LONGER HAIR Amazes Leading N.Y. Beautician

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Miss Vivian Ford, pictured above, owner of the Vivian Ford Shop, 738 St. Nicholas Avenue, New York City, stated that she used full strength Kotalko for a period of six weeks on one of her customers, whose hair was dry, cracking off, and brittle due to lack of sufficient natural hair oils. With the scalp and hair conditions normal, using Kotalko regularly to supplement these natural oils, she was amazed with the results achieved.

By special arrangement with this newspaper you too may use the very same Kotalko right in the privacy of your own home that Miss Ford uses on her New York customers.

In these days of scientific achievements and beauty miracles, why have short, furzy, unattractive, unmanageable hair? For just a few cents you may have the silkier, smoother, longer, more lustrous hair that men and women will admire. Order medicated Kotalko and three large bars of foamy Kotalko Special Shampoo Soap that works wonderfully in hard of soft water. Use the coupon below or secure marvelous Kotalko at your druggist's. New County Pupils' Enrollment Dates Set

All Baltimore County children who plan to enter the first grade this fall should report with a parent to the public elementary school nearest their residence on Sept. 5 or 6 between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., it was announced by county school officials this week.

Children whose sixth birthday anniversary occurs on or before Dec. 31, are eligible for registration. Birth and vaccination certificates must be presented on the day of registration.

Pupils residing in Baltimore County, who wish to transfer from another school system, are also asked to report to the county public school nearest their residence that offers courses at their grade level on the above dates.

A transfer record of scholastic achievement must be presented on the day of registration.

TALENT GOING UNDEVELOPED:

Rec Bureau's Program Limitations Lamented

Considerable talent is going undeveloped because the Recreation Bureau lacks funds to employ specialists in music, art, dramatics and various crafts.

This observation was made by Theodore E. Brown as he rounded out one year as senior supervisor of recreation in Baltimore.

Mr. Brown cited numerous gains made by the department in the 12-month period and railed the lack of specialists a most pressing need.

Joint Survey Lauded

He said that such specialists have been used with success in Washington and other cities comparable to Baltimore.

Mr. Brown considered a survey made by his department in co-operation with the Department of Education as the outstanding achievement of the year.

He also spoke highly of the expanded municipal sports program which, under the direction of Harold J. Jennifer, is attracting ever wider participation.

Recreational Facilities Gained

As a result of the survey, which was approved by the Baltimore Housing Authority, additional recreational facilities have been provided for the Cherry Hill area, and plans have been made to provide facilities there for an estimated future population of 20,000.

At present the Cherry Hill population is estimated at 12,750. When proposed public and private housing developments are completed, however, the figure is expected to climb to 20,000.

THEODORE E. BROWN

The survey committee suggested that a proposed community building in the public housing project be centrally located and contain a craft shop, social room with adjacent kitchen, a lounge, a game room and two or three multiple use and club rooms.

Parks, Pool Recommended

It also recommended that the Housing Authority, the Bureau of Parks, the Bureau of Recreation and the Department of Education jointly draw up and carry out plans for a 12-acre park in Cherry Hill, to include a swimming pool and wading pool.

Mr. Brown pointed out that the survey and resultant conference marked the first time that the various city departments had worked so closely on a community recreation problem.

Though no figures were immediately available, Mr. Brown said participation in municipal sports program had increased two-fold within the year.

He also cited the annual swim meet and inter-city championship activities between Baltimore and Washington as gains in the municipal sports set up.

Other Accomplishments Noted

Other accomplishments in the year included:

Opening of Cloverdale Playground, plans for developing play area on Orchard St. near Druid Hill Ave.; and plans for a third at Laurens and Gilmor Sts.

Also noted were plans for development of the Peach St. Playground and redevelopment of play areas at Mace St. and City Springs.

The bureau in addition, recommended opening of a recreation center at Banneker Homes in 1951, opening of Greenmount Ave. center and a recreation center at School No. 136. The dedication of the Chick Webb swimming pool was also cited in the report.

Finds Time for Civic Affairs

Though Mr. Brown has been busy day and night strengthening and expanding the overall recreation program, he managed to find time for civic affairs. He spoke in February at the Maryland State Conference of Social Workers at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

In addition he is a member of the Baltimore Citizens Planning and Housing Committee, the Frontiers Club and the Baltimore Board of Officials.

A native of New Orleans, Mr. Brown received his bachelor's degree from there and his master's degree from Syracuse University. He is married to Mrs. Maude Brown. Their sons, Theodore Jr. and Leonard, are students at Morgan State College.

Unique Program at Two Churches

The women's chorus of the Falls Rd. AME Church and the Taylor Jubilee Singers of John Wesley Methodist Church will compete in a program to be held this Sunday, Sept. 3, at the Mt. Hope Baptist Church, Franklin and Pine Sts., beginning at 3:00 p.m., sponsored by the Missionary Circle.

Prizes of $15 and $10, respectively, will be awarded the winners who will appear on the same program with William Taylor, champion nail driver, who will be performing for the first time on Sunday in any church.

On the same Sunday evening at 6:30, the program will be repeated at the Whatoeat Methodist Church, North and Madison Aves., sponsored by the Bishop's Guild.

Among the speakers will be: Mrs. Sallie Taylor, the Revs. Philip Dawson, A. D. Nance, J. H. Casben and S. W. Fields.

Accident Victim Sues for $20,000

Complaining that one car struck the rear of the auto in which she was riding, and knocked it into the back of still another car, Mrs. Edith Tucker filed a $20,000 damage suit against a motorist this week.

In the Court of Common Pleas suit, Mrs. Tucker of 2546 Madison Ave. related that she was in a car which halted in traffic on Apr. 18, 1948, when the mishap occurred.

A car driven by William Dougherty, white, she went on, bumped into her's, and made it hit the one halted in front. Represented by Amos Meyers, attorney, Mrs. Tucker said she was seriously injured as a result of the collision, on Caton Ave. near Wilkens Ave.

Winners in National Musicians Scholarship Contest

When the National Association of Negro Musicians, Inc., met in Baltimore last week for their 27th annual convention, they awarded scholarships to six young people. Four of pictured above, left to right, are Misses Gloria Harris, soprano of Detroit, and Jacqueline Henry, soprano, of Washington, both first-prize winners. Because of two first place awards, no second prize was granted. Miss Catherine Hughes, third-prize winner is not shown in this group. Theodore Rochester, pianist of Philadelphia, won second prize in the instrumental group, and Miss Elaine Nurse of New York, third prize.

O'Donnell Active Candidate for States Attorney

William J. O'Donnell, candidate for the office of State's attorney in the September primaries, told the AFRO Wednesday that if elected he will—

"Administer justice fairly and impartially without regard to race, creed or color."

Mr. O'Donnell, a World War II Navy veteran, has been an assistant State's attorney for nearly five years, and has handled many cases in the Northwestern police station.

One Standard

"There is only one standard of justice," he told the AFRO," and that is for everybody. I have made no distinction in cases involving colored people alone, or in those in which both races are affected."

He thinks that the traffic in dope should be seriously frowned upon because narcotics afect people's minds, making them almost wholly irresponsible for their actions.

There should be no discrimination either, Mr. O'Donnell says, in the prosecution of those who violate numbers laws.

He prosecuted the cases of some 20 men rounded up in Northwest Baltimore by colored FBI agents and jailed on narcotics charges two years ago.

Defend Innocent

The candidate urged an adoption of the principle that "the innocent must be defended with the same interest that the guilty are vigorously prosecuted."

He said, moreover, that no prosecutor should attempt to establish a record of convictions at the expense of the impartial administration of justice.

Mr. O'Donnell called for a revision of the operation of the domestic relations division of the State's attorney's office; the appointment of a squad of investigators for full and complete investigation of all cases;

Special treatment of teen-age defendants, and their segregation from criminal-hardening influences while awaiting disposition of their cases; and vigorous prosecution of cases of violence and deadly weapons.

Born in Baltimore in 1916, Mr. O'Donnell is the son of the late Judge Joseph F. O'Donnell who for his graduation with honors presided for many years in Southern police court.

He attended local parochial schools, and was graduated from Loyola High School and Loyola College. In 1937, Mr. O'Donnell was appointed law clerk to former Chief Judge Samuel K. Dennis, and was admitted to the bar in 1941, before his graduation with honors from the University of Maryland law school.

Two Plead Guilty in Narcotics Case

Two men were placed on probation by Judge Robert F. Poppleton Tuesday, after they pleaded guilty to possession of narcotics.

Ordered to leave the State and pay court costs for a one-year suspended sentence and probation is Gabriel Riveria seaman, of the 1700 block Druid Hill Ave. Officers said they found 78 marijuana cigarettes in his room on Aug. 17.

State's Attorney Alan Murrell said police had been watching the man for some time before the arrest by Sgt. Joseph Carroll Officers Jacob Simonson and Kenneth Vaught.

It was understood that Riveria will be under supervision of probation officials in New York where he will return with his parents.

In the second case, Samuel Gray of the 800 block Saratoga St., on probation when Ernest Perkins, attorney, cited that the man is the main support of his 75-year-old mother.

Gray pleaded guilty to possession of a "couple" marijuana cigarettes when arrested in a Pennsylvania Ave. club.

Judge Fines Man $5 for Each Girl Annoyed

For accosting women on the street, and dashing in and out of a Pine St. tavern, Willie Ruth was fined $15 and costs in Western police court, Thursday.

In observing Ruth for 20 minutes, police said he "grabbed" three women who resisted him. He was, repeatedly warned, they said, against hanging around the tavern before he was arrested.

In levying the fine for disorderly conduct, Magistrate Julius A. Romano said he was charging Ruth "five dollars for each woman."
