YES—
we're making quite a good many OVERCOATS
as well as SUITS—any style, any length, any color you want at any price from $12.50 up, and they all possess that same individuality that's only obtainable in made-to-measure garments, and what should also be interesting to prospective buyers. We are rendering this superior service at very much less cost than you can NOW buy anything equal it in ready-made clothes. No stock to carry and carry over, no large rents and insurance and general expenses that must enter into the cost of your Suit or Overcoat from the general dealer, is why I can and am convincing by comparison every day.
QUICK service—six days after I take your measurements the garments are delivered to you.

I HAVE A PAIR OF EXCELLENT WORK MULES, 6 and 8 years old. Also pair 3-year-old Mare Mules; 10-year-old Driving Horse, and several flocks of Sheep which I will sell at a sacrifice.

Having no further use for the above stock is my reason for selling.

Woman's Auxiliary.

The Woman's Auxiliary, of the Diocese of Easton, met in the Parish House of Emmanuel P. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon at 3 P. M. A large number of delegates from the different parishes were present. Bishop Rowe, of Alaska, addressed the Juniors, and Miss Jenkins, president, also made an interesting address. At 7 P. M. there was service in the church and Bishop Rowe made an eloquent address. He is a pioneer in the mission work of Alaska, traveling thousands of miles on sleds drawn by dogs in the artic circle, sleeping in snow and ice, to carry the gospel to the Indian and Eskimo. His influence over them is so great that the Government recognizes him as a powerful factor in dealing with them. Twice has he been elected to prominent bishoprics in this country but refuses to leave his "Children of the North." In all of his addresses not once did he mention his own name in connection with the great work, but those missioners who were working under him. At 9 30 on Thursday morning the Holy Communion was celebrated by Dr. Martin, after which there was a business meeting until 1 P. M., when a lunch was served in the parish house to visitors and the congregation. Immediately after lunch the business meeting was continued until 5 P. M.

At 7.30 P. M. evening service was held in the church and an able address was given by Bishop Brewster, of Western Colorado. Mrs. M. P. Finley, of this town, was re-elected president and Mrs. Alwyn Stavely, of Lynch's, corresponding setretary.

Among the visitors at the Auxiliary meeting this week were: Mrs. Oawal Tilghman, Mrs. Harry Covington, Miss Ellen Barroll, Miss Jenkins, Mrs. Zed Collins, Mrs. Spencer Wright, Miss Ellen Purnel, Miss Houston, Rev. and Mrs. Ware, Rev. Sewell Hepburn and wife, Mrs. Mary Janvier.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

HATCHERSON—FRENCH.

St. James M. P. Church, beautifully decorated with evergreen, asparagus and cut flowers, and lighted by the candles' soft rays was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 3 30 o'clock, when Miss Mary French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James French, of near town, became the bride of Mr. Grover Hatcherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hatcherson, of near Fairlee. The church was filled with relatives and friends to witness the happy event. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding march, skilfully rendered by Mrs. Lewin U. Skirven, sister of the bride, the bridal party entered the church, and proceeded to the chancel, where the ceremony was performed impressively by the pastor, Rev. H. P. Jester. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. George W. French, of Chestertown. She was becomingly attired in a handsome dress of dark blue velvet elaborately trimmed and wore a black picture hat. She carried a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums. The matron of honor, Mrs. Howard Jones, sister of the bride, wore a beautiful gown of green silk crepe de chine, and carried large yellow chrysanthemums, while the maid of honor, Miss Mamie Eidman, of Baltimore, wore a beautiful costume of blue silk crepe de chine, trimmed with lace and carried pink chrysanthemums. The groom, his best man, Mr. Howard Jones, and the ushers, Messrs. Walter T. Bramble, William French, Percy Hatcherson and Wallace Kilbourn, wore conventional black. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hatcherson were driven to town in Mr. T. Kemp Bordley's car, where they transferred to one of Mr. J. H. Sides' cars and left for Middletown, Del., to take the train for a short wedding tour. They will reside on the property now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bramble, near Fancy school, which the groom recently purchased. They were the recipients of numerous costly and useful presents, among them being a handsome silver pitcher from St. James Sunday school, of which the bride was organist.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Louise Smith, daughter of former County Commissioner and Mrs. John C. Smith, of Queen Annes, to Mr. Lester Spry, of Church Hill. The ceremony was performed in Wilmington by Rev. Daniel Ford.

Mr. William Statts, of Piney Neck, and Miss Ida May Derringer, of Baltimore, were married at Wesley Chapel parsonage on Wednesday evening by the pastor.

Mr. John H. Moffett, whose fine Rhode Island Red chickens have won prizes at some of the big Poultry shows, swept everything before them last week at the Centreville School fair. Mr. Moffett's pen of fine chickens took 1st prize for cockerel, 1st and 2nd prizes for pullet, and special prize for best birds at the show. Mr. Moffett will exhibit at Baltimore in January and probably at Madison Square Garden, New York.

TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES.

I have to loan on Mortgages at 6 per cent. $500, $600, $800, $1000, $1500, $2000, $2400, $2500, $3000, $4000, $5000, $7000, $10,000 and $20,000. Some of these sums can be placed for five years. On first-class mortgages where the loan does not exceed three-fifths the value of the farm, a large part of this money can be borrowed at 5 per cent.

Key to Happiness

It is not rare gifts that make us happy. It is the common and simple and universal gifts; it is health; and the glance of sunshine in the morning; it is fresh air; it is the friend, the lover; it is the kindliness that meets us on the journey, it may be only a word, a smile, a look—it is these and not any parity of blessing that are God's genius art of making happy. Buy your wife a Singer Sewing Machine from COL. SUPLEE, at Betterton, Md., Singer Manager, and all will be happy.
