Democratic Ticket.

EDITORS.

UNITED States Senator-elect Blair Lee will not take his seat until January 1.

THE report of the County Auditing Committee appears in this issue. It is carefully prepared and well worth the attention of our tax-payers.

GUESS who will be appointed Supervisor of Elections in place of Mr. Samuel G. Caldwell, who has been elected county treasurer? Mr. Caldwell's term as treasurer begins next April.

PROF. Thomas B. Symons, of the Maryland Agricultural College, will please accept our thanks for a complimentary ticket to the annual meeting of the affiliated agricultural associations in the Fifth Regiment, Baltimore, next week.

THE situation in Mexico is becoming alarming. It would be a most unfortunate thing for this country to become engaged in a war with Mexico. There is no telling to what embarrassing complications such a war would lead. Let a war be avoided if possible, but if it must come, the United States will defend her interests to the limit.

THE Baltimore American says the reason the Democrats won such an overwhelming victory in the recent election is because of the great mistakes of the leaders of the Republican party. The Baltimore Sun says the reason the Democrats won by such a majority is because the Bull Moosers voted the Democratic ticket. The whole upshot of the business is that the Republican party has been torn to pieces by bad management.

IT is more than likely that Mr. Wm. H. Anderson will endorse Senator John Walter Smith for re-election to the United States Senate. Senator Smith and Mr. Anderson have been "playing sweet" on one another of late, and down in Worcester Senator Smith nominated Mr. Orlando Harrison, a strong favorite with Mr. Anderson, but Mr. Harrison was returned defeated by the Fusion candidate in one of the fiercest battles ever seen in Worcester.

IF Senator John Walter Smith is the kind of a Progressive Democrat and the ardent supporter of President Wilson that his friends claim, he had better allow Mr. Quince Ashburn to take his seat in the Maryland Senate without a contest. President Wilson doesn't endorse that brand of Progressive Democracy which believes in thwarting the will of the people by unfair and suspicious means.

ASSOCIATE Judge James P. Gorter is being prominently mentioned as the successor to Chief Judge Henry D. Harlan, of the Baltimore Supreme Court, who resigned this week to accept the position as General Counsel to the Fidelity Company. Judge Gorter is one of the most distinguished jurists in the State, popular with all classes of the people, and his promotion by Governor Goldsborough, who will make the appointment, will be a most fitting recognition of the ability and character of men suited for such important honors.

ONE of the Cambridge papers is booming Comptroller Emerson C. Harrington for Governor two years hence. The friends of Congressman J. Charles Linthicum, of Baltimore, are making a quiet canvass to ascertain the feeling of the people throughout the State, and it is said that Congressman Linthicum is very strong with the independent vote in Baltimore city and the State. His friends think he would make a winning candidate for Governor. Others whose friends are pushing their claims are Senator Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico, president of the Senate in the last session of the Legislature, and likely to succeed himself; Senator Maloy and Hon. Jere Wheelwright, of Baltimore.

AUDITING COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The auditing committee in its report published elsewhere in this issue, suggests that on "June 1st the county treasurer should have his bank book balanced and give to the commissioners a statemeat of all monies received and from what source, together with a list of insolvent and delinquent tax-payers at that time, which list, we think, should be published in the county papers." This is in line with needed reforms in the method of collecting our county taxes. Queen Annes county has such a method and it works admirably. We desire to say that a bill providing for this reform was prepared and sent to Annapolis during the last session of the Legislature, but for some reason unknown to the authors no action was taken upon it. The committee also recommends the sale of the almshouse farm, for the reason, we presume, that it has ceased to be a paying investment to the county. Would it not be a wise move to sell the farm and use the proceeds to build an improved road from ock Hall to Chestertown?

BILL DESERTS BILL.

Under the heading, "Slaps for 'Dry Bill,'" the Evening Sun of Wednesday says:

"William H. Anderson is still receiving "slaps" as a result of the overwhelming defeat of his candidates last Tuesday. To-day it was learned that State Senator W. W. Beck, of Kent County, has come out against the Anti-Saloon League superintendent. Beck in the past had been an Anderson ally at Annapolis."

"Bill, of all things! Just think how Senator Beck and his Organization here acquired the influence of Mr. Anderson in the primaries, and posed as the great champion of the local option bill. Now, what Mr. Beck can be of some service to Mr. Anderson in the next Legislature in return for what Mr. Anderson did for Beck's candidates in the primaries, suddenly Bill deserts Bill, and turns the bag to hold. Our temperance friends should note this change in Senator Beck's attitude right on the eve of the next session of the Legislature.

AN INTERESTING SITUATION.

Two gentlemen, one a resident of Queen Annes, the other residing in Kent, made a wager of a fine hat some months ago upon the result of the recent primary in Kent. The Kent countian bet the Queen Annes gentleman a hat that the so-called Barroll faction would be licked in the primaries. They met for the first time in Chestertown since the primaries one day last week. The Kent gentleman said: "Well, you owe me a hat, Barroll got licked." "Oh! No", said the Queen Annes gentleman, "You owe me the hat, Barroll didn't get licked. Didn't his faction win the cream of the ticket? They got the County Commissioners and the Treasurer and they had the Orphans' Court and Register of Wills before, and about all the Organization got out of it is TROUBLE. Barroll didn't get licked". "Well," said the Kent countian, "Suppose we call it a draw", "You may call it anything you please", said the Queen Anne's gentleman, "but you don't get the hat, because Barroll didn't get licked."

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. CLAUDE F. PARKS.

Mrs. Claude F. Parks died at the home of her parents near Centreville on Monday afternoon at three o'clock after a lingering illness of tuberculosis, aged about 31 years. The deceased had been suffering with the fatal disease for some years, but being of a cheerful disposition and possessed of indomitable will power, she struggled against its ravages with remarkable bravery. The deceased was popular with a host of friends here and in Queen Annes, and her sad death is mourned by those who knew her and loved her. She was before marriage Miss Mary J. McFeely, of Centreville. Besides her husband she leaves three interesting children. Funeral services were held on Wednesday with interment in Centreville Cemetery. The family and a number of close friends attended the funeral from Chestertown.

ROMAN R. CROTHERS.

Roman R. Crothers, of the Elkton Bar, a nephew of the late Gov. Crothers, was found dead in bed at the Felton Hotel, Elkton, where he boarded, on Saturday afternoon. Death was due to heart failure. During the recent campaign in Cecil, which was a hard fought one, Mr. Crothers took a prominent part. He was 28 years old and unmarried.

NATHAN DUNBRACCO.

Mr. Nathan Dunbracco, formerly a furniture dealer of Baltimore, and a native of Queen Annes county, died at his home 1607 Harlem avenue, Baltimore, on Tuesday, following a stroke of paralysis, he suffered last Friday morning. For years Mr. Dunbracco was an active worker in West Baltimore Methodist Church. He was a brother of Mrs. Joel R. Clements of this town.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE OF KENT COUNTY, MD.

To the Honorable Board of County Commissioners for Kent County, Maryland.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed January, 1904, we, having been appointed auditors for Kent county, beg leave to state, we have examined the books, accounts, vouchers and papers of the office of the County Commissioners, Treasurer, Board of School Commissioners and Trustees of Almshouse, and submit the following report as shown in

EXHIBITS

In order that the succeeding Auditing Committee, as well as the general public, may understand the work done by the auditors, we wish to state that we have compared the assessment books of the county with the tax books of the Treasurer and verified them. We have traced each bill presented, through the books of the County Commissioners, to Treasurer, to the checks returned. We have left in the Commissioners' office a list of all orders and certificates which have not been paid. We would suggest that on June 1st, the Treasurer should have his bank book balanced, and give to the County Commissioners a statement of all monies received and from what source, together with a list of insolvent and delinquent tax-payers at that time, which list, we think, should be published in the county papers.

We desire to call special attention to the Almshouse Exhibit, and would recommend the sale of the Almshouse Farm

You will also see that Exhibit showing expenditures for 1912-13 make the amount $97,067.13, while the Treasurer's expenditures are $111,182.55. The former is made up of Orders and Certificates for 1912-13, while the latter is made up of Orders of 1912-13, and paid, and Certificates of 1911-12 paid in 1912-13.
