300 Teachers Attend Workshop at Western

Some 300 public school teachers attended a workshop program sponsored, this week, by the Department of Elementary Special Services Division at Western High School.

The project was entitled "Juvenile Delinquency" and the teachers heard speakers, and participated in panel discussions on this subject. The workshop was held from 9 a.m. to 12 Monday through Friday.

Templeton Named 'Father of Year'

Winning over keen competition from Dr. George B. Murphy and the Rev. Reginald Daniels, Furman L. Templeton Sr. was elected by popular ballot as "Father of the Year" at Madison Ave., Presbyterian Church, last Sunday, during the Men's Day celebration.

The congregation cast their ballots on the first two Sundays of the month. Mr. Templeton, personnel manager of the AFRO-AMERICAN, was presented an engraved leather wallet and key case.

Main speaker at the morning celebration was James A. B. Calis, chairman of the board of directors of the Druid Hill Ave. branch YMCA.

Man's World No Longer

Mr. Calis pointed out that the world is no longer considered a man's world because "today we live in a different world and what is said of men can in a very large degree be applied to women."

He also said that a great deal of the distrust," prejudice, fear and frustration in the world was due to a large extent to the lack of such great leaders as Abraham Lincoln and Booker T. Washington.

Leonard Wilmore was soloist. Music was presented by the Men's Chorus, under the direction of Gerald Burks Wilson. Thomas B. Hawkins, president of the Men's Club, presided; and William H. Kindle was general chairman.

Men's Day Nets Sponsors $2,540

The annual Men's Day service, sponsored by the Brotherhood Club of Leadenhall Baptist Church, on Father's Day, netted $2,540.66.

Robert Grey, a member of the church for 62 years, was selected as Father of the Year. Although feeble, he has not missed a morning service in many years.

Men's Day speakers were the Rev. Frank J. Frye, Dr. G. Lake Imes and James Cherry, deacon.

Deacon Allen Sydnor reported the largest amount of the captains, and was crowned king of the church. During the Men's Day service Mrs. Rosa Sydnor, Deacon Sydnor's wife, was crowned queen.

George Lottier is president of the Brotherhood. W. A. Bevans was general chairman of Men's Day.

QM Open House Marks 175th Year

Open house was observed at all Quartermaster facilities at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Friday, in celebration of the 175th anniversary of the Quartermaster Corps.

Among the Quartermaster facilities at Aberdeen Proving Ground are the meat cutting plant, clothing store, gas stations, cold storage plant and warehouses.

The APG Quartermaster feeds and clothes the troops, operates the central meat plant and handles heating and fuel supplies and buries the dead. At APG, the Quartermaster is also the supply agency for engineer, signal, chemical warfare, transportation corps and Air Force supplies.

$1,500 goal.

New contributors were Elmer A. Henderson, assistant superintendent of public instruction, $10, and the faculty of School No. 107, Gilmor near Laurens St., $5.

Despite Mr. Henderson's recent illness, he has agreed to appear on the clean block closing program to be held at the Met Theatre, Sept. 1.

55 Captains Sign Up

To date some 55 captains representing that many blocks have brought or mailed their applications into the AFRO Clean Block office and received by return mail material necessary to start a clean block.

Each captain who registers in the campaign receives an envelope with enough window cards for every resident in his block and arm bands to be used as admission to the first clean block meeting, June 30, 10 a.m. at the Mc Cullah Homes auditorium, 1010 McCullah St.

He also gets 10 rules and regulations which are to be read by all the workers in his block and a captain's card, which he will use for identification throughout the campaign.

Flags to be Distributed

Captains who register before the July 1 opening will be sent a post card reminding them of the first clean block meeting, where each captain will be given a small American flag to put in his window box or flower pots.

These flags will let neighbors know where the captain lives, and the captain's house should set the example in beauty and cleanliness for the whole block.
