Miss Mitchell L. Young Wed

Trinity Baptist Church overflowed with relatives and friends to witness the marriage, Saturday evening, of Miss Mary E. Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholas, to Leon Young.

The bridegroom is the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Young of Petersburg, Va.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. V. V. K. Stokes, pastor of the church. Mrs. Charlotte Swan was at the organ and Mrs. Katherine Winslow was soloist.

Wears Chantilly Lace

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, John Nicholas, wore a gown of chantilly lace bodice, with heart-shaped neck line, and a net skirt over bridal satin. Her veil was held by a seed pearl tiara. She carried a bible mounted with an orchid.

Mrs. Evelyn Johnson, matron of honor, wore pink chiffon and Mrs. Madessa Wallace and Miss Gwendolyn Parago, other attendants were gowned in aqua chiffon. The frocks were made with hoop skirts, trimmed with lace of the same color, and accentuated by the heart-shaped bouquets the attendants carried. Mrs. Johnson carried a floral wedding ring of orchids and gardenias.

Washingtonian Best Man

John A Young of Washington was best man. Ushers were Otis Oliver and Thomas Morton.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nicholas wore a gown of beige crepe, while Mrs. Young was gowned in aqua crepe. Both wore corsages of orchids.

For her wedding trip to New York City, the bride wore a suit of navy gabardine, with egg shell straw hat, matching accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Women's Church Council to Meet

The Interdenominational Council of Church Women will hold its next meeting at the Orchard Street Nursery, 510 Orchard St., Monday at 1 p.m.

Mrs. W. Berkley Butler, president of the Baltimore Links Club, recently sent to the nursery two cases of fruit juices. The Westwood Ave. Neighborhood Club headed by Mrs. Stewart Tingle, sent two trash cans.

At present, there are 52 children enrolled in the nursery school. Mrs. Edna Redmond is director.

In Wedding Ritual

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Young were married in Baltimore, Saturday. The bride is the former Miss Mary E. Mitchell.—Associated Photographers
