Trustee to sell the real estate mentioned in said proceedings, will offer at public sale in front of the Court House Door, in Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, on TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21st, 1913,

Between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M. and 12 o'clock noon.

ALL THAT Valuable Lot of Land

fronting 40 feet on High street and 44 feet on Kent street. IT IS IMPROVED BY A

Three-Story Frame

in excellent condition and repair. It adjoins the properties of J. H. Sides and others on the south, Ralph Barnett and others on the north, and M. A. Toulson on the west, and it is the same property which was conveyed by the late Sarah C. Todd and others to the late Walter W. Crew, by deed dated the 24th day of February, 1904, recorded in Liber J. T. D., No. 9, Folios 138, &c., one of the Land Record Books for Kent county, Maryland.

This is a valuable property, is suitable for a dwelling or could readily be converted into a desirable store and dwelling, and it offers a rare opportunity to any one wishing a home or place of business in this desirable part of Chestertown.

This property will be offered in two parcels or lots, in the following manner:

1st. The lot fronting 40 feet on High street, with the store and dwelling on same, containing 10 rooms, running back an irregular width 148 feet, more or less.

2nd. All that portion of the said lot fronting on Kent street 44 feet, and running back 70 feet 6 inches, more or less. It has a Stable with 3 stalls, a Carriage House and shed on the rear thereof; the purchaser of the second lot to have the right to remove any portion of the shed which may lie on any part of Lot No. 1. And it will then be offered as a whole and sold as may be most advantageous.

TERMS OF SALE, as prescribed by the Decree, are: One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale, and the balance in two equal installments, payable in one and two years from the day of sale; all unpaid purchase money to bear interest from the day of sale and to be secured to the satisfaction of the Trustee. All title papers at the cost of the purchaser.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Trustee.
