THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Tuesday is election day.

Turkeys were quoted in Baltimore this week at 25 cents per pound.

Last night was Halloween, and the young folks enjoyed their usual pranks.

The law for shooting rabbits and partridges is out to-day. Both are reported scarce this season.

Fishing for yellow perch with hook and line up the river has been affording good sport during the week.

President Wilson has issued a proclamation designating Thursday, November 27th, as Thanksgiving Day.

Local buyers were paying 55 cents for cob corn and 60 cents a bushel for shelled corn yesterday.

The Kent county Pomona Grange will meet in Kennedyville in an all-day session on Thursday, November 13th.

A flock of thirty wild geese flew over Chestertown towards the South, on Monday afternoon, presaging cold weather.

Ground has been broken by contractor Frank E. Dnyer for the new Janes M. E. Church on their recentl purchased lot on Cross street.

A. S. Turner, the reliable Worton grain buyer, is offering the highest market price for cob and shelled corn. See him before you sell your grain.

Mr. H. Stockton Startt and Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson, Mr. Wm. B. Willis and Mr. Thomas Fowler enjoyed an automobile trip to West Chester, Pa., on Monday.

The bookkeeper who defaulted to the Hubbard Fertilizer Co. in Baltimore, is not the Hubbard Fertilizer Co. with whom Mr. W. W. Hubbard, of Chestertown is connected.

The store formerly occupied by Mr. S. E. Kirby up town will be opened today at 2 P.M. by the Globe Clothing Company, S. M. Rosenberg, proprietor, of Middletown, Del., outfitters for the whole family.

A handsome monument has been placed in the Sharptown Methodist Protestant cemetery to the memory of Albert E. Twiford, who died and was buried in France in August, 1912. Prof. Twiford was formerly a member of the faculty of Washington College.

John E. George is having built one of the most modern cow stables in this State. Possibly the most unique feature is the individual drinking bucket, but everything which will add to the sanitary conditions will be included. When completed it will be one of the show places of Sudlersville.

Joe Boy, 2.06¼, owned by Dr. Wogan, of York, Pa., and campaigned during the season by Dan Leary, demonstrated his right to the title of champion pacer of Pennsylvania last Wednesday when he defeated Sellers D. on Belmont track, Philadelphia, in two straight heats in 2.08¼ and 2.07¼. The race was for $250 a side, winner to take all.

Our farmers are evidently paying considerable attention to improving their poultry stock. Poultry raising for profit is just like stock raising. What is the use of keeping unprofitable mongrel stock when you can make far more money and get much better satisfaction from raising purebreds? We know a large number of our farmers' wives who are swapping poor stock for the blooded fowls.

The Mattice Stock Company, which has been playing nightly during the week in the Lyceum Theatre, is one of the best and most refined companies ever seen in Chestertown. Every member of the company is an artist of merit, and the entertainments they have been giving are edifying and educational in their nature. To-night the company gives "Midnight in Chinatown," a play descriptive of the manner and life of the Chinaman in the opium joints of San Francisco. It will be worth seeing.

A WORTHY UNDERTAKING.

The Woman's Relief Society of Chestertown will hold a supper and bazaar next Tuesday evening in the room under Lyceum Theatre for the purpose of raising funds with which to establish either an Emergency Hospital or an Old Woman's Home in Chestertown. For several years the TRANSCRIPT has been agitating the question of a hospital here, because of the great need for such an institution and also because of the fact that it is in accord with the spirit of progress which other towns on the Shore have manifested. There is nothing like persistent effort in securing advantages for our community, and the TRANSCRIPT always foremost in the advocacy of progressive ideas, is delighted that the ladies of the town have become interested in this movement, for we believe it will be pushed to a successful termination. We would suggest that the Ladies' Town Improvement Association, the Federated Club, and all other organizations of a charitable nature, come to the assistance of the Woman's Relief Society, and arouse our community to the great need for such an institution. We would also suggest that a popular subscription be started, and the TRANSCRIPT will be glad to make a liberal contribution. There is no telling what a great blessing a hospital, or even an Old Woman's Home would be to our poorer class of people who are not able to avail themselves of the advantages of hospital treatment in our large cities, and with our force of skilled physicians and surgeons with which Chestertown is fortunate to be well supplied, there is no question about the succes of such an institution. We sincerely wish that every citizen in Chestertown will become interested in this matter, and that they will respond generously to the appeals of these ladies who have so nobly undertaken this work.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

HUSTON—STRONG.

The Chestertown M. E. Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Rebecca Audoun Strong, daughter of Mrs. Herbert R. Strong, of Chestertown, became the bride of Mr. Harland Watson Huston, a prominent young business man of Seaford, Del. Friends of the bride had beautifully decorated the church for the happy event, and the auditorium was crowded with relatives and friends to witness the ceremony. Promptly at the appointed hour, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, skilfully rendered by Miss Mabel Toulson, the bride entered the church on the arm of the groom, preceded by her maid of honor, flower girls and ushers, and advanced to the chancel where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett, pastor of the church. The bride wore a rich costume of ivory satin charmeuse, trimmed in duchene lace, over which was a tulle veil caught up with lillies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, lillies of the valley and maiden hair ferns. The maid of honor, Miss Lily Fountain, a cousin, of Baltimore, wore nile green crepe meteor, trimmed in shadow lace, and carried large white crysanthemums. The two little flower girls, Misses Ella Perkins, of Philadelphia, and Anna Strong, of Rock Hall, cousins of the bride, wore white and carried baskets of white sweet peas. Mrs. Herbert R. Strong, mother of the bride, wore black satin charmeuse trimmed in black embroidered silk net. The ushers, who, with the groom, wore evening suits, were Messrs. Leon H. Jones, Ringgold Strong, of Kent; Simon W. Westcott, of Baltimore, and LeRoy Hurley, of Seaford, Del. During the ceremony Mr. T. Kemp Bordley rendered sweet music on the violin, accompanied by Miss Toulson on the pipe organ. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother on Queen street, at which only the immediate families and a few close friends were present. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Huston left by automobile for a short wedding tour. They will reside in Seaford. The bride's going-away gown was a becoming suit of blue with hat and gloves to match. They were the recipients of numerous valuable and costly wedding presents, including silver, cut glass, fine linen, and china.

An interesting engagement to Maryland society, which has just been announced, is that of Miss Carolene Marsh Hynson, daughter of the late R. D. Hynson, and Mrs. Hynson, and Mr. Carl Stollenwerck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Gustavus Stollenwerck, of 21 East Lanvale street, Baltimore. The wedding will take place at 7.30 o'clock on the evening of Saturday, November 22, at Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother. Mr. Stollenwerck, who is connected with the banking firm of Alexander Brown & Son, Baltimore, is a graduate of the Johns Hopkins University, class of 1911. He is well-known socially and in the world of athletics and was captain of the foot ball team while at Hopkins. A number of Baltimoreans will attend the wedding

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Geoghegan announce the marriage of their daughter, Eulah Maguire, to Mr. Frank A. Hurlock, at their home on Choptank Ave., Cambridge, Tuesday morning, November 4, 1913, at quarter past six o'clock. No cards. The groom-elect is well-known in Kent, being a son of Mrs. A. S. Hurlock, of Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. French, of near town, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mary Augusta, to Mr. Grover C. Hatcherson on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, 1913, at 3.30 P. M., in St. James M. P. Church.

Educational Rally.

Thursday was Education Day in Chestertown, and parents, teachers and scholars from all parts of the county were present to participate in the exercises. Dr. M. Bates Stephens, State Superintendent of Education, Dr. Thos. H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, Dr. James W. Cain, president of Washington College, both members of the State Board of Education, together with Prof. L. J. Smyth, County Superintendent of Schools were present and delivered addresses appropriate to modern day educational methods. Governor Goldsborough and Mr. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, were expected to be present, but were prevented by other engagements. The object of these meetings which are held in all the counties of the State, is to stimulate greater interest on the part of the people in our public schools, as well as to bring to the attention of the public a number of important measures for the improvement of the public school system, such as a State-wide compulsory school attendance law, better rural school facilities, a specific school tax for each county in the State, a tenure of office for assistant teachers, and other reforms of a beneficial character, which the next session of the Legislature will be asked to provide. Preceeding the speech making which took place upon a platform on the High School campus, there was an inspiring parade of the school children, teachers and some trustees, in which more than 1,170 children took part, representing nearly every school in the county. The afternoon was devoted to athletic sports of various descriptions on the school grounds witnessed by a great crowd. We desire to say on behalf of Radcliffe Park management that the use of the fair grounds free of charge was offered for the athletic sports, but the school authorities thought it would be too cold for the contestants in the open field.

Right-Posture School Suits for Boys!

Deep Breathing Means Sound Lungs

Yours for Deep Breathing

"Right-Posture."

¶A physical culture director of the public schools asked the Snellenburg Clothing Co., of Philadelphia, if something might be done in the construction of boys clothing to help in the great educational campaign against round shoulders. The question started a line of investigation, and the result was "RIGHT POSTURE" Suits for boys which contain an ingenious construction which is patented.

¶A reinforced hood and yoke braces both the shoulders and shoulder blades. To the hood is attached an ADJUSTABLE elastic band which neither binds nor interferes in the least with the free movements of the body and arms. The band is a reminder to the boy who would stoop.

¶The coat is beautifully made, with shoulders set well back, and a springiness of contour which gives a military carriage and suggests pride in bearing.

BOYS' SUITS, $2.00 to $10.00.
