HON. JOHN G. WOOLLEY.

The above distinguished speaker delivered a masterly temperance address in Christ Methodist Protestant Church on Wednesday evening. Mr. Woolley is one of the greatest lecturers in this country, and his large and attentive audience was carried away by the force and power of his eloquence. He is touring the State under the direction and management of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League.

THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Rev. Thomas C. Jones, who has been pastor of Relay Methodist Episcopal Church for sometime, has been transferred to the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and has been assigned to Leeds, Cecil county, charge.

Rally Day at Christ M. P. Church was observed with interesting services last Sunday. Rev. Dr. Graham, the pastor, preached appropriate sermons to large congregations both morning and evening. A special program of music, recitations and responsive readings were rendered in the Sunday school in conjunction with the monthly missionary service. Little Virginia Nicholson delivered the address of welcome, and the singing was spirited. The missionary collection amounted to more than $28, Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard's class winning the banner, which was presented by Mr. Joseph N. Wheatley in a very appropriate speech. The attendance of scholars and teachers was 155, the infant class, Mrs. T. D. Bowers, teacher, winning the banner for the largest attendance. The Christian Evdeavor service was particularly interesting. The lecture room of the church was packed, and members of the St. James' and Kennedyville societies were present as guests. The feature of the evening was a splendid address by Prof. Mark Creasy, principal of the Chestertown High School. Prof. Creasy made a most effective address advancing a number of progresives ideas with regard to church work which may bear fruit in the near future. A quartette by Mrs. Fred G. Usilton, Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Messrs. Arlington L. Sparks and J. Hydie Thompson was well rendered and the service was a highly enjoyable and profitable one.

Rev. Dr. E. C. MacNichol, a prominent Methodist preacher, member of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, resigned his pastorate of Janes M. E. Church at Rising Sun, Md., at the quarterly conference on Saturday evening. Upon the advice of his physician he will move to Philadelphia to live and rest in an effort to regain his health.
