This determination, this promise of a continuance of our tried and true policies has a definite significance just now, for we are again ready to present for your critical inspection and selection, the season's timeliest offerings in good clothes for men of all ages.

This season, as in the past, we place our faith in clothes from

The House of Keppenheimer

because a careful, conscientious study of the prevailing styles, convinces us of their superiority.

Likewise, as careful an inspection on your part, will convince you that here and here alone, are garments both pleasing to the eye and critical-proof from a standpoint of quality and worthy workmanship.

A welcome awaits you whenever you call.

An ideal combination of business and real friendship is our aim. And that you may know just what these good things will cost you, here is a complete price range representing a full measure of that before-mentioned quality at every figure. $18, $20, $22.50.

From other clothing manufacturers' prices range from $7.00 to $15.

Decide Yourself

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed by Chestertown Testimony.

Don't take our word for it.
Don't depend on a stranger's statement.
Read Chestertown endorsement.
Read the statement of Chestertown citizens.
And decide for yourself.
Here is one case of it:

S. F. Robinson, stationary engineer, Front St., Chestertown, Md., says: "Besides having trouble from my Bladder, I also suffered from backache. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and attended with pain. Doan's Kidney Pills were the best kidney medicine I ever used, giving me great relief. I heartily recommend them."

"When Your Back is Lame—Remember the Name." Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask Distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Robinson had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Surplus Funds

IT is safe and wise to carry a surplus fund bank account. It protects your general account. It adds to your credit basis. When you come to Baltimore to buy stock the surplus account is handy to pick up unusual bargains.

We pay interest on daily balances of $200 and over subject to check.

TO THE TAX-PAYERS OF KENT COUNTY.

TREASURER'S OCTOBER SITTINGS

In pursuance of an Act of Assembly passed at the session in 1891, Chapter 292, the undersigned, Treasurer of Kent county, hereby gives notice that for the purpose of receiving the

STATE AND COUNTY TAXES

in said county for the year 1913, he will sit for the October sitting in the several Election Districts between the hours of 10 A. M. and 3 P. M., on Thursday, October 23rd,

Still Pond—At Wm. Medders' Store.
Betterton—At Chas. H. Brice's Store.

Thursday, October 30th,

Rock Hall—At Chesapeake House.
Fairlee—At Kilbourn & Bramble's Store.

At all other times will be at Treasurer's Office in Chestertown. The Treasurer's Office in the Court House will not be open on the above days.

The Treasurer's Office in the Court House will be open every day except on the above dates from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. for the receipt of Taxes. Taxpayers will please take notice that taxes will be due and payable Sept. 1st, and that on all bills unpaid on January 1st, interest will be charged and collected from Sept. 1st. On the first day of January all taxes unpaid are declared by law to be in arrears, and delinquents will be warned that unless settlement in full is made before April 1st, the claims against them will be placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the county, who will proceed to seize and sell their property to pay the taxes due with charges and all costs of sale. The Treasurer would therefore respectfully urge all tax-payers to pay promptly.

Teacher Training—Mr. A. J. Hackett.
Missions—Miss Bessie Stuart.
Temperance—Mrs. Belle Morris.
Home and Visitation—Miss Bessie Hurlock.
Evangelism—Rev. C. W. Moore.

Rev. A. E. Owens, pastor of Chesterville and Trinity, Millington M. E. South Churches, the president, was in the chair and kept things at the "interesting" point all the time. Rev. B. W. Kindley, superintendent of Sunday school work in the Maryland Conference M. P. Church, was also present, and gave many helpful suggestions as to modern Sunday school methods. The ladies of Still Pond Church entertained the visitors most sumptuously at dinner and supper, and delegates were present from nearly every church in the county. The music which was a feature of the occassion, was in charge of Mrs. John Schofield, one of the church's most earnest workers, and everybody assisted to make the day a most helpful and enjoyable one.

Baggage Rules Effective.

New baggage rules are now in effect on the Pennsylvania which will keep both the railroad employees and traveling men busy following the new orders. From now on all railroad baggage or packages must be checked the same as regular baggage, and sample trunks, once emptied, must be shipped by express to their distination as they cannot be checked under new orders.

On the railroad end the new order is the result of failure to put off packages at their proper distination, and to carrying of baggage as railroad baggage which belonged to outsiders. A check on every package sent as railroad baggage will tell the distination, time it was sent and other data. This means that the baggagemen will have a record and cannot miss putting off the railroad baggage at the proper points.

Traveling men have been selling their samples at the end of their trips and checking the empty trunks home. This has been stopped. No empty trunks will be received. The express companies will be the gainers through this order. The railroad companies claim they are imposed upon by traveling men, who get their trunks through free of all charges in direct violation of the meaning of the Inter-State Commerce rules.

Downie & Wheeler have bought Frank A. Robbins' circus, and hereafter the two circuses will combine. The deal was closed at Greensboro, where the latter exhibited Oct. 1st.
