Memorial Service.

Chestertown Council, No. 177, Jr. O. U. A. M., held a very impressive and helpful memorial service in Fraternal Hall on Sunday afternoon. Mr. George Peacock, as councilor, and his committees, had made all arrangements, and the service was surely beneficial. The council has lost ten members since it organized. The councilor intended for ten members to speak in memory of the ten deceased members, but two of the speakers could not be present. The deceased members and those that spoke are:
